

Editor Kern of the Bedford Gazette, was in Somerset, Saturday.

The members of the Lutheran Sunday School... in Parson's grove last Friday.

John R. Scott, Esq., spent several days in Somerset, Saturday.

Mr. John H. Miller has greatly improved the appearance of his dwelling house...

Stoytown, this county, has been designated as the place for the next year's meeting of the Allegheny Synod of the Lutheran Church.

Mr. A. J. Colborn, Jr., left for Bethany, W. Va., last week, where he has been attending college for the last two years.

Mr. Henry L. Young will offer his personal property for sale, by public order, at his farm one mile north of Somerset, on Wednesday, the 17th day of October.

Misses Frank Meyer and George Coffroth left Somerset for Philadelphia last week, for the purpose of attending school at the West Philadelphia Academy.

Won't some of our citizens go to work and make arrangements for a first class lecture course this winter? Last winter's experience conclusively demonstrated the fact that it would pay.

John H. Uhl, Esq., left for Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday morning, on legal business. He will spend some time in Chicago before his return. He expects to be absent about three weeks.

Mr. Isaac Jones has the contract for building Mr. Ed McDowell's new dwelling and business house, on Main Cross street. The building will be of brick, and work will be commenced on it this week.

Mr. Wm. H. Platt has opened his oyster saloon, at his old stand, in the basement of the Cook & Berrett's Block, and is now prepared to furnish his patrons with first class oysters, in any shape that they may desire.

A gentleman by the name of Charles Henpe, living in Somerset township, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Spangler, charged with a false indictment of the same name of his thirteen-year-old daughter.

Reports indicate that there was a great deal of unnecessary alarm after the recent floods concerning the buckwheat crop. It was stated in many quarters that it was almost entirely ruined. It is now said to have sustained but little damage.

Mr. James Phillips, of Chicago, Illinois, spent Saturday and Sunday with his friends and relations in Somerset. He returned to Chicago Sunday evening, accompanied by Mr. Ned Klemm, who will spend several weeks with him in the Western metropolis.

The impression seems to be daily gaining ground that the Harrisburg & Western Railroad, or the South Pennsylvania, which ever you may please to call it, is not going to be built, at least not by the present management.

Many of our farmer friends tell us that the talk about the potato crop being a failure in this section, is all rot. They say that while the crop is not so good as in years gone by, it is not so bad as the reports have turned out remarkably well, the yield per acre being unusually large, and the size of the potatoes being exceptionally large.

An error prevails in the minds of a good many people that the new mill at Statesburg, Pa., is not yet completed. It is in fact for all some less than five dollars. Such is not the case, and money orders are available as they were before the postal notes were issued. The postal note is for the convenience of those who desire to transmit small amounts of money, and is not through the mails at a trifling cost of three cents.

A special order was issued from the B. & O. headquarters last week, instructing all agents to be on hand at the Somerset depot for all some less than five dollars. Such is not the case, and money orders are available as they were before the postal notes were issued. The postal note is for the convenience of those who desire to transmit small amounts of money, and is not through the mails at a trifling cost of three cents.

Mr. Ed Sell was last week made the recipient of several very elegant presents, in the shape of a beautiful and valuable large time watch, which he had purchased from a large local jeweler, and an exquisite French clock, purchased by an acquaintance from Boston, and a handsome bronze statue, which was presented to Mr. Sell as a token of their esteem, by the revenue inspectors, who were recently under him in the office of Franklin, Huntington, Moffitt, Blair and Cambria.

Mr. J. Earl Ogil, at one time a resident of this place, was married last Tuesday evening to Miss Laura Lane, of Johnstown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Franklin, pastor of the First M. E. Church, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Locust street, Johnstown. Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple took a trip on the Erie, on a trip to Chicago and other Western cities. The Herald extends its congratulations and best wishes.

