To talk awhile with me. This is an entertaining guest; He's witty and he's wise. I think-he sees so many things-

He has a thousand eyes. A power most responsible And great this guest doth wield He's braver than than the knight of old Who hid behind his shield.

He loveth human progress well-Oh, many a one he's taught! And as the former scatters wood, He broadly scatters thought.

He knows of all that's going on Of interest on the earth, And patiently he tells the new Beside how many a hearth!
