CHICAGO, March 5.- Iron workers here interviewed say the action of Congress on the tariff bill is more injurious to iron interests than any legislation within half a century, and that the only means of keeping the mills open wil' be by a sweeping such a point that laborers in turn must have cheaper board. Presence of Mind.

Washington, March 5,-Miss Hessie Ostrander, an 18 year old daughter of Jacob Ostrander, of Allennart, was very seriously, if not fatally, burned yesterday. Her clothing caught fire at the stove, and she ran a distance of 200 yards to nier on last Saturday evening, about the river. She waded in up to her chin, extinguishing the fire. Before bers Mitchell's house, which is situated one half mile from town, and clothing was nearly burned from ed portions in place, and