The two young men who were arrested in Stoytown last week, supposed to be the Chaneyville burglars, and taken to Bedford and lodged in jail, when they were taken to the county jail, where they were held in a highly respectable gentleman from Butler county, who left their homes some three weeks ago on a hunting and fishing trip. Harper's Ferry being their objective point. They had reached Stoytown on their return trip, when they were arrested. It is needless to say that they were promptly discharged.

The committee who arranged the premium list for the coming County Fair, made a great mistake when they elected to offer a premium for the champion "reformer." According to the Meyersdale Convention there will be at least three entries in this class, namely: "Glories" Tom Marshall, ex-governor Hoyt, and our own Governor, John Wolf. It is not for us to say whether it is a mistake or not, but it is a mistake, and a large portion of it is made up of coal. It is one of the most desirable items in this section, and by the expenditure of a few thousand dollars can be made one of the most valuable farms in the county. Several other parties wanted to buy the farm, but the first to agree to pay the price asked.

The conductive school, which has been conducted under the auspices of the Women's Christian Union, commenced at Hogue's grove last Wednesday. The weather was rather cold in the morning, but by noon it moderated considerably and both teachers and scholars enjoyed the day immensely. The pupils are certainly greatly benefited by the course, and it is a pleasure to see them so well advanced in their studies. The course is a most valuable one, and it is a pleasure to see them so well advanced in their studies.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

Mr. Wm. H. Barnhart, agent for Morgan's Woolen goods, will be at the fair with a full assortment of goods. Do not fail to buy what you need for the coming winter.

A friend informs that the road in Larimer township from Deal's Mill to Sand Patch, which has been long ago opened for travel, has at length been opened for travel, and is being extensively used by the public.

Wolf's new building has been completed and thoroughly stocked with one of the finest assortments of clothing, hats and caps in the State of Pennsylvania. The building will be thrown open to the public on Wednesday, September 29th, and all are cordially invited to be present, as will be seen by the advertisement in another column. The truth of the matter is, Wolf has a good line of goods, and the people are anxious to see it.

Our school directors are at a deadlock in the selection of a teacher for the primary school. There are a number of applicants, but three of the directors uniformly vote for one person, and won't agree to compromise upon any one else.

A man belonging to a hunting party from Connellysview, was almost fatally shot on Tuesday last week, by one of his companions. The fall passed through his right arm under the lower portion of the rib and hit the arm near the elbow. The shot was accidental.

This is the citizens of West Township. An effort having been made to exchange out Appleton's School Readers for series not used in any district in the county, this is a fair notice to the citizens that the so-called adoption is not legal, and I would urge the citizens to look to their rights in this matter, and under no circumstances to exchange their old books for the new. Let us stand shoulder to shoulder on this question, and we will prevent any further attempt to commit this outrage in opposition to the wishes of the people who pay for the books, and against the written judgment of the teachers who will teach the schools, and against the expressed opinions of the leading educators of the county.

John H. Uhl, Esq., left for Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday morning, on legal business. He will spend some time in Chicago before his return. He expects to be absent about three weeks.

Mr. Isaac Jones has the contract for building Mr. Ed McDowell's new dwelling and business house, on Main Cross street. The building will be of brick, and work will be commenced on it this week.

Mr. Wm. H. Platt has opened his oyster saloon, at his old stand, in the basement of the Cook & Berrett's Block, and is now prepared to furnish his patrons with first class oysters, in any shape that they may desire.

A gentleman by the name of Charles Henpe, living in Somerset township, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Spangler, charged with a false indictment of the same name of his thirteen-year-old daughter.

Reports indicate that there was a great deal of unnecessary alarm after the recent floods concerning the buckwheat crop. It was stated in many quarters that it was almost entirely ruined. It is now said to have sustained but little damage.

Mr. James Phillips, of Chicago, Illinois, spent Saturday and Sunday with his friends and relations in Somerset. He returned to Chicago Sunday evening, accompanied by Mr. Ned Klemm, who will spend several weeks with him in the Western metropolis.

