Cairo, N. Y.—Charles Hoffman, of this place, says: "I have used for a year or more Baxter's Mandrake Bitters, and find they have been very beneficial to me, in fact cured me of Dyspepsia in its worst form." Isaac Hoffman and Frank Rennie have also been cured of Sick Headache and Dyspepsia by their use. Wessel Salsbury says they have been used by himself and family to great advantage, have cured his daughter of Sick Headache. The bitters seem to be just the medicine for the diseases for which they are recommended.

Don't fail to attend Hilliard's great moral show on Monday, September 4th.

The Colfroth-Swank libel suit was the first case taken up at this term of court.

Mr. John Henry Snyder, of Dayton, O., is spending a week in Somerset.

The recent heavy rains have caused the streams in this neighborhood to overflow their banks.

Hon. Jacob M. Campbell, our representative in Congress, is spending court week in Somerset.

Court convened at 10 a. m. on Monday morning, with his Honor Judge Baer and Associates Collins and Snyder on the bench.

Mr. Chauncey F. Black, son of Judge Jerre S. Black, accompanied by his two young sons, are visiting in Somerset.

Division engineer Miller, of the South Pennsylvania Railroad, has rented the suite of offices in the Baer block, formerly occupied by Colborn & Colborn, for two years.

Several car loads of Delaware peaches were brought to town by our grocerymen during the past week, which were rapidly disposed of at $1 40 per box.

Remember that Thursday, September 7th, is the last day to get assessed and registered, but do not wait a day longer to attend to this important matter.

The "Holy Terror," from Coleman's, was arrested and imprisoned by Policeman Shaffer at an early hour Friday morning for making an unholy noise on Main Cross street.

It is just possible that the potato rot will effect some of the tubers growing upon rich, damp ground. It is too soon to talk of 25 cent potatoes yet.

Mr. Wm. Rodgers, of Shade township, dropped into our office on Monday and left with us a copy of the Glasgow Weekly Herald just to show how they got up papers in Scotland.

The following twelve counties of Pennsylvania are said to be without a Baptist church: Snyder, Lebanon, Juniata, Perry, Cumberland, Adams, Franklin, Fulton, Bedford, Forest, Elk, and Cameron.

M. M. Hilliard's great moral circus and menagerie is advertised to exhibit in Somerset on September 4th. This show is well spoken of all along the route, and as the price of admission is only 25 cents all can attend.

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket of admission to the Fourth Annual Industrial Exhibition of Jefferson county, which will be held at Brookville on September 19th to 22d, inclusive. We hereby extend our thanks, and, if possible, will be present at the exhibition.

The people of the Turkeyfoot region will hold their annual harvest home or basket pic-nic in the grove at the Jersey church on Saturday, September 9th. Public speakers and the Ursina Cornet Band will be present, and a good, old-fashioned reunion of old friends and neighbors is expected to take place.

The Pennsylvania State Board of Agriculture will hold its next meeting in Washington on October 18, when it is expected from forty to fifty delegates from different parts of the State will be present. The subjects for discussion are many, and will be presented in a practical manner by parties knowing what they are talking about.

A novel case is drawn on the Quarter Sessions list for trial at the present term of court, in which the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is plaintiff, and Franklin Domneyer, late of said county, yeoman, is defendant. The charge is for killing a dog, of the value of twenty-five dollars, the goods, chattels and property of one Aaron Casebeer.

We last week received from the enterprising music firm of Lee & Walker, 1117 Chesnut street, Philadelphia, a copy of General Beaver's Grand March, by Gertel. The writer is well known in the musical world, and the march promises to become very popular during the campaign. We also received from the same firm a copy of William Penn's March, by Aug. Lomaly.

A Johnstown landlord failed to put up the printed notices in his hotel in accordance with the law of 1876, and when he brought action against a boarder for not paying his bill, the boarder retaliated by bringing suit against the landlord for not complying with the law in having the notices posted, and there is a fair prospect that he will go to jail for something less than six months unless the matter is compromised.

