

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

STATE.
GOVERNOR,
JAMES A. BEAVER,
Centre county.
JUSTICE OF SUPREME COURT,
WILLIAM HENRY RAWLE,
Philadelphia.
SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS,
JOHN M. GREER,
Butler county.
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM T. DAVIES,
Bradford county.

A DISPATCH FROM CHAMBERSBURG.

says that Franklin county, the home of Senator John Stewart, can poll about 4,500 Republican votes, and at least 4,400 of these will be given for General Beaver.

HON. JAMES G. BLAINE HAS WRITTEN A LETTER DECLINING TO BE A CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE IN MAINE.

He hopes that the campaign will result in the election of a Legislature which will return Senator Frye to the U. S. Senate.

GUTENBERG'S LAST CHANCE FOR LIFE WAS DISPOSED OF ON MONDAY, THE JUDGES CONSTITUTING THE COURT IN BANC DECIDING THAT THE CASE SHALL NOT BE REOPENED FOR ARGUMENT.

This settles the case beyond a doubt, notwithstanding Charles H. Reed's endeavors to have a still further hearing.

BY ORDER OF CHAIRMAN COOPER THE DELEGATES ELECTED TO THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION, HELD AT HARRISBURG, MAY 10, 1882, WILL CONVEY AT HARRISBURG ON WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21, 1882, AT 12 O'CLOCK P. M., FOR THE PURPOSE OF NOMINATING A CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE, INSTEAD OF THOMAS M. MARSHALL, DECLINED.

THE FIRST ELECTION OF 1882 WAS HELD LAST WEEK IN OREGON, WHEN THE WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET, LEGISLATURE AND MEMBER OF CONGRESS WAS ELECTED.

This insures the election of a Republican U. S. Senator to succeed Grover, (Democrat) and thus makes the Senate at its next session reliably Republican, unless the party meets with some misfortune during the year.

THE DEMOCRATIC PAPERS ARE ALL JUBILANT OVER THE PROSPECT OF THE REPUBLICANS IN THIS STATE DEFEATING THEMSELVES BY DIVISION.

It means a Democratic Legislature, says the New Orleans Democrat, and a Democratic Senator in place of Cameron; also a Democratic apportionment, which will give us twenty Congressmen instead of nine, equal to a change of twenty-two votes in Congress—doubtless more than enough to decide the majority. It is easy to see therefore, says the paper mentioned, "the great influence this Pennsylvania bolt promises to have upon national politics."

SINCE THE CHAIRMAN OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE HAS ISSUED A CALL RE-CONVENING THE HARRISBURG CONVENTION, ON THE 21ST INST., FOR THE PURPOSE OF NOMINATING A CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE, IN PLACE OF HON. THOMAS M. MARSHALL, DECLINED.

General Beaver and the convention as follows: Every Independent Republican can consistently and conscientiously sustain the Republican State ticket as proposed. I believe General Beaver's personal character and fitness are irrefragable and he has given the most sacred pledge to administer the high trust of Governor in the interest of the whole party and people. Because the platform endorses a clear majority of recognized and true Independent Republicans, some of whom, if stated, were slated with full confidence to the highest standards of public requirement, and of whom was nominated by the free and intelligent choice of the convention in assembling the state.

GENERAL W. H. KOONTZ, THE VETERAN INDEPENDENT OF SOMERSET, HAS DECLARED HIS INTENTION TO NOMINATE HIMSELF AS A CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE INSTEAD OF THOMAS M. MARSHALL, DECLINED.

It is a very easy matter for a veteran Independent like Koontz to sit on a lofty pinnacle and grow and criticize, and predict defeat, and assist to the completion of the ticket, by asserting that the bosses made the ticket, and process to want harmony, but it is observable that this veteran Independent, when he took himself out of the picture, was not averse to a convention of his own making.

