

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

STATE TICKET. GOVERNOR. JAMES A. BEAVER, Centre county.

SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS. JOHN M. GREER, Butler county.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR. WILLIAM T. DAVIES, Bradford county.

FOR CONGRESSMAN AT LARGE. MARRIOTT BROSIUS, Lancaster county.

JUDICIARY TICKET. JUSTICE OF SUPREME COURT. WILLIAM HENRY RAWLE, Philadelphia.

COUNTY TICKET. ASSEMBLY. WILLIAM S. MORGAN, Jenner township.

ANDREW J. COLBORN, Somerset county.

POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR. JESSE HOOVER, Milford township.

JURY COMMISSIONER. CHARLES F. RAYMAN, Brothersvalley township.

The National debt was reduced over sixteen millions of dollars during the month of August.

The one simple issue of this campaign is whether the State is to be kept Republican or turned over to the Democracy.

Vermont opened the fall campaign last week, electing a Republican Governor and State ticket by 22,000 majority.

The grand old Republican party cannot be overthrown by a few self-important fellows who have fed at the public crib, until, like the ass spoken of in the Scriptures, they have waxed fat and kicked.

The Independent bosses hereabout are fully possessed of the juvenile faith that birds may be caught by sprinkling salt on their tails.

The voters who can be caught this way are the fellows who must be salted, they are so fresh.

That lie of two hundred Independents and a brass band from Meyersdale, being in attendance at the meeting last week is doing duty in all the Independent and Democratic papers of the State. But that is just what it was intended for.

SENATOR COOPER, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, maintains that Stewart's vote for Governor will fall materially below 50,000, as many who at first intended to vote for him will not do so, finding that a vote for him is a vote for Democratic success.

WHENEVER a Republican is approached by one of his own party, and asked to support John Stewart for Governor, he may feel certain that whatever may have been his standing in the party, the man who asks him to do this is working in the interests of the Democracy.

TAKE OUT of the Independent ranks in this county the staff-office holders, who have lined their pockets and couldn't get anything more, the disappointed office seekers and sub-bosses, the political cranks, and what have you left?

THE Independents of Bedford have appointed Congressional and Senatorial conferences and instructed them not to support any candidate who will not give a written pledge to oppose Senator Cameron.

EVERY Republican who votes for Stewart is helping to increase the chances of the Democratic candidate and to put the Free Traders in power.

THE election of a Democratic Governor in Pennsylvania will almost assure the election of a Democratic President, and the overthrow of our tariff policy.

THE Independents are howling with delight over the nomination of Col. Bayne of Allegheny City, as a "great Independent victory," and yet the Pittsburgh Times alleges that the Bayne delegates in the Convention, which nominated him, hoisted down resolutions eulogistic of President Garfield. How is this?

THE Independents are very anxious to convince people that they are just as good Republicans as ever," and yet two of their candidates, Stewart and Duff, publicly acknowledge that they are trying to defeat the Republican ticket, and Mitchell telegraphed from his seat in the Senate, "Beaver must be beaten at all hazards."

IN trying to palliate their infamous treason to the party that has nursed both of them from poverty to wealth, they defiled the Independent nest, by the allegations that 20,000 of their supporters followed would have voted with the Democrats, if Stewart had not been a candidate. What is the difference between these fellows and regular ring-tailed Democrats?

The wretched smiles which the faces of the Democrats wear, the loving taps they give to the shoulders of the Independents, and the frequent conferences between the bosses of these two organizations, all betoken a perfect understanding and a coalition against the Republican party. Watch the signs.

LET the Republicans of this County cast their eyes around, and enumerate the Independent leaders on their fingers. How many of them are there, who have not waxed fat off the proceeds of offices obtained by the vote of Republican organization?

AND yet these ingrates are kicking the mother that nourished them. What a spectacle for Gods and men!

