SUNNY THOUGHTS. Oh, the good that is wrought

When a sunny thought Comes home to the hearts of all, 'Tis like that given To earth from heaven When the sun-kissed rain drops fall

The happiness wrought By a sunny thought Is beyond all earthly ken. Thoughts gloomy and wise Fill the mind with surprise, But they touch not the hearts of men.

The gems that shine In the distant mine May be far more precious than gold, But the blossoms sweet, That bloom at your feet Have a wealth that is all untold.

In heavens afar Gleams many a star And for these you may strive in vain; But the daisies grow In the grass below All along life's winding lane.

When the roses gav Turn to sombre gray And the lillies as black as night, It is time to weep O'er the gems that sleep Or the gleaming stars so bright.

Like the sun that glows In the heart of a rose. When kissed by a drop of dew, Is the glory wrought In the soul by a thought If sunny, and pure and true.

Do not stop to sigh For the stars on high, But gather the blossoms rare. Each little flower. Though it live but an hour, Has made the world more fair.