The noisiest demagogue in the unreconciled movement is the appointed spokesman, and these who are independent from principle, should hesitate to join hands with such a shallow set of rascals. They have no respect for any kind of reform that will not give them a grasp of office, and in order to obtain control they are ready to join hands with the most distasteful and played out rascals and political hacks in the State. They make a pretext of the airiest notions to fight the party. Just because State Senator Davies was not nominated for State Treasurer last year, Mr. Wolfe, of Union, felt called upon to lead a revolt against the regular party nominee, and this year, because Mr. Davies was nominated for office and Mr. Wolfe was not, the gentleman from Union sees another reason for revolt. Wouldn't anything short of Mr. Wolfe's nomination for something have prevented his kicking this year? We think not. Would he have kicked if he had been nominated? We do not believe he would. When Mr. Groves was a candidate for United States Senator, Mr. Wolfe said he had a good right to be for himself to be good for himself most of the time. The thorn in his side then was Senator John Stewart, of Franklin, present Independent nominee for Governor. Mr. Wolfe has his revenge now in supporting Stewart for a sound political drubbing.—Saratoga Republican.

CLEANINGS.

The Philadelphia Record remarks that Chairman Cooper "need not labor under the delusion that anything he can do or that he forbears to do will please the Independents. They have made up their minds to kick the roof off of the Republican wigwag, and soft words are thrown away upon them."

A BLOOD-CHILLING SCENE.

St. Louis, June 8.—A fearful accident occurred on the North Carolina railway, June 21, 1882. A full load of scum sawn wood on the track some distance back, which he supposed to be a dog. It appeared to be utterly unaware of the approaching train, and the engineer blew on brakes. At the first sound of the whistle the dog started, and the engine was jerked back and forth within a few hundred yards of the child, and the engineer reversed his lever and had all the brakes applied. The child began to crawl off the track, but on reaching the rail, deliberately stepped and seated itself astride of it. The horse engine trampled and the tears came to his eyes as he realized that it would be impossible to stop the train before it reached the spot where the child was sitting, but bravely swung himself out of the window, he started to crawl along the engine to its front, with the intention of picking up the child before he was crushed. He would probably have succeeded in this perilous undertaking, but a lunge of the engine caused him to lose his balance, and he was precipitated down an embankment. He had hardly regained his feet before a piercing scream was heard, and he knew his child was dead. The engine stopped within half a length after striking the child, and the horrible task of pulling the mangled body out from under the wheels began. The body had been cut half in two as cleanly as done with a knife. A Death knell was rung through the horrible task of pulling the mangled body out from under the wheels began. The body had been cut half in two as cleanly as done with a knife.

THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS THINKS THAT THE STATE COMMITTEE HAS NO RIGHT TO REASSEMBLE THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION OF MAY 20TH, AND ANY OF THE DELEGATES OF THAT CONVENTION WHO MEET AT HARRISBURG IN RESPONSE TO CHAIRMAN COOPER'S CALL DO SO ONLY AS PRIVATE CITIZENS.

The Philadelphia Press thinks that the State Committee has no right to reassemble the Republican State Convention of May 20th, and any of the delegates of that convention who meet at Harrisburg in response to Chairman Cooper's call do so only as private citizens. The Press thinks there should be a new convention which should withdraw the present Republican State ticket and nominate one that shall be satisfactory to Senator Mitchell and his followers.—Village Record.

THE PHILADELPHIA EVENING NEWS HAS TAKEN THE TROUBLE TO INTERVIEW ALL THE BUSINESS MEN EXCEPT ONE, WHO CALLED UPON SENATOR CAMERON DURING HIS RECENT VISIT TO THAT CITY.

Let Independent veterans like General Koontz, who are ready to spread before the public their lamentations over the divisions in the party, suggest the remedy. Let us know the panacea for their aches and sores. Neither the continuous rab-a-dab-dub of the Press, nor the lamentations of the weeping Jeremiahs of the Independent breed will cure the evils of which they complain nor induce the Republicans of the State to abandon their ticket and their organization.

THAT THE SO-CALLED INDEPENDENT PARTY WAS CONCEIVED IN FRAUD AND BROUGHT FORTH IN INIQUITY HAS ALWAYS BEEN PATENT TO THOSE WHO TOOK THE TROUBLE TO EXAMINE OR INQUIRE FOR THEMSELVES.

The supporters of General Grant in the Chicago Convention, the "heroic 300," stood by their choice until they were fairly defeated, when they joined in making the nomination of General Garfield unanimous, and labored zealously for the success of the ticket placed in nomination. How much more manly was this conduct than that of those who are now engaged in a war against the men and the party organization, and to serve their selfish purposes are now banding together as Assistant Democrats, hoping to destroy that which they were unable to force into submission to their dictation. The true friends of Republican principles will battle for the men and measures they believe to be right inside the party organization, but when defeated gracefully acquiesce, resolving to try again until their cause shall prevail. The time-servers and place-hunters don't do this; but when their demands are refused strive to ruin that which they cannot rule.—Brookville Republican.

