some years, the demand remaining about the same. Two years ago the competition among the nine principal companies then existing for the manufacture of toilet pins led to such a cutting of prices that the business became unprofitable, and the market was flooded with goods. A year ago a combination was formed of three wire companies, and now all the pins made by them are shipped to New York, and handled by the head agency of that city. From their common warehouses they are sent to every part of the country. The importation of English pins is small and the importation of pins is small and the United States are confined.