The annual Methodist camp meeting, near Latrobe, opened on Thursday of last week, and has been largely attended every day and evening since. The attendance last Sunday was very good, but not as large as the first Sabbath of their meetings in former years, although the net proceeds at the gates exceeded that of last year, which was due to the passing in of a larger number of vehicles from the surrounding country.

The unterrified Democracy of Somerset county opened their campaign by a very quiet meeting on Monday night. The court room was well filled, quite a number of ladies being among the audience. Gen. A. H. Coffroth presided. C. F. Black made a few brief remarks, J. S. Africa smiled on the audience, Coffroth, Endsley, and McNamara declined to speak, and the meeting was declared adjourned to slow music. No roll was called.

The engineers of the South Pennsylvania railroad have finished surveys over the whole of the route from Harrisburg to Wheeling, via Bedford and Somerset counties. They are now looking for the most practicable route for the Fayette county coal and iron belt. It was proposed at first to go through Greene county, but the Washington county route is fifteen miles shorter and the grade better than was expected. The charter has not yet been applied for, but the money for the surveys has been supplied by the projectors.

On Thursday last the members of the Masonic lodges of Johnstown, Meyersdale and Somerset picnicked in Hugus' grove just south of town. There were from four to five hundred persons, and a more quiet, orderly and enjoyable pic nic was never held beneath the green wood trees. Addresses were made by Hon. A. J. Colborn, Rev. Danks, Hon. J. M. Campbell, Hon. A. H. Coffroth, and others. The music was furnished by the Woodvale Band, and the way the feet of the merry dancers kept time to its dulcet strains was sufficient evidence of its excellent quality.

After undergoing a most thorough and rigid examination at the hands of a committee composed of the President Judge, John R. Edie, H. L. Baer, J. O. Kimmell, W. H. Ruppel, and F. J. Kooser, Esqs., on motion of Col. Ellis Frederick, W. Bissell, Esq., was on Monday morning admitted to the practice of law in the several courts of this county. Mr. Bissecker is a young man of ability, having graduated with honors at the Franklin-Marshall college some two years since, a sterling Republican, and deserves well at the hands of the community. That he may meet with that success which he so richly deserves is our sincere wish.

We are not prepared to say that an earthquake visited this immediate section Sunday night, but from the rock windows of the HERALD composing room an artificial lake is clearly visible to-day that was not yesterday. Compositor Abernathe solves the phenomena after this manner. The chairman of the Democratic committee is so disheartened with the outlook that he has called the elements to his assistance and pressed an under-ground arbitrary to "Salt River," while Chief Rice's eagle eye discovered quite a number of empty "barls" floating on the smooth surface, which he thinks got there by a collision of the Democratic and Independent barks.

Attention is directed to the new advertisement of Geis, Foster & Quinn, of Johnstown. They have a large and varied assortment of new goods, from which their customers can not fail to be suited. Parties dealing in Johnstown should remember them when making their purchases.

At Washington, Pa., one day last week, a fifteen-year old daughter of a Mr. Wolfe eloped with a young man named Logan, aged eighteen, of Cincinnati. The pair proceeded to Greensburg at which place they were married. On Sunday morning last the girl went to her parent's house, but her father drove her from the house and told her not to again return.

The directors of the Fayette County Agricultural Association have changed the time for holding the ensuing fair to October 10th, 11th and 12th. This is one week later than they had previously decided upon. The managers are also making arrangements with a noted female aronaut, of New York City, to be there and make one or two ascensions.

Two corps of civil engineers are in camp near the old California Furnace, on California creek, close to the Somerset line. They are engaged with several other corps, in making preliminary surveys in the interest of the proposed Southern Pennsylvania railroad. A line has been run which crosses the ridge further south and passes through Donegal; but it is thought that a route with a better grade can be had by passing down California creek to Ligonier and Youngstown; thence striking the headwaters of Sewickley creek. It is now an almost settled fact that the South Pennsylvania road will be completed at an early day.—Westmoreland Democrat.

