GRANTED WISHES.

Two little girls let loose from school Queried what each should be. One said, "I'd be a queen and rule,"
And one, "The world I'd see."

The years went on. Again they met And queried what had been. A poor man's wife am I, and yet," Said one, "I am a queen." "My realm a happy househould is, My King a husband true; rule by loving services. How has it been with you? One answered, "Still the great world lie Beyond me as it laid :

O'er love's and duty's boundaries My feet have never strayed. Faint murmurs of the wild world come

Unheeded to my car; My widowed mother's sick bed-room ifficeth for my sphere," They clasped each other's hands with t Of solemn joy they cried, "God gave the wish of our young years