LETTER FROM SENATOR STUART WHO OPPOSED WOLFE LAST YEAR, AND HAD SIGNED THE "CONTINENTAL" MANIFESTO IN DECEMBER LAST IN WHICH IT WAS DECLARED THAT ALL THE INDEPENDENTS DESIRED SHOULD BE ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT REVOLUTION IN THE PARTY; AFTER HE HAD PESTERED PRESIDENT ARTHUR AND SENATOR CAMERON FOR THE APPOINTMENT AS MINISTER TO MEXICO, AND HAD INTRUDED FOR THE NOMINATION FOR SUPREME JUDGE ON THE REGULAR REPUBLICAN TICKET; AND AFTER HE HAD INTRODUCED GENERAL BEAVER TO THE REPUBLICANS OF HIS OWN COUNTY, SAYING THAT TO AN ANTI-BEAVER MAN THERE WAS TO DIE POLITICALLY, AND HAD BEEN DEFEATED FOR DELEGATE TO THE REGULAR REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION, HE WENT TO THE INDEPENDENT CONVENTION AND WAS NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR. HE IS NOW FAIRLY STARTED ON HIS GRAND MISSION OF REFORMING AND PURIFYING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY BY DEFENDING AND HANDING THE STATE OVER TO THE DEMOCRACY. HE SEEMS TO BE A FIT STANDARD BEARER FOR THE FACTION HE LEADS.

THE MOST EFFECTIVE STEP BE EVER TAKEN TOWARDS PURIFYING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY WAS WHEN HE TOOK HIMSELF OUT OF THE MERCEY DISPATCH.

THE PHILADELPHIA EVENING NEWS HAS TAKEN THE TROUBLE TO INTERVIEW ALL THE BUSINESS MEN EXCEPT ONE, WHO CALLED UPON SENATOR CAMERON DURING HIS RECENT VISIT TO THAT CITY.

Let Independent veterans like General Koontz, who are ready to spread before the public their lamentations over the divisions in the party, suggest the remedy. Let us know the panacea for their aches and sores. Neither the continuous rab-a-dab-dub of the Press, nor the lamentations of the weeping Jeremiahs of the Independent breed will cure the evils of which they complain nor induce the Republicans of the State to abandon their ticket and their organization.

THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS THINKS THAT THE STATE COMMITTEE HAS NO RIGHT TO REASSEMBLE THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION OF MAY 20TH, AND ANY OF THE DELEGATES OF THAT CONVENTION WHO MEET AT HARRISBURG IN RESPONSE TO CHAIRMAN COOPER'S CALL DO SO ONLY AS PRIVATE CITIZENS.

The Philadelphia Press thinks that the State Committee has no right to reassemble the Republican State Convention of May 20th, and any of the delegates of that convention who meet at Harrisburg in response to Chairman Cooper's call do so only as private citizens. The Press thinks there should be a new convention which should withdraw the present Republican State ticket and nominate one that shall be satisfactory to Senator Mitchell and his followers.—Village Record.

LETTER FROM SENATOR STUART WHO OPPOSED WOLFE LAST YEAR, AND HAD SIGNED THE "CONTINENTAL" MANIFESTO IN DECEMBER LAST IN WHICH IT WAS DECLARED THAT ALL THE INDEPENDENTS DESIRED SHOULD BE ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT REVOLUTION IN THE PARTY; AFTER HE HAD PESTERED PRESIDENT ARTHUR AND SENATOR CAMERON FOR THE APPOINTMENT AS MINISTER TO MEXICO, AND HAD INTRUDED FOR THE NOMINATION FOR SUPREME JUDGE ON THE REGULAR REPUBLICAN TICKET; AND AFTER HE HAD INTRODUCED GENERAL BEAVER TO THE REPUBLICANS OF HIS OWN COUNTY, SAYING THAT TO AN ANTI-BEAVER MAN THERE WAS TO DIE POLITICALLY, AND HAD BEEN DEFEATED FOR DELEGATE TO THE REGULAR REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION, HE WENT TO THE INDEPENDENT CONVENTION AND WAS NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR. HE IS NOW FAIRLY STARTED ON HIS GRAND MISSION OF REFORMING AND PURIFYING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY BY DEFENDING AND HANDING THE STATE OVER TO THE DEMOCRACY. HE SEEMS TO BE A FIT STANDARD BEARER FOR THE FACTION HE LEADS.