The inclement weather of the past few days has been rather severe on camp meeting folks, as there was no shelter for the many people who attended the services. Miss Savilla Kring, the female evangelist, was a great success, and did a good work for the Master. Miss Kring is twenty-two years of age, endowed with wonderful oratorical abilities, and the faculty of telling the "old, old, story" in a most thrilling and enchanting way. Large crowds listened to her every discourse, and such a power did she have over her audience that the stir of a leaf could almost be heard. At the close of her farewell address on Friday afternoon not a dry eye was to be seen in the entire audience. The meeting throughout met with such success as to insure its permanancy.

The new mill of Brinker & Mullin was started up last week. It will require a large supply of grain to keep the mill running, for it has the capacity of making 100 barrels of flour per day. The mill is arranged with great convenience. If the grain is brought to the mill in wagons it is emptied into a bin and carried by elevators to the weigh scales, where 100 bushels can be weighed at one time. From the scales it runs into a bin from where it is elevated to the place where it starts on its long journey, to at last come out a superfine quality of flour. W. B. Gross occupies the responsible position of head miller. He is experienced in the middlings grinding process. He has worked with the different kinds of purifiers, and is one of the best millers in the country.—Mt. Pleasant Journal.

Some time during Monday night or Tuesday morning early John Sherin and James Flin made their escape from the jail. They are the men who broke into the store of Mr. Morris, at Six Roads, a few weeks since and were awaiting their trial at the forthcoming court. The Sheriff had them confined in the same cell and had them chained together by their ankles and hobbled. Notwithstanding these disadvantages they managed to tear up some flooring of the cell and make their way to the cellar. From the cellar they dug their way out into the jail yard and through the brick wall surrounding it into liberty. Immediately upon the discovery of the escape officers were sent out and hand bills offering $100 reward were distributed throughout the surrounding country. Sherin is about twenty-two years old, has red hair, freckled face and hands. Flin is about twenty years old, has dark hair and small gray eyes. Both are about 5 feet 4 inches in height.—Bedford Inquirer.

A very enjoyable musical entertainment was given in the Somerset House parlor on last Friday evening, under the direction of Prof. Whiting, the popular vocal instructor of Pittsburgh, Pa. Over one hundred invited guests were present, and that they appreciated the efforts of the performers was manifest by the hearty applause which followed each and every performance. The following programme was carried out:

Piano overture—The Poet and Peasant—Miss Whiting and Miss Stone.

Quartette—From Don Munn—Miss Baer, Miss Whiting, Messrs. Whiting and Miller.

Song—The Postillion—Mr. Kimmell.

Trio—Come, Holy Spirit—Miss Baer, Miss Whiting, and Prof. Whiting.

Piano Solo—Fantasie on Sohengrim—Miss Whiting.

Duette—The Swallows—Miss Baer and Miss Scull.

Song—The two Grenadiers—Mr. Miller.

Song—Waiting—Miss Baer.

Piano Solo—Fantasie from Midsummers Nights Dream—Miss Whiting.

Song—A la Acante—Miss Scull.

Song—The Three Fishers—Prof. Whiting.

Duette—See the Pale Moon—Miss Baer and Prof. Whiting.

DUTIES OF ASSESSORS.—The Assessors have been furnished with the list of voters of their districts, and it is made their duty by an act of January 30, 1874, to revise the same. For this purpose they are required to visit every dwelling-house in their respective districts, and make careful inquiry as to whether any person whose name is on the list has died or has removed from the district, erasing the names of all such; and if any qualified voters have come in, to add their names to their list. On the last two days for registration the Assessor must be present at the election-house from 10 o'clock to 4 and from 6 to 9, to act on all applications that may be made for registry, or to strike names from the list. This year, Thursday, September 7th, is the last day for registration, and Wednesday and Thursday, 6th and 7th, are the two days when the Assessor must be present at the election-house. On Friday, September 8th, the Assessor must make his final return of the completed list to the County Commissioners.

