Bedford has a marriage insurance agent.

We are having most delightful autumn weather.

Iowa gives only 50,000 Republican majority in an "off" year.

James Lambert has been appointed postmaster at Brine, Stonycreek township, this county.

All of our readers should read the biographical sketch of Hon. John Cessna, on our first page.

Quite a number of Somerset county people were at Baltimore last week to witness the Oriole festivities.

The Ohio Republicans turned out pretty well for an "off" year. Let their Pennsylvania brethren do likewise.

Corn husking has been inaugurated amongst the farmers throughout the county. The crop is scarcely an average one.

Hon. A. J. Colborn left Somerset Monday morning to attend the Yorktown Celebration. He will return the latter part of the week.

A number of insurance agents in Johnstown were prosecuted last week for pursuing their business without taking out a license.

The people who go to the Yorktown Centennial will enjoy the novelty of tenting out. There are no hotels and very few houses of any sort.

It is said that under the refreshing influences of the late rains, the wheat which was put in the—dust, some weeks since is coming up nicely.

A company of New York capitalists have purchased 6,000 acres of coal lands in Manor valley, Westmoreland county. They intend to manufacture coke.

A small piece of charcoal placed in a pot with boiling cabbage will, it is said, prevent the unpleasant smell from that wholesome vegetable when cooking.

Our farmers propose to "make hay while the sun shines," and therefore are putting their potatoes on the market at a time when they command a good price.

The chicken "wish-bone is likely to supplant the "horse shoe" as a popular design in jewelry. Already it is being mounted in gold and worn on the bosom as an ornament.

There was a slight mistake made in our last issue in regard to the time of holding the Republican meeting at Jenner X Roads. It will be held on Saturday, November 5th, at 2 p. m.

Mr. A. A. Stutzman, Republican candidate for Register and Recorder, called to see us Saturday morning on his way home from Baltimore, where he had been taking a look at the "Oriole."

Already the weather prophets are predicting a severe winter. God pity the poor among us, if we are to be visited with another winter like unto the one we experienced last season.

The cold weather has brought about the old query, "Didn't you hear the bell ring?" It is generally addressed to wearers of straw hats. The meaning is plain to those who are most interested.

Under the new schedule which went into effect on the S. & C. Railroad, Monday, we now get our eastern mail in the evening instead of having to wait until the next morning, as heretofore.

Now is the time to begin to plant hyacinth and tulip bulbs for blooms in the house in the winter. The bulb catalogue of any prominent seedsman will give the simple directions for management.

Mr. Auditor Snyder returned to the place of his nativity Sunday afternoon after a two months trip through the west. He reports the west a very good country to look at, but to live in prefers Somerset to any place he was at.

The church which the Presidents attend in Washington during their term of office, is, for the time being, the fashionable one. Last Sabbath President Arthur attended the St. John's Episcopal church, a queer little structure, about two squares from the White House.

Quite a large crowd of Somerset people went to Pittsburgh on the excursion train Thursday morning for the purpose of witnessing the closing ceremonies at the Exposition. They returned on the Mountain Express Saturday night, and report having had a very delightful trip.

Why can not a literary association be formed here for the benefit of our young people and older ones, too, for that matter? The coming winter evenings could not be more profitably spent than in exercises that would improve the mind and afford an innocent but solid enjoyment.

Under an act of the Legislature a heavy fine and imprisonment are imposed upon any person found guilty of defacing walls, out-houses, fences or trees without the consent of the owner. It will be well for all artists of the pastepot, stencil plate and whitewash brush to bear this enactment in mind.

Up to date forty-four physicians of this county have registered in the Prothonotary's office, as required by a late act of Assembly. This probably includes all the male doctors in the county who are entitled to practice. We are told that there are a number of female physicians in the county who have not yet registered.

A circular has been issued to the county, borough and city superintendents of schools by Hon. H. E. Higbee, calling two conventions of the officers the coming winter, for counties west of the Alleghenies and the other for the eastern part of the state. The convention for school officers in western Pennsylvania will meet in Allegheny, January 10, and continue three days.

Milk readily absorbs every odor, whether agreeable or disagreeable, and catches every variety of ferment which may happen to come in contact with it from the air. It should be carefully protected against all such influences and kept in pure air out of the reach of all noxious smells. Good butter can not be made from milk kept in a filthy milk house or cellar.

