The Independents were routed in Maine, and so will they be in Pennsylvania.

The Burlington Hawkeye remarks that "an Independent Republican is about the same thing as a Hob Ingersoll Presbyterian."

The Democrats, Fusionists, Independents, etc., were knocked lighter than a kite in Maine last week, and so will the same class of conspirators be in Pennsylvania in November.

Is the Republican County Convention at Bedford last week there was but one ballot for Congress, on which 65 votes were cast.

The Republicans of Bedford county in Convention on Tuesday last, appointed Congressional and Senatorial Conferences, and instructed the former for General Campbell, and the latter for Hon. J. H. Longenecker.

On Tuesday of last week the Republican Convention of Cambria County, of which Cyrus Elder was president, renominated Gen. Campbell for Congress by acclamation, and empowered him to select his own conferees.

Every well informed Republican knows that by voting for the Independent candidates he takes the chances of throwing the State into the hands of the Democracy, and the responsibility for this we must shoulder in the future.

The Democratic papers are trying to make a weak denial of the charge that the Free Trade League has given $5,000 and promises $15,000 more to help elect Pattison. But it should be remembered that the story comes from the Philadelphia Record, a Democratic Free Trade paper.

The New York Tribune says of the Maine election: "The Independent Republican movement was a ridiculous failure, and its managers have been deservedly rebuked."

And yet the Tribune is doing its level best to encourage the Independent movement in this State.

It is laughable to see the Independent journals of this State exulting over the Republican victory in Maine, and slobbering over "Jim Blaine." It was a superb triumph, and Mr. Blaine is entitled to much of the credit of it, but it was won in spite of the Independent vote, who were utterly routed.

Don Quixote's famous tilt against the windmills is being thrown in the shade by Stewart and Wolfe's brilliant dashes against the Cameron bugaboo which they have set up.

The world is laughing as glibly at Stewart and Wolfe as our staid old "dead-of-dermings" performed by their prototype.

The Democracy of the Carbon and Monroe (Eleventh Congressional District) last week nominated John B. Storm for Congress over the head of ex-Senator Buchanan. Mr. Storm is a Free Trader, and when he was in Congress some years since openly proclaimed himself as such. Storm show which way the wind blows.

OLD SOLON CHASE, the Greenback crank for Governor in Maine, received about one thousand votes, while VINTON, the Independent Republican crank, received about three hundred, and yet our Pennsylvania Independents are howling with delight over Blaine's victory. They are simply trying to show that in the eyes of their deluded followers.

By the way, can't the Messers of Commercial spare a few brief paragraphs in their eager campaign against the Republican party, to tell an anxious public when, where, and in what language the HERALD offered hadn't it better admit that it lied, lied wilfully and unapologetically, and have done with it. Let it take one horn or the other of the dilemma, and for once try to be manly.

The following will make an appropriate epitaph to be inscribed upon the stones that will mark the political graves of the Independent leaders in this county, who, having lined their pockets by holding fat offices, are now trying to destroy the party that made them what they are.

Oh! when I think of what I see, And what I used to be, I think I should go away With a sufficient cause.

JAMES G. BLAINE originated the term Stalwart as a political application, some six years since. In the late election canvass in Maine he proved himself a thorough Stalwart. There is nothing of the half-breed about him. He worked for the Republican party against Democrats, Fusionists, Independents, and all other kinds of kickers.

The Baltimore Sun, a journal that takes its Democracy straight, in a late article on party reforms exhorts the Democratic party to make its reform from the inside, while elsewhere in the same article it gleefully says that "reform in Pennsylvania will be carried out by Republicans to the destruction of the party."

We invite Republicans to note the refreshing frankness with which this leading Democratic journal applauds the Independents of this State for their willingness to sacrifice their party, while the Democrats of Maryland are exhorted not to sacrifice theirs, but to strengthen it by purging from the inside. Republicans of Pennsylvania ought to be able to see in this peculiar Democratic policy a strong admission for the manner in which the product of a day's shooting was divided between the white man and the Indian. They will note that the turkey is reserved for the Democrats while the buzzard is politely tendered to the Republicans. If they will but see it, General Kootz and Colforth might extract a suggestive moral from the policy outlined by the Sun.