The following associate press dispatch refers to the daughter of our fellow townsman, Robert Walter:

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 26.—A most marvelous escape from death occurred near here yesterday evening. A party of young folks from this place, including Miss Lillie Walter, of Somerset; Miss Jessie Paul, of Blairsville, and Miss Belle Whitmer, of Sunbury, all of whom are visiting friends here, took a hopeless ride to Delaney's cave and other points of interest in the mountains. As they were returning home in the evening, and while passing through Hopewood at a lively gait, the tighter girth of Miss Walter's saddle broke and the saddle suddenly turned. Her horse stopped an instant, and then started rapidly forward. The young lady was unable to disengage her foot from the stirrup and was dragged over the stones in a frightful manner. After running about twenty-five yards the horse was caught by some bystanders and Miss Walter was carried into a house in an unconscious condition. She remained unconscious for over an hour, but finally rallied and was brought to town to-day, where she is doing well. She will be able to be up to-morrow. Strange to say no marks of injuries are visible save a slight scratch on her face. It is almost impossible to conceive how she escaped fatal injuries.

Look to your interest and buy where you can to the best advantage, and get pure, fresh goods. In order to insure these two things we would advise our readers to buy their drugs, medicines, etc., at Campbell's 304 Main street. Call on him when in Johnstown, and you will be convinced that what we say is correct.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.—The following addressed letters in the Postoffice, at Somerset, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office Washington, D. C., if not called for in 15 days.

Lewis Brown, J. H. Bowman, D. T. Coleman, E. J. Collins, W. H. Durbin, C. E. Ferner, George Fuller, Henry Gray, Robt. Gibson, John Garing, T. Hawely, T. B. Harris, Ward B. Hutchins, Rufus Hofelt, Eli Hann, Miss Sidney Johnson, Joseph Lingenfelser, Jessie Landis, Adam Lingenfelser, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, Harry McIlrary, D. W. A. MacWilliams, J. H. McCullock, Mary Adda Martin, Gorge Ross, W. D. Speicher, J. S. Speicher, George Tomer, Peter Williams, Saloma Young.

In calling for the above letters please say advertised.

JEFFERSON ITEMS.

Getting cooler.

Corn is looking well, and roasting ears plentiful.

The fruit crop being a failure we must therefore depend more largely upon the fly crop, which is certainly an abundant one.

We are glad to know that our leading school teachers are availing themselves of the opportunities afforded at the several normal schools of this county, in order to demand higher salaries for the coming winter term, as well as qualifying themselves for a still higher and greater work in the future. May others profit by their example.

Harvest being entirely ended, we presume our farmers are none the less delighted.

This being court week, quite a number of our population have left for the purpose of spending a vacation in the city of Somerset.

G. M Dickey and W. H. H. Miller, who have for several weeks past been attending the normal and classical school at Somerset, speak highly in favor of the school, and we wish them success and a pleasant term throughout.

The camp meeting north of Somerset, seems to be rapidly drawing the attention of some of our young boys and girls and even some of the older ones.