A FEW Independent nincompoops, or fellows of the baser sort, are trying to persuade their dupes that Stewart has a chance of an election; but the leading Democratic paper of the State—the Harrisburg Patriot—openly says in its party friends:

"The pretense that Beaver can be defeated by any other candidate than Pattison is a delusion and a snare."

THE Philadelphia Record, one of the ablest Democratic papers in the State, says: "The Free Trade League of New York has given $5,000 towards the election of Pattison as a campaign starter, and $15,000 additional has been promised."

AND yet Stewart and his followers, who are trying to elect Pattison, insist that the Tariff question is not an issue in this fight.

WHAT manly, honest fellows these Independents are! They took their chances and voted at the Republican primary election in June, and then called new elections and voted again on Saturday for candidates to be set up against the men they pledged their honor to support by participating in the June primaries.

Can one of these very honest fellows look in a glass and not blush at the sight of his own face?

JOHN CESSNA said in his speech at Bedford last week that it was "but a short step from the Independent ranks into the Democratic party," and now we hear of a big Independent General of our town declaring that "there is no difference between the Democrats and the Republicans of to-day."

We agree that, between the Democracy there is not. Both are trying to put the Democrats in power.

ONE of the lies that has done duty in the Independent and Democratic journals of the country is that the ladies connected with the Indian school at Carlisle in this State have been assessed by the Republican Committee for political purposes.

THE teachers and ladies of the school published a card, some days since, saying that the story was a lie, manufactured out of the whole cloth. Since then those papers have not sympathized so deeply with the poor oppressed ladies.

EVERY Free Trade paper in the land, inside or outside of Pennsylvania, is opposed to General Beaver. Why is this? Simply because every one of them knows that the election of General Beaver means a continuation of the protective system so far as the voice of Pennsylvania is concerned, and that his defeat will be construed into an abandonment of that system by our people.

IT is not pretended that all Independents are opposed to a protective tariff, but it is very evident that they are being used by the free traders to break down the Republican party, and with the fall of the party to secure a Democratic "tariff for revenue only."

LITTLE by little the cock-a-whoop Independents are lowering their tone. For a while it was declared that Beaver wasn't in the race, and of course Stewart was to be rushed through. Then Chairman McKee claimed at least 100,000 votes for Stewart; then he lowered his claim to 100,000, and now the Tribune says: "The contest is likely to be an exceedingly close one and if General Beaver is elected he will squeeze in by a very small plurality."

IT won't be long before these knowing fellows will be claiming that if Beaver is not elected by over fifty thousand majority it will be a Democratic victory.

A FEW unmitigated scamps are trying to persuade the ignorant that Stewart has a chance of being elected Governor, while the New York Tribune, the great oracle of the Independents says that McKee, the Chairman of their State Committee, admitted to its correspondent last week, that he only claimed 100,000 votes for the Independent ticket, and that there might be many less by the time election day arrives.

GARFIELD received 447,070 votes in Pennsylvania in 1880. Now take 100,000 on this, and it will be seen by their own showing they will fall short over 300,000 of electing Stewart, even if they get all the votes they claim.

GENERAL KOONTZ and Judge Hall were the speakers at the Independent meeting in Bedford last week, and both admitted that they expected to defeat the Republican party this fall.

IN trying to palliate their infamous treason to the party that has nursed both of them from poverty to wealth, they defiled the Independent nest, by the allegations that 20,000 of their supporters followed would have voted with the Democrats, if Stewart had not been a candidate.

WHAT is the difference between these fellows and regular ring-tailed Democrats?

THE Lewisburg Chronicle, Wolfe's home organ and heretofore his firm supporter, has come out for Beaver and the Republican State ticket. The reasons which the Chronicle gives for so doing will be found in another column of this paper, and are as pertinent to this people as they are at Mr. Wolfe's home.

ALMOST every child is familiar with Esop's fable of the man who warned the frozen sinner in his bosom and was stung to death by the ungrateful reptile.

THE fable is being exemplified by the conduct of the fellows in this county who warned into pecuniary life by means of fat offices, are now attempting to sting to death the party that cherished them.