THE MOST EFFECTIVE STEP BE EVER TAKEN TOWARDS PURIFYING THE REPUBLICAN PARTY WAS WHEN HE TOOK HIMSELF OUT OF THE MERCEY DISPATCH.

MISSOURI OUTLAWS.

A Half Dozen Ruffians Plundered the Bank of Brookfield and Made Away With Money.

KANSAS CITY, June 8.—Just as the Bank of Brookfield in the town of that name, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railway, was closing, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, six men rode into town from the west and the street, and dismounting, entered the bank, where they covered the clerks with their revolvers and went through the safe and money drawers, securing about $5,000 in cash. They then backed out, still covering the frightened bank people with their revolvers. Rounding, they departed in the way they came, firing their revolvers and shouting like demons. The robbers connected with this audacious deed all wore masks, but their description is as follows: Three of them were apparently young men all well built. One was an old man with his hair quite gray and being long hung from beneath his heavy black slouch hat upon his shoulders. Another one was so completely masked as to be in perfect disguise, and no description of him could be attempted by the people at the bank. He kept in the back ground, but seemed to be the leader and the impression in Brookfield and among the people who had the news spread, is that there is no less than Frank James. The sixth and last member of the gang is not described, except that he had long, sharp nose and piercing black eyes. The party was armed with two heavy revolvers each and spread terror through the bank as they rode through it. The men were well mounted and rode like troopers. Two of the horses were dark bay, one a black, one a sorrel and one a gray.

THE COUNTY SHERIFF AND MARSHAL ORGANIZED A POLICE FORCE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER THE ROBBERY.

In conversation with Rob. Ford, Dick Little, ex-Marshall Leggit and others in this city who are familiar with the James Gang, the opinion was gleaned from them that Frank James was not mixed up in this affair, although they admit the job was done in the James style, and the opinion was hazarded that the robbers might possibly be those who sat at the knees of the famous leaders. It is claimed that Frank Little and the tears came to his eyes as he realized that it would be impossible to stop the train before it reached the spot where the child was sitting, but bravely swung himself out of the window, he started to crawl along the engine to its front, with the intention of picking up the child before he was crushed. He would probably have succeeded in this perilous undertaking, but a lunge of the engine caused him to lose his balance, and he was precipitated down an embankment. He had hardly regained his feet before a piercing scream was heard, and he knew his child was dead. The engine stopped within half a length after striking the child, and the horrible task of pulling the mangled body out from under the wheels began. The body had been cut half in two as cleanly as done with a knife.

MISSOURI OUTLAWS.

A Half Dozen Ruffians Plundered the Bank of Brookfield and Made Away With Money.

KANSAS CITY, June 8.—Just as the Bank of Brookfield in the town of that name, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railway, was closing, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, six men rode into town from the west and the street, and dismounting, entered the bank, where they covered the clerks with their revolvers and went through the safe and money drawers, securing about $5,000 in cash. They then backed out, still covering the frightened bank people with their revolvers. Rounding, they departed in the way they came, firing their revolvers and shouting like demons. The robbers connected with this audacious deed all wore masks, but their description is as follows: Three of them were apparently young men all well built. One was an old man with his hair quite gray and being long hung from beneath his heavy black slouch hat upon his shoulders. Another one was so completely masked as to be in perfect disguise, and no description of him could be attempted by the people at the bank. He kept in the back ground, but seemed to be the leader and the impression in Brookfield and among the people who had the news spread, is that there is no less than Frank James. The sixth and last member of the gang is not described, except that he had long, sharp nose and piercing black eyes. The party was armed with two heavy revolvers each and spread terror through the bank as they rode through it. The men were well mounted and rode like troopers. Two of the horses were dark bay, one a black, one a sorrel and one a gray.

THE COUNTY SHERIFF AND MARSHAL ORGANIZED A POLICE FORCE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER THE ROBBERY.

