THE "GARDEN OF THE WEST."

TO THE FARMERS OF PENNSYLVANIA. To the farmers of fennsylvania.

I give year a cordial invitation to come now and see this "Garden of the West"—Northeast Missouri. You that are weary with firms of exhausted fertility, and you that have innilies of boys growing up when you wish to establish upon farms larger and better and cheaper than are within your reach in the old States, and you that desire a change of climate, come and see this country in its prime, arlow with golden harvesia, where the great rustling fields of form marmar melodies of peoce and welcome to the visitor. "Seeing is believing." I show by farms personally, free of charge, to say one desiring to expect them.

"Nourn East Missouri" comprises that part of the State befored on the east by illinois, and on the north by lows. It embraces a territory about 10 miles square, coichrated for its fortility, sambrity of elimate, accessibility to markets, clisamplify of elimino, accessingly to market, di-versity of lamusage, act its audifferious produc-tions. It lies in direct connection, by trank lines of rallway, with Chicago, Philadelphia and New York. Perfect order, peace and political freedom prevail. Forty thousand Penns rivarians already reside in dissourt.