ED. HERALD.—We notice since our return to the Yough region that the long looked for, talked of, and shall we say prayed for, bridge to connect Eastern Fayette with Somerset county at Confluence is not yet a reality. It seems those swallow-tailed aristocratic descendants of the "whiskey boys," who are also inheritors of valuable coal lands in the Uniontown region, who control the commissioners of Fayette county, have always looked upon their mountaineer neighbors of "Henry Clay" township as though they were especially created to pay taxes, to vote, and to swim the Yough river when their business or wants compel them to leave home. These Uniontown "Moguls" dub their mountaineer neighbors as "mockasonites" buckwheaters, and insinuate that the girls who inhabit the state of mockasins chew tobacco and carry revolvers. The latter habit we would suppose a necessity, if in presence of the average Fayette county commissioner. While we disbelieve the tobacco-revolver story, we would remind the progressive and intelligent commissioners of Fayette, who represent a county whose early history is freighted with many items of thrilling interest as well as romance, that they have repeatedly refused to build a bridge at Confluence, and during all these years over twenty miles of the Yough river has been without a bridge, thus compelling the good people of Eastern Fayette to imitate the example of a boy named G. Washington, who rafted himself o'er the waters of the Yough river about 127 years ago, and didn't have to have a bridge. While we understand that Fayette claims all the river between the counties, yet those worthy commissioners want Somerset county to build half the bridge. Are the Fayette powers that be waiting until forbearance has ceased to be a virtue, and a move is made to create a new county out of the southern portion of Somerset and eastern end of Fayette counties. Already we hear the distant rumbling of dissatisfaction at what the voter and tax payer considers wilful neglect.
URSINA, Aug. 28. MAC.

M. M. HILLIARD GREAT MENAGERIE AND CIRCUS.—"Wait for the wagon"—or, in other words, save your "dollars of the daddies" for the coming of the above named confederation of animals and artists, which will mass its multitude of amusement marvels at Somerset on Monday, September 4th, 1882. And mark well that it is not one of those latter-day railroad mushroom menagerie and circus frauds, which use the locomotive as a means of suddenly dropping upon unwarned communities from long distances, and then make a two or three hundred mile jump in a night, in order to escape the swindling odor they leave behind but, on the contrary, a solid, honest road show, bringing Savage Nature, in all the most majestic illustrations of her living lessons directly to your doors, and added thereto a far greater and purer circus than you were ever decoyed into visiting at some distant point, through the costliness and discomfort of "cheap excursion trains." It comes among the people as it ought to, and does not ask them to undertake tedious, expensive and dangerous journeys to go to it; and it comes in the good old fashioned and only genuine caravan, menagerie and circus way, and the only way in which a really great show of the kind can be successfully moved and managed. It purposely marches so that its reputation may precede it, and what that reputation is, is sufficiently indicated by the enthusiastic voice of the press and the public all along the line, and by the patronage and hearty approval of the leaders of thought and morality. Remember the date of exhibition, and be on hand in time to see the grand free street parade in the morning. Admission only 25 cents.

Straws show which way the wind blows.

"Hello, Fisk, another new suit? Golly, what are you doing now?"

"Why, Jonas, I am doing what I always did; why?"

"Oh, nothing; only you always wear made up suits, and I see now you have a regular custom made suit. Thought you had got into better business. Ha, ha, ha! Fisk, let me tell you something; have you been at J. B. Snyder & Co.'s lately?"

"No."

"Well, I was in there a few weeks ago and I was surprised; there was no clothing in the store at all. I asked J. B. whether they were going to quit the clothing business. He says yes, summer clothing, and told me to call in a few days and see some new suits that they had made to order, special. Well, I waited. I went there a few days after, then I was surprised to see the piles of clothing, all new and the latest styles, and all the best makes of cloth, Harris, Sterling, Bullocks, Carbels, etc. Say, Fisk, why is it those fellows never have any old suits on hand? The other merchants have piles and piles of old clothing laying around for years, and of course they always try to sell you the oldest thing in the house."

"Well, Jonas, the reason I buy from J. B. Snyder & Co., is because I can save from 10 to 25 per cent., and then, as you say, they never have any old clothing they try to stick you with."

The above is a fair sample of the talk you generally hear, and we can say there is more truth than poetry in it.

WALNUT LEAF HAIR RESTORER.—It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfectly Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from all dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which sulphur, sugar of lead and nitrate of silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. Smith, Kline & Co., wholesale agents, Philiphia, and ade C. N. Crittendon, New York

THE DISTINGUISHING CHARM.—A delightful fragrance of freshly gathered flowers and spices is the distinguishing charm of Florestine Cologne.