The impression seems to be daily gaining ground that the Harrisburg & Western Railroad, or the South Pennsylvania, which ever you may please to call it, is not going to be built, at least not by the present management.

Many of our farmer friends tell us that the talk about the potato crop being a failure in this section, is all rot. They say that while the crop is not so good as in years gone by, it is not so bad as the reports have turned out remarkably well, the yield per acre being unusually large, and the size of the potatoes being exceptionally large.

An error prevails in the minds of a good many people that the new mill at Statesburg, Pa., is not yet completed. It is in fact for all some less than five dollars. Such is not the case, and money orders are available as they were before the postal notes were issued. The postal note is for the convenience of those who desire to transmit small amounts of money, and is not through the mails at a trifling cost of three cents.

A special order was issued from the B. & O. headquarters last week, instructing all agents to be on hand at the Somerset depot for all some less than five dollars. Such is not the case, and money orders are available as they were before the postal notes were issued. The postal note is for the convenience of those who desire to transmit small amounts of money, and is not through the mails at a trifling cost of three cents.

Mr. Ed Sell was last week made the recipient of several very elegant presents, in the shape of a beautiful and valuable large time watch, which he had purchased from a large local jeweler, and an exquisite French clock, purchased by an acquaintance from Boston, and a handsome bronze statue, which was presented to Mr. Sell as a token of their esteem, by the revenue inspectors, who were recently under him in the office of Franklin, Huntington, Moffitt, Blair and Cambria.

Mr. J. Earl Ogil, at one time a resident of this place, was married last Tuesday evening to Miss Laura Lane, of Johnstown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Franklin, pastor of the First M. E. Church, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Locust street, Johnstown. Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple took a trip on the Erie, on a trip to Chicago and other Western cities. The Herald extends its congratulations and best wishes.

The two young men who were arrested in Stoytown last week, supposed to be the Chaneyville burglars, and taken to Bedford and lodged in jail, when they were taken to the county jail, where they were held in a highly respectable gentleman from Butler county, who left their homes some three weeks ago on a hunting and fishing trip. Harper's Ferry being their objective point. They had reached Stoytown on their return trip, when they were arrested. It is needless to say that they were promptly discharged.

The committee who arranged the premium list for the coming County Fair, made a great mistake when they elected to offer a premium for the champion "reformer." According to the Meyersdale Convention there will be at least three entries in this class, namely: "Glories" Tom Marshall, ex-governor Hoyt, and our own Governor, John Wolf. It is not for us to say whether it is a mistake or not, but it is a mistake, and a large portion of it is made up of coal. It is one of the most desirable items in this section, and by the expenditure of a few thousand dollars can be made one of the most valuable farms in the county. Several other parties wanted to buy the farm, but the first to agree to pay the price asked.

The conductive school, which has been conducted under the auspices of the Women's Christian Union, commenced at Hogue's grove last Wednesday. The weather was rather cold in the morning, but by noon it moderated considerably and both teachers and scholars enjoyed the day immensely. The pupils are certainly greatly benefited by the course, and it is a pleasure to see them so well advanced in their studies. The course is a most valuable one, and it is a pleasure to see them so well advanced in their studies.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

Mr. Wm. H. Barnhart, agent for Morgan's Woolen goods, will be at the fair with a full assortment of goods. Do not fail to buy what you need for the coming winter.

A friend informs that the road in Larimer township from Deal's Mill to Sand Patch, which has been long ago opened for travel, has at length been opened for travel, and is being extensively used by the public.

Wolf's new building has been completed and thoroughly stocked with one of the finest assortments of clothing, hats and caps in the State of Pennsylvania. The building will be thrown open to the public on Wednesday, September 29th, and all are cordially invited to be present, as will be seen by the advertisement in another column. The truth of the matter is, Wolf has a good line of goods, and the people are anxious to see it.