The committee in charge of the proposed monument to be erected over the grave of President Garfield have issued a call to the people of the United States, asking for popular subscriptions to the fund, and requesting newspapers, postmasters and banks to receive and forward to the Second National Bank at Cleveland, contributions for the purpose.

Judge Hall is asking Republicans to vote for Baer for the reason that if Baer is elected he (Hall) will have a large practice in both Bedford and Somerset counties. Which Baer would be Judge—the one from Somerset county or the one from Bedford county, is a question a great many people will be likely to ask before they cast their votes this fall.—Bedford Republican.

Boston University, in honor of the late President, "who, in spite of poverty and other obstacles, acquired unusual learning and usefulness, and who was ever ready to assist those struggling for some worthy objects," has decided to establish a fund known as "The Garfield Scholarship fund," the income of which shall be used to aid worthy and needy students who are striving for professional education. The influence of such a life and character as Garfield's his made itself felt in every department of public life, and various institutions throughout the country vie with each other in perpetuating his memory.

The water-famine in this section is about at an end. The late rains have soaked the parched earth in a thorough manner, and the wells and springs will soon arrive at their regular stage. Many physicians attribute typhoid fever in certain localities to a low and infectious stage of water. If such is the case no fears need be entertained of such a state of things in this locality.

Our public schools opened Monday morning with the usual number of pupils on the roll. The school term is only five months and parents should see that their children are prompt and regular in their attendance. The teachers employed are capable and efficient, and although the term is short much knowledge can be acquired by a regular attendance and close application.

Hon. A. H. Coffroth, Capt. John Holderbaum, W. J. Baer, S. U. Trent, Mart. Hartzell, John Bender and Ye Local were among the Somerset county persons in attendance at the Bedford fair last week. The exhibits were not up to those of our fair, but the crowd in attendance was considerably larger. Financially the exhibition was a success.

Johnstown and vicinity have succeeded in nearly stamping out small-box, all the cases reported being under control. But to take its place has come an equally dangerous scourge—diphtheria. A number of cases of the latter disease are under treatment, and a repetition is feared of the experience of a year ago, when scores of victims where gathered in, and even entire households destroyed.

Dr. H. H. Wynne, recently of New York city, has located permanently in Johnstown to commence the special and exclusive practice of Diseases of the Eye, Ear and Throat. Dr. Wynne has had an extensive experience in the large general and special hospitals of the Metropolis of the United States, and has recently been surgeon in charge of one of the largest Eye Hospitals of New York City.

The undersigned gratefully acknowledges the following collections for the building of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, at Millheim, Pa., viz:

Stoystown charge, $52.87; Friedens charge, $28.61; Berlin charge, $21.05; Centreville charge, $15.35; Lavansville charge, $12.03; Somerset charge, $12.00; a friend, $7.17; total, $150.88.

JOHN TOMLINSON.

The Republicans of Cambria county held their convention on last Tuesday, and nominated the following ticket: President Judge, Hon John Dean; Associate Judges, Richard Elder, Joseph Masters; Treasurer, F. H. Farker; Commissioners, Samuel W. Davis, George Gramling; Director of the Poor, David Davis; Auditors, Wm. H. Connel, C. B. Cover; Coroner, Joseph S. Strayer. D. S. Kinkead was elected Chairman of the County Committee.

The Scientific American gives the following recipe for getting rid of stumps: "In the autumn or early winter bore a hole one or two inches in diameter, according to the girth of the stump, and about eighteen inches deep. Put into it one or two ounces of saltpetre, fill the hole with water and plug it close. In the ensuing spring take out the plug and ignite it. The stump will moulder away, without blazing, to the very extremity of the roots, leaving nothing but the ashes."

In order that our sportsmen may act intelligently, and under the law, we will give them a hint about the shooting of game. A year ago rabbit shooting was permitted on October 15, but this is changed. In 1878 a law was passed making it legal to shoot partridges and rabbits on October 15, but last winter the legislature changed the law, leaving the date for the beginning of partridge shooting the same, October 15, but establishing the legal date for shooting rabbits on November 1. Sportsmen would do well, therefore, to "stick a pin" in this.