Col. McClellan, of the Philadelphia Times, who is the most noted and able bodied political misrepresenter of facts in the State, some times procured possession of a few private letters written by J. C. Delany, the present State Librarian of Pennsylvania, to one Capt. Condon, a young Irishman, living in the City of Washington, which by ingenious doctored and eking out, he constructed into a charge that those two men had entered into a conspiracy to sell and deliver the votes of the Irish Land League to Senator Cameron for use of General Beaver. Being challenged by the leaders of the League to produce the proof, he published the letters which only do not sustain his charge but the parties, Delany and Condon, promptly met it by sworn statements that no such object was ever contemplated by them, and the officers of the League denounce the thin tale by certifying that neither of them belongs to the League, and therefore could have had no power to sell or influence the members of it. Notwithstanding the prompt and effectual explosion of the lie, it was intended by its author, it is doing duty in all the assistant Democratic papers that sell under the "Independent" flag. Like the forged Morey-Chinese letter, published to injure Garfield in his campaign, this bold attempt to manufacture political capital against the Republican party will do no harm among intelligent, honest men.

"MOTHER GOOSE" in her melodies that are so dear to the infantile heart, tells the story of a good little boy, a considerably good little boy, named Jackey Homer, who sat in a corner, dejectedly eating a Christmas pie. He reflectively:

"Pat he had a pig and a pony and a gun, Spying what a good boy he was."

"As the twig is bent the tree is inclined," said one of our Richard's governors, and this is as true of the effects of infantile literature as it is of sporting titles. Here for instance are the illustrious William B. Kouss and C. G. Musselman, ex-Sheriff Oliver W. Knepper and other of our late county officials, who for years sat in the corners of the Republican household, quietly and cheerfully putting in their thumbs and pulling out plums, and saying in the language of their prototype "Jackey Homer," what very good boys they were. But we can pursue the parallel no further, as "unfortunately" Mother Goose dropped the history of the good little boy just when he was going strutting on plums, and what his future career was no one knows. But our good little boy, just putting in his last plums and what his future career was no one knows. But our good little boy, just putting in his last plums and what his future career was no one knows.

A Baby Killed by a Cat.

On Friday morning the infant child of Anton Pelates, in Pittsburg, was found dead in bed. The mother tells the child, who was only two weeks old, to have been fast, and on returning found a black cat sitting on its breast, with its paw on the child's face. She drew the cat off and found it to be dead. The lower portion of the face and part of the neck were grossly discolored, the lips almost black, and the tongue swollen and protruding. The physicians, however, attribute the death to convulsions or strangulation, but think the cat guilty.

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 8.—Chas. Harris, a detective, was assassinated on Wednesday night at Antonia. While Harris was standing on the stage platform two men jumped from the crowd and shot him dead. The assassin escaped.

AN AWFUL DISASTER. A GREAT BRITISH VICTORY.

LOSS OF THE STEAMER ASIA AND A HUNDRED LIVES.

Struck by a Storm, the Vessel Foundered in Twenty Minutes—A Terrific Scene on Board—Thrilling Narrative of One of the Survivors.

LONDON, September 13.

The War Office has received the following official dispatch from General Wolsley, giving his report of the battle of Tel-Kebr:

"We struck camp at Kassassah last evening, and marched in a high ridge above the camp until 1:30 this morning. We then advanced upon a very extensive and very strongly fortified position held by Arabi Pasha, with 20,000 regulars, of whom 2,500 were cavalry, with seventy guns and 1,000 Bersaglieres. My force consisted of about 11,000 bayonets, 2,400 sabres and sixty guns. To have attacked so strong a position by daylight with the troops I could place in the field would have entailed very great loss. I resolved, therefore, to attack before daylight, marching the six miles that intervened between my camp and the enemy's position in the darkness. The cavalry and two batteries of horse artillery on the right had orders to sweep round the enemy's line at daybreak. The first division of the British brigade, under General Graham, supported by the foot guards, under the Duke of Connaught, seven batteries of artillery, numbering forty-two guns, with a supporting brigade, the second division of the Highland brigade, and the naval brigade in the rear, advanced. Great emulation was evinced by the regiments to be the first in the enemy's works. All went at them straight, the Royal Irish particularly distinguishing itself by its dash and dash in which it was with the enemy. All the enemy's camps and works are now in our possession. I do not yet know exactly the number of guns captured, but it is considerable. Several trains with immense quantities of supplies, including the baggage of the Egyptian army, were thrown away by our cavalry. Their loss was very great.

"General Willis is very slightly and Colonel Richardson severely wounded. Major-General Underhill and Surgeon-General of the Highland Light Infantry, were killed. Of the 'Black Watch' Lieutenant MacNeill was killed and Captains Cumberland and Fox were wounded. General Alison's aide-de-camp, Captain Johnston, was wounded.