In conversation with Rob. Ford, Dick Little, ex-Marshall Leggit and others in this city who are familiar with the James Gang, the opinion was gleaned from them that Frank James was not mixed up in this affair, although they admit the job was done in the James style, and the opinion was hazarded that the robbers might possibly be those who sat at the knees of the famous leaders. It is claimed that Frank Little and the tears came to his eyes as he realized that it would be impossible to stop the train before it reached the spot where the child was sitting, but bravely swung himself out of the window, he started to crawl along the engine to its front, with the intention of picking up the child before he was crushed. He would probably have succeeded in this perilous undertaking, but a lunge of the engine caused him to lose his balance, and he was precipitated down an embankment. He had hardly regained his feet before a piercing scream was heard, and he knew his child was dead. The engine stopped within half a length after striking the child, and the horrible task of pulling the mangled body out from under the wheels began. The body had been cut half in two as cleanly as done with a knife.

MISSOURI OUTLAWS.

A Half Dozen Ruffians Plundered the Bank of Brookfield and Made Away With Money.

KANSAS CITY, June 8.—Just as the Bank of Brookfield in the town of that name, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railway, was closing, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, six men rode into town from the west and the street, and dismounting, entered the bank, where they covered the clerks with their revolvers and went through the safe and money drawers, securing about $5,000 in cash. They then backed out, still covering the frightened bank people with their revolvers. Rounding, they departed in the way they came, firing their revolvers and shouting like demons. The robbers connected with this audacious deed all wore masks, but their description is as follows: Three of them were apparently young men all well built. One was an old man with his hair quite gray and being long hung from beneath his heavy black slouch hat upon his shoulders. Another one was so completely masked as to be in perfect disguise, and no description of him could be attempted by the people at the bank. He kept in the back ground, but seemed to be the leader and the impression in Brookfield and among the people who had the news spread, is that there is no less than Frank James. The sixth and last member of the gang is not described, except that he had long, sharp nose and piercing black eyes. The party was armed with two heavy revolvers each and spread terror through the bank as they rode through it. The men were well mounted and rode like troopers. Two of the horses were dark bay, one a black, one a sorrel and one a gray.

MISSOURI OUTLAWS.

A Half Dozen Ruffians Plundered the Bank of Brookfield and Made Away With Money.

KANSAS CITY, June 8.—Just as the Bank of Brookfield in the town of that name, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railway, was closing, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, six men rode into town from the west and the street, and dismounting, entered the bank, where they covered the clerks with their revolvers and went through the safe and money drawers, securing about $5,000 in cash. They then backed out, still covering the frightened bank people with their revolvers. Rounding, they departed in the way they came, firing their revolvers and shouting like demons. The robbers connected with this audacious deed all wore masks, but their description is as follows: Three of them were apparently young men all well built. One was an old man with his hair quite gray and being long hung from beneath his heavy black slouch hat upon his shoulders. Another one was so completely masked as to be in perfect disguise, and no description of him could be attempted by the people at the bank. He kept in the back ground, but seemed to be the leader and the impression in Brookfield and among the people who had the news spread, is that there is no less than Frank James. The sixth and last member of the gang is not described, except that he had long, sharp nose and piercing black eyes. The party was armed with two heavy revolvers each and spread terror through the bank as they rode through it. The men were well mounted and rode like troopers. Two of the horses were dark bay, one a black, one a sorrel and one a gray.

MISSOURI OUTLAWS.

A Half Dozen Ruffians Plundered the Bank of Brookfield and Made Away With Money.

KANSAS CITY, June 8.—Just as the Bank of Brookfield in the town of that name, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railway, was closing, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, six men rode into town from the west and the street, and dismounting, entered the bank, where they covered the clerks with their revolvers and went through the safe and money drawers, securing about $5,000 in cash. They then backed out, still covering the frightened bank people with their revolvers. Rounding, they departed in the way they came, firing their revolvers and shouting like demons. The robbers connected with this audacious deed all wore masks, but their description is as follows: Three of them were apparently young men all well built. One was an old man with his hair quite gray and being long hung from beneath his heavy black slouch hat upon his shoulders. Another one was so completely masked as to be in perfect disguise, and no description of him could be attempted by the people at the bank. He kept in the back ground, but seemed to be the leader and the impression in Brookfield and among the people who had the news spread, is that there is no less than Frank James. The sixth and last member of the gang is not described, except that he had long, sharp nose and piercing black eyes. The party was armed with two heavy revolvers each and spread terror through the bank as they rode through it. The men were well mounted and rode like troopers. Two of the horses were dark bay, one a black, one a sorrel and one a gray.