Faith-Doctor Daniel Shaffer, of Sipesville, wishes us to say that he has been registered under the late act of Assembly, and that he is still successfully treating a large number of patients by "laying on of hands and by prayer." During his practice he has treated over 800 patients, suffering from all the various diseases, and he maintains that he has been endowed with the healing power from on high. To those who doubt that that there is a direct command in the Bible to "heal the sick," he refers to the 17th and 91st Psalms, 16th chapter of Mark, and 11th Hebrews.

There are comparatively but few people in this country who have any adequate idea of the value of the apple crop of the United States when the crop is a full one. The total exports of apples from this country from August 1st, 1880, to May 14, 1881, was 1,349,806 barrels. Putting the value of the apples at the low price of $2 per barrel, we have the enormous sum of $2,697,612. This was a neat little income to the United States, and this year must fall short a million or more. It would be well for our farmers and fruit growers to bear in mind that to raise good fruit pays like raising anything else of a good quality from the farm.

Mr. William Ferrel, the young man spoken of in last week's HERALD as being afflicted with the small pox, died from the effects of the dreadful disease at the hospital, last Thursday morning, and was buried in the cemetery attached to the Metzler church. Mr. Ferrel was a young man of about twenty two years of age, and was a native of Orange county, Va. For the past eight months he had been employed on the Somerset and Cambria Railroad, and bore the character of an honest, sober, industrious young man.

A rumor of another case of small pox near town has been circulated, but we have been unable to trace it to any authentic source.

The discussion of "The Christian Religion," by Colonel Ingersoll and Judge Black, which was commenced in the August number of the North American Review, is continued in the November issue of that publication. Col. Ingersoll now replies to the strictures of his opponent, and presents much more fully than he has ever before done the logical grounds for his opposition to Christianity. The article will be received with interest by those who have read the first part of the debate, as well as by those who believe that the cause of truth is best advanced by free discussion. An early number of the Review will contain an exhaustive reply. In a Symposium on Presidential Inability, four of our most eminent jurists, Judge Thomas M. Cooley, the Hon. Lyman Trumbull, Prof. Theodore W. Dwight, and Gen. B. F. Butler discuss the several weighty problems arising out of Article 2 of the Constitution. "England's Hereditary Republic" is the title of a significant paper contributed by the Marquis of Blanford, and Senator George F. Hoar writes a statesmanlike article on "The Appointing Power" of the President of the United States.

The first Republican meeting of the campaign was held at Berlin, Monday night, and was one of the best we have ever had the pleasure of attending. An organization was effected by electing the following officers: President, Samuel Walker, of Allegheny township; Vice Presidents, Jacob Musser, Francis Knepper, Jos. Poorbaugh; Secretaries, P. U. Miller, U. F. Rayman. The audience was large and enthusiastic, showing that the Republicans of old Berlin and Brothersvalley are fully alive to the importance of standing firmly by their colors in an "off" year as well as any other, and when a ticket has been fairly and honestly nominated of electing it. If the number and kind of men who were present at this meeting is any indication, there will be no cutting of the ticket in Berlin or Brothersvalley this year. The meeting was addressed by Jas. L. Pugh and S. U. Trent, Esq's. Hon. John Cessna was present, and being loudly called for, made a few brief remarks, but declined to make a speech. Paint will have to look closely to her vote or Brothersvalley will carry off the banner this year.

How many misunderstandings arise from the loose way in which business matters are talked over, and then when each party puts his own construction on the conversation, the matter is dismissed by each with the words "all right, all right." Frequently it turns out all wrong, and becomes a question for lawyers and the courts. More than three-fourths of the litigation of the country would be saved if the people would put down their agreements in writing, and sign their names to them. Each word in our language has its own particular meaning, and memory may, by the change of its position in the sentence, convey an entirely different idea from that intended. When once reduced to writing, ideas are fixed, and expensive law suits avoided.

Intelligence received at the Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y., from Bristol, England, states that Prof. W. F. Denning discovered a bright new comet on the 4th inst. It is located in the constellation of Leo, right ascension 9 hours 22 minutes, declination North 16 degrees, daily motion 30 minutes East. This is the sixth comet which has been seen since May 1st, five being new discoveries, all but two of which were first observed by Americans, and is certainly a high compliment to the industry and skill of American astronomers that they have shown so fine a record. The total amount which Mr. H. H. Warner has given in comet prizes during the past year is $1,300 which shows that the interest taken in astronomical affairs in this country is greatly increasing.