THE Pittsburgh Dispatch reports Judge Hall as saying in his speech at the Independent meeting in Bedford last week:

"For forty years we have been struggling for reform within the party, without result."

IT was much less than half that time since the Judge was prancing around Bedford County, a blatant Democrat, trying to prove by the Bible that slavery was justifiable, and a Divine institution.

But failing to procure a Legislative nomination by this means, he suddenly flipped into the Republican ranks. And now after gorging himself at the public crib for fifteen years, he is preparing to turn a double-back-action somersault to the place from whence he came.

THE Bedford Democrats are dolefully preparing to sing:

"While the lamp holds out to burn The vilest sinner may return."

FOR twenty-one years past, the destiny of Pennsylvania has been in the hands of the Republican party, and the State has been controlled by Republican Governors.

IS there a brighter page in all its history? Have not our debt and our taxes both been reduced? Have we not prospered in every way under this long continued rule?

AND yet General Koontz, upon whom the Republicans of this county have lavished all the offices in their gift, is now urging his former friends to throw away their votes on an Independent ticket, and place the control of the State in the hands of the Democrats, simply because of his inveterate hatred of the Camerons.

NOT another reason has he assigned for his apostasy. He dare not assert that the principles or policy of the Republican party have changed, or that General Beaver is not an able and honest man who, as Governor, would administer the affairs of State as admirably as they have been managed for the past twenty-one years, but his sole cry is "down with Cameron," down with the bosses.

HE is, moreover, wretchedly insincere in this, because he knows he cannot possibly reach Senator Cameron in this election, that he is not before the people and cannot be for two years, and that he is only trying to sacrifice a gallant and maimed soldier under the guise of his mad dog cry.

Will the Republicans of Somerset County follow this recreant out of the ranks of the party, and help him to destroy it solely to gratify his personal spite?

HON. JAMES G. BLAINE, in whose interests the Independents of this State profess to be acting, is now on the stump in Maine fighting the Independent of that State, with all his old time vigor.

IN his opening speech at Portland, speaking of this country to-night, from ocean to ocean, from lake to lake, presents a degree of prosperity widespread, more general, more firmly based and founded than ever before in its history.

Now I do not say that legislation has brought about all that, but legislation has aided it, and it certainly has not hindered it. If you wait for the law to grow crops, or to spin cotton, or to forge iron, you will wait for a long time, but if you feel that the law is behind you, upholding and encouraging you, you raise crops and spin cotton and forge the steel with a good deal more assurance of good prices and a fair market; and all that the law could do, and all that a wise administration of the law has been able to effect, can be obtained by the Republican party against any other party of the country.

FOR twenty-one years past March the destiny of the United States of America, in so far as that destiny can be controlled by a political party of the United States, and if there be a glowing chapter of history written in the annals of human kind, I would like Governor Blaine or any other gentleman supporting him to be kind enough to point it out.

If there has been any chapter of human history in which human progress has been so rapid, in which human rights have been guaranteed so firmly and enforced so grandly as within that period, I am ignorant of where to look for it and where to find it.

HERE we lay in a few sentences the statement of a grander history than the Democratic party can ever lay claim to. History that was made by the Republicans, in spite of the opposition of the Democracy.

AND yet the Independent leaders who are misleading their followers with the great name of James G. Blaine, are attempting to blur past out these splendid achievements by throwing Pennsylvania, the brightest star in the Republican galaxy, into the hands of the party that stood as a pillar of shame in the way while this grand chapter of human history was being written.

THE Independents have stolen the livery of Garfield to serve the Democracy in. Garfield was a Republican who always fought inside the party lines. No better Republican ever breathed. This is what he said in his speech at Chicago, and his ringing appeal for unity and harmony among Republicans is as applicable, as forcible, as necessary to-day as it was then.