MISSOURI OUTLAWS.

A Half Dozen Ruffians Plundered the Bank of Brookfield and Made Away With Money.

KANSAS CITY, June 8.—Just as the Bank of Brookfield in the town of that name, on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railway, was closing, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, six men rode into town from the west and the street, and dismounting, entered the bank, where they covered the clerks with their revolvers and went through the safe and money drawers, securing about $5,000 in cash. They then backed out, still covering the frightened bank people with their revolvers. Rounding, they departed in the way they came, firing their revolvers and shouting like demons. The robbers connected with this audacious deed all wore masks, but their description is as follows: Three of them were apparently young men all well built. One was an old man with his hair quite gray and being long hung from beneath his heavy black slouch hat upon his shoulders. Another one was so completely masked as to be in perfect disguise, and no description of him could be attempted by the people at the bank. He kept in the back ground, but seemed to be the leader and the impression in Brookfield and among the people who had the news spread, is that there is no less than Frank James. The sixth and last member of the gang is not described, except that he had long, sharp nose and piercing black eyes. The party was armed with two heavy revolvers each and spread terror through the bank as they rode through it. The men were well mounted and rode like troopers. Two of the horses were dark bay, one a black, one a sorrel and one a gray.

MADEIRA, JUNE 8.—THE REMAINS OF GENERAL GARIBOLDI WERE BURIED IN THE CEMETERY AT CAPRA.

MADEIRA, JUNE 8.—The remains of General Garibaldi were buried in the cemetery at Capra this afternoon. The funeral ceremonies began at 3:45 o'clock and closed at 5 o'clock. A storm of wind and rain covered the whole scene. The coffin, covered with garlands and flowers, was borne by some of the survivors of the "Thousand of Marsala," and was followed by the Duke of Genoa, Signor Zuanzelli, General Ferrero, the representatives of both chambers, and delegations of three hundred various associations. Speeches were delivered at the grave by the Vice-President of the Senate, the President of the Chamber of Deputies, the two Cabinet ministers present and Signor Crispi. All applauded the deeds of the deceased. As the coffin was lowered into the grave, salutes were fired by the Italian men-of-war Washington and Cariddi.

LOUIS, JUNE 8.—GARIBOLDI DIED WITH THE WINDOW OF HIS APARTMENT WIDE OPEN, AND WHILE THE SUN WAS SETTING.

LOUIS, JUNE 8.—Garibaldi died with the window of his apartment wide open, and while the sun was setting. Before his last agony a bird alighted on the window-sill, where it remained twittering. Garibaldi saw it, and stammered, "Quale allegria!" The correspondent of the Times at Rome says the girls of the Municipal School have made a funeral wreath which Leopold Tollerini will present at Capra. In gold letters on a ribbon attached to the wreath are the words, "To the Immortal Garibaldi, June 21, 1882." The correspondent of the Telegraph at Paris says one thousand Italians met last evening in the hall of the Chamber of Deputies, the Municipal Council and the Republican press with the sympathy displayed at Garibaldi's death.

COLUMBUS, JUNE 7.—THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION MET TODAY AND MADE THE FOLLOWING NOMINATIONS:

Secretary of State, Charles Townsend, the present incumbent; Judge of Supreme Court, John H. Doyle, of Toledo, member of the Board of Public Works, C. A. Flicker, an English officer; and of telegrams that the body of Garibaldi will be buried on the summit of Janicubulo Hill, where the remains of many Italian patriots who were shot by the Austrians are buried.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION IN A SAN FRANCISCO BAR.

CHICAGO, June 7.—A San Francisco bar, special says: A terrible explosion occurred yesterday afternoon at the corner of Broadway and... Five boys were killed, and five wounded.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31, 1882. RECEIPTS. From J. H. Fratt, Collector, $ 200.00; From W. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00; From J. H. Fratt, Collector, 200.00. EXPENDITURES. Amount paid for public service, $ 200.00; Amount paid for fuel, 200.00; Amount paid for repairs, 200.00; Amount paid for interest on debt, 200.00; Amount paid for salaries, 200.00; Amount paid for printing, 200.00; Amount paid for other expenses, 200.00.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES. For the Year Ending March 31