"How is Your Man?"—We have received from the publishers, Messrs. Lee & Shephard, Boston, Mass., a copy of a book bearing the above name. It is meant principally to act as a reformer in a certain line of business, which of recent times has grown to immense proportions in our fair State, and bids fair, if something is not speedily done to arrest its nefarious work, to cause the ruin of thousands who as yet have scarcely heard of it. Our readers need scarcely be told that we refer to "graveyard insurance." The little book in question deals with the business without gloves and hits hard and well deserved blows. It is a crying evil, and we feel sure that this publication will do much toward enlightening people as to what the business is doing.

A new time table went into effect on the S. & C. Railroad, Monday, October 17th, at 6:20 a. m. Under the new schedule, local freight leaves Rockwood at 6:20 a. m., arrives at Somerset at 8:24 a. m., and at Johnstown at 10:35 a. m. The mail train leaves Johnstown at 10:35 a. m., arrives at Somerset at 12:25 p. m., and Rockwood at 1 p. m. Accommodation leaves Rockwood at 1:50 p. m., arrives at Somerset at 2:25 p. m., and Stoystown at 3:05 p. m.; leaves Stoystown at 4:30 p. m., arrives at Somerset at 5:24 p. m., and Rockwood at 5:50 p. m.—This train only runs between Rockwood and Stoystown. Express leaves Rockwood at 6:20 p. m., arrives at Somerset at 6:50 p. m., and Johnstown at 8:50 p. m. Local freight leaves Johnstown at 1 p. m., arrives at Stoystown at 3:05 p. m., Somerset at 4:25 p. m., and Rockwood at 5:30 p. m.

Messrs. E. K. Hyndman and James Cochran consumated the purchase of an immense body of coal land this week. The tract contains 1951 acres, and lies at the mouth of Jacob's creek, partly in Perry township, Fayette county, and partly in Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, having a frontage on the Youghiogheny river of about a mile. There are two distinct veins of coal underlying the tract—one four feet in thickness and the other nine feet, the latter lying fifty feet below the former—and the entire tract drains itself. The whole had been under an option held by Patrick Jennings and James Matthews. Sometime recently, Messrs. Hyndman and Cochran purchased the interest of the former and now they have bought out the later and closed on the option. The price paid is said to be $200 per acre. The purchasers will open out the coal as soon as the new Pittsburgh and Youghiogheny road is completed. —Courier.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Co., was held at Camden Station on last Wednesday.

President Garrett called the attention of board to the fact that the Somerset and Cambria Railroad had been completed as a first-class line, with substantial masonry, iron bridges and steel rails, and that it passed through a most interesting region, full of mineral and agricultural resources. The line from Rockwood, on the Pittsburgh Division, 49 miles west of Cumberland, extends through Somerset to Johnstown—the seat of the great works of the Cambria Iron Company. The road is 46 miles in length. In order that the merchants of Baltimore, and the citizens of Jonnstown, and the people of the intermediate territory, shall have an opportunity of forming personal acquaintance, and of understanding the advantages of this important new line, and its connections, the President suggested that an excursion be arranged from Baltimore to Johnstown during the present pleasant autumn weather, so that the board of directors, and others interested in this improvement, shall have an opportunity to examine the route, and to visit in Johnstown. The suggestion was approved, and the subject was referred to the Committee on Finance to make the requisite arrangements. This excursion will probably take place in the early part of November. It is believed that the proposed trip will lead to extensive and mutually desirable and profitable intercourse between the people of Baltimore and the communities upon the route thus opened.—Baltimore American.

PAINT ITEMS:—

One day last week some cows belonging to Mrs. Charlotte Livingstone broke into a field of Mr. H. P. Custer, where his stock was. A vicious cow of Mrs. L's goared a valuable cow of Mr. Custer's to death, and a spring calf in such a manner that it died a few days afterward.

Charles Holsapple recently sold his farm to Mr. M. W. Keim, of Johnstown, at $50 per acre, amounting to $18,000.

Mr. O. W. Border, of Border Station, S. & C. Railroad, will move his steam saw mill to the farm of Josiah Custer in a few days.