"In the sentiment of these questions, the Republican party has completed its twenty-five years of glorious existence, and it has sent us here to prepare it for another triumph of duty and of victory. How shall we accomplish this great work? We cannot do it, my friends, by assailing our Republican brethren. God forbid that I should say one word, or cast one shadow upon any one on the roll of our heroes. The coming fight is our Thermopylae. We are standing upon a narrow isthmus. If our spartan hosts are united, we can withstand all the Persians that the Xerxes of Democracy can bring against them. Let us hold our ground this one year and then the stars in their course will fight for us. The census will bring reinforcements and continued power. But in order to bring victory now we want the vote of every Republican—of every Grant Republican and every anti-Grant Republican in America—of every Blaine man and every anti-Blaine man. The vote of every fellow of every candidate is needed to make success certain."

SOME very good people who really have at heart the welfare of the Republican party, but who do not look closely into causes and results, think no harm will be done were Pennsylvania to go Democratic this year.

THEY seem to believe that because the election this fall is a State and not a National one that its result will have no bearing on National affairs. This is a grave error, as an examination of the subject will disclose. Aside from the influence a Democratic victory this year would have upon the next Presidential election, and that it would have powerful effect it is unnecessary to deny, the nullification of the influence the State now wields in the National councils of the Republican party, which would follow even the temporary supremacy of Democratic doctrine in Pennsylvania.

OUR people have been able to impress their views on protection to industry upon the people of other States. Pennsylvania demanded a strong protective tariff, and in deference to that sentiment, spoken year after year, the whole Republican party has followed her lead and has become the party of protection. The Administration is a tariff Administration, Congress is a tariff Congress, and the National policy has been shaped in accordance with the voice of our people. Take Pennsylvania out of the list of Republican States and her influence ends. Insidious Free Traders will say to Republican leaders: You gave Pennsylvania her tariff and she repudiates you. You have adapted the policy to every State in the Union, and while you are preaching the doctrine to every people, those for whose benefit it is especially intended say they want no more of it. The policy is a failure. You must modify your views if you want continued success. Other States, Democratic now, are ready to join you on other issues. Let Pennsylvania go her way; you have catered to her for years, and this is your reward. See, here is New York, doubtful now, but a little modification of tariff legislation and her importers and solid business men, Republicans really at heart, will all come to you and give you 37 sure votes in the Electoral College in place of Pennsylvania's 29. This is a flattering argument, and one that might carry weight. Pennsylvania Republicans should see to this.—E.

THE men who go out of a church or out of a party every time the majority votes down any pet scheme are not valuable members. Independence is a good thing to have, and there are few in any church or party who desire to break down the independence of thinking men. But it is often the case that self-will and insubordination and determination to rule is called by this name. Organized bodies of men rarely think alike—each must give way in some particular for the common good. When men refuse to obey law, or the voice of the majority honestly expressed, they merit rebuke and ground, bordering on misrule and anarchy.—Inter Ocean.

CLEANINGS. THE Tammany braces are winking their scolding knives, preparatory to a good time in the approaching New York State Democratic Convention. The warfare between Stewart's and half-breeds in that State is now reaching its height, and the relations existing between the forces of Boss Kelly and Sly Sam-ny.

WE appreciate (says the Lancaster Examiner) the sight of every Republican in this county or anywhere else to be before or against Mr. Cameron. This is an individual matter with each voter, and it is perfectly proper for him to use his judgment in the premises at the prospect and in a proper way. What we object to is the wrong done General Beaver in attempting to defeat him, on the false and doubtful ground of this defiling sinning Cameron. All Republicans are to us as men and brethren, irrespective of their feelings toward Senator Cameron, and all that we have a right to ask is their suffrage for the regular nominees of the Republican party.

THE Bradford Era speaks rather disrespectfully of candidate Stewart; it says "he is blustering away like a gas well, but the gas is of such poor quality that nobody takes stock in it." Of course Stewart does not expect to be elected Governor. He only expects to elect Pattison the nominee of the Democrats, and favorite of the Free Traders.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad Company is about to construct in the city of Baltimore a new general passenger station, at a cost of $2,000,000, similar in architecture and interior arrangements to the Filbert street station in Philadelphia, which is believed to be the best in the country. The Baltimore station will receive and accommodate one hundred and twenty-five daily trains of cars.