If you want dry goods, glassware, queensware, etc., the place to get them is at
J. B. SNYDER & Co.'s.

BEAUTY REGAINED.—The beauty and color of the hair may be safely regained by using Parker's Hair Balsam, admired for its perfume, and dandruff eradicating properties.

Morrison & Bro.'s Cough Syrup, Liniment, Horse and Cattle Powder have, by their goodness, gained a large sale. The size and price suits me. Also try Bumstead's Worm Syrup

FURNITURE.—Coffroth & Co., are now offering the largest and greatest variety of furniture for less money than ever sold before. We positively can and will undersell any one engaged in the business in this county.

H. Heffley has just received and placed on his counters the largest and best selected stock of clothing for the fall trade ever brought to this section, and now offers bargains never before heard of in Somerset. Don't forget to call at his store if you wish to secure more goods for less money than be had at any other store in town.

GROUND RAW BONE FERTILIZER.

Farmers who want something better than the Double Eagle brand of Phosphate can get from us pure raw bone, manufactured by Messrs. Baugh & Sons, at $4.50 per sack of 200 pounds, or $41 per ton of 10 bags.
COOK & BERKEY.

Wayne & Berkeblie, the boss furniture dealers have just received a large amount of new stock from the east, which they invite you to call and see. Their prices are such as can not fail to please. Don't fail to look at their stock before the choicest pieces have been carried away.

The finest line of furnishing goods to be found in this section is at the store of H. Heffley. His stock cannot be equaled, and is offered at such remarkably low prices that all wishing to purchase cannot fail to secure a bargain, both in price and quality of goods. By giving him a call and inspecting his stock you cannot fail to purchase.

TO FARMERS.—I have now on hand at Somerset, a car load of Fossil Marl, good for all crops, at $2. per sack of 200 lbs or $20. per ton of ten sacks. Fossil Marl is the cheapest and best fertilizer our farmers can buy, owing to its lasting qualities.
JOHN S. SHAFER,
Somerset, Pa.

J. M. Holderbaum & Sons have just received a large invoice of men's and boy's clothing of the latest designs and styles. they are cheap and stylish. This is the third invoice they have received within sixty days. They always keep their stock full and complete, that their customers will not be obliged to select from the ends or go elsewhere to be suited.

I would respectfully inform my friends of Somerset county that I have opened a new drug store at 232 Main Street, Johnstown, Pa., where I would be pleased to see them. My stock consists of Pure Drugs, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Dye Stuffs, Perfumery and Fancy Goods generally. At this season I would call attention to the insectrades, such as Pure Paris Green, Pure Powdered White Hellebore, Persian Insect Powder, etc., When in need of anything in the drug line come and see me or write for prices. All inquiries cheerfully answered.

RECORD YOUR DEEDS.—The attention of persons holding unrecorded deeds is directed to the provisions of the late act of Assembly, which reads as follows:

"All deeds and conveyances for real estate in this Commonwealth shall be recorded in the office for recording deeds in the county where the land lie within six months after the execution of such deeds and conveyances; and every such deed and conveyance not recorded as aforesaid, shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent purchaser for a valuable consideration unless such deeds be recorded before the recording of the deed or conveyance under which such subsequent purchaser or mortagee shall claim."

This is an important notice, and those holding unrecorded deeds will see the importance of having them recorded without further delay. All deeds recorded under this act shall appear so to be by indorsement made thereon, according to the true intent and meaning of the act of Assembly.

MARRIED.

JOHNSON—SIPE.—On the 16th of July, near the City, by Rev. John N. Unruh, Mr. James B. Johnson and Miss Mary E. Sipe, both of this county.

HACKSTIN—MEYERS.—On the 9th of August, at the Lutheran parsonage, Hooversville, by the same, Mr. Charles Hackstin, of Johnstown, to Miss Minnie M. Meyers, of this county.
