

Trade dollars are getting scarce in Somerset. Mr. Walter S. Heiner and wife, of Philadelphia, are visiting in Somerset.

The Huntington Journal says: An old criminal was once asked what was the first step that led to his ruin, when he answered: "The first step was cheating a printer out of two years' subscription."

Recently as the family of Mr. Christian Foltz, of our township, were leaving their dinner table a long snake dropped from the floor above the table which had just been set.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

Annual Statement OF THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES OF THE CONFLUENCE SCHOOL DISTRICT FOR THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 4, 1883.

State appropriation, $800.00; Balance on hand from last year, $12.00; From Col. including tax of all kinds, $192.00; From all other sources, as sales of land, $20.00; Total receipts, $1004.00.

For purchasing books, $18.00; For purchasing paper, $12.00; For printing, $10.00; For fuel, $20.00; For repairs, $15.00; For salaries, $100.00; Total expenditures, $1675.00.

By order of the Board of Directors, J. A. WEISSEL, Secretary.

We hereby certify that the above account was examined on the 25th day of July, 1883, and found correct.

Annual Statement OF THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES OF THE CONFLUENCE SCHOOL DISTRICT FOR THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 4, 1883.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.

Mr. A. Bruce Colburn has sold his newspaper, the Commonwealth, to Messrs. Devoe and will move to Toledo, Dakota.

The Bedford Gazette says: We understand that the construction of the branch railroad to the Springs will be completed this summer.

Charles Hunsicker, Esq., and family, who have been at the Somerset House for the past three weeks, left for their home in Norristown Friday.

Mr. David Pile returned from Philadelphia last week, where he had been visiting for some time.

The Hollidays Standard was thirty-seven years old last week. Like whisky, it improves with age.