A ROUTE agent has reported to the Postoffice Department that a mob composed of Democratic roughs surrounded the post office at Higginsville, Mo., on Saturday last, threatened to demolish the office, and mobbed the postmaster, who was compelled to flee for safety to Kansas City. Acting Postmaster General Edgerton at St. Louis to proceed immediately to the scene of disturbance and report the facts in the case to the department.

THE Democratic leaders explain the apathetic condition of their party by saying that they are "waiting to see whether they are to have one or two enemies to fight." They need not wait to learn that. They have thus far had but one enemy, and will have but one throughout the campaign. That enemy is the Republican party, headed by Gen. Beaver. Everything outside of that party is a friend to the Democratic party and contributing to its success.—Herald Citizen.

THE Chicago Tribune expresses the opinion that the Republicans in Pennsylvania will meet with overwhelming defeat this fall. This valuable information is given to the public just as the announcement is made that the Pennsylvania Independents are under the leadership of Free Traders playing into the hands of the Democrats to secure the triumph of the Free Trade party in Pennsylvania. Given a choice between Republicans and Free Traders, the Chicago Tribune is always with the latter.—Inter Ocean.

PUBLIC Opinion, John Stewart's organ at Chambersburg, says Gen. Beaver "has proved a success as a parade soldier in politics; now let us see how he can fight." We pity the man whose lust for office requires his editor to reflect on the brave soldier, whose maimed body is a living testimony to his heroic service on the battle-field, "as a parade soldier in politics." Gen. Beaver has no occasion to demonstrate further "how he can fight." And he did his fighting openly and manfully, not like a sneak and a hypocrite.—Lancaster Courier.

IT makes very little difference what Senator Stewart's opinions on the tariff are. He is not running to be elected, but to elect the candidate of the Democratic party through which the free traders alone hope to establish their theory on the legislation of the country. With few exceptions the Democratic Senators and members of Congress are free traders, and with a Democratic President, the way will be clear. With the Democrats restored to power in this State, the way will be easy for the restoration of the party in 1884 in the Nation. The men who are running Stewart have quit taking any interest in the tariff. They would sink all the protection to the bottommost pit to defeat General Beaver. Just wait and see if they will not.—Lancaster Examiner.

THE haste, unanimity and earnestness exhibited by the Independent leaders in their denial of the assertion that they are working in the interest of free trade, as well as the protest which some of them make of their protection prejudices, show that if they are not really in league with the free traders, the position they occupy and the result aimed at, namely, the defeat of the Republican party—the party of protection—warfare is the warfare that they are waging.

THE contest in this State has passed beyond the stage of personalities, so far as the public is concerned, and a party must have a better excuse for its existence than the mere intention of annihilating Cameron, before it can command itself to popular support. It matters little whether the Independent leaders have formally coalesced with the Free Traders or not, since the highest measure of success they can achieve is the defeat of the Republican party, and to that extent, however much they may protest to the contrary, they are aiding the Free Trade movement. The work may be done directly or indirectly, so long as the result is the same.

GOOD NEWS FROM MAINE. THE Republicans Make a Clean Sweep.

PORTLAND, Me., September 12.—The entire Republican State ticket is elected by a majority of 8,000. The Republicans have elected all the Congressmen, have recovered the legislature, which will give them a United States Senator, and will restore Judge Libby to the Supreme Bench.

THE following is from the Elmira Advertiser and should be carefully read by every Republican, as it contains much solid truth:

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE following is from the Elmira Advertiser and should be carefully read by every Republican, as it contains much solid truth:

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.

THE Pennsylvania canvass continues to attract the attention of the whole country, although the matter is not so generally discussed by the press now as it was a few weeks ago.