Our school directors are at a deadlock in the selection of a teacher for the primary school. There are a number of applicants, but three of the directors uniformly vote for one person, and won't agree to compromise upon any one else.

A man belonging to a hunting party from Connellysview, was almost fatally shot on Tuesday last week, by one of his companions. The fall passed through his right arm under the lower portion of the rib and hit the arm near the elbow. The shot was accidental.

This is the citizens of West Township. An effort having been made to exchange out Appleton's School Readers for series not used in any district in the county, this is a fair notice to the citizens that the so-called adoption is not legal, and I would urge the citizens to look to their rights in this matter, and under no circumstances to exchange their old books for the new. Let us stand shoulder to shoulder on this question, and we will prevent any further attempt to commit this outrage in opposition to the wishes of the people who pay for the books, and against the written judgment of the teachers who will teach the schools, and against the expressed opinions of the leading educators of the county.

John H. Uhl, Esq., left for Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday morning, on legal business. He will spend some time in Chicago before his return. He expects to be absent about three weeks.

Mr. Isaac Jones has the contract for building Mr. Ed McDowell's new dwelling and business house, on Main Cross street. The building will be of brick, and work will be commenced on it this week.

Mr. Wm. H. Platt has opened his oyster saloon, at his old stand, in the basement of the Cook & Berrett's Block, and is now prepared to furnish his patrons with first class oysters, in any shape that they may desire.

A gentleman by the name of Charles Henpe, living in Somerset township, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Spangler, charged with a false indictment of the same name of his thirteen-year-old daughter.

Reports indicate that there was a great deal of unnecessary alarm after the recent floods concerning the buckwheat crop. It was stated in many quarters that it was almost entirely ruined. It is now said to have sustained but little damage.

Mr. James Phillips, of Chicago, Illinois, spent Saturday and Sunday with his friends and relations in Somerset. He returned to Chicago Sunday evening, accompanied by Mr. Ned Klemm, who will spend several weeks with him in the Western metropolis.

The impression seems to be daily gaining ground that the Harrisburg & Western Railroad, or the South Pennsylvania, which ever you may please to call it, is not going to be built, at least not by the present management.

Many of our farmer friends tell us that the talk about the potato crop being a failure in this section, is all rot. They say that while the crop is not so good as in years gone by, it is not so bad as the reports have turned out remarkably well, the yield per acre being unusually large, and the size of the potatoes being exceptionally large.

An error prevails in the minds of a good many people that the new mill at Statesburg, Pa., is not yet completed. It is in fact for all some less than five dollars. Such is not the case, and money orders are available as they were before the postal notes were issued. The postal note is for the convenience of those who desire to transmit small amounts of money, and is not through the mails at a trifling cost of three cents.

A special order was issued from the B. & O. headquarters last week, instructing all agents to be on hand at the Somerset depot for all some less than five dollars. Such is not the case, and money orders are available as they were before the postal notes were issued. The postal note is for the convenience of those who desire to transmit small amounts of money, and is not through the mails at a trifling cost of three cents.

Mr. Ed Sell was last week made the recipient of several very elegant presents, in the shape of a beautiful and valuable large time watch, which he had purchased from a large local jeweler, and an exquisite French clock, purchased by an acquaintance from Boston, and a handsome bronze statue, which was presented to Mr. Sell as a token of their esteem, by the revenue inspectors, who were recently under him in the office of Franklin, Huntington, Moffitt, Blair and Cambria.

Mr. J. Earl Ogil, at one time a resident of this place, was married last Tuesday evening to Miss Laura Lane, of Johnstown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Franklin, pastor of the First M. E. Church, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Locust street, Johnstown. Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple took a trip on the Erie, on a trip to Chicago and other Western cities. The Herald extends its congratulations and best wishes.

The two young men who were arrested in Stoytown last week, supposed to be the Chaneyville burglars, and taken to Bedford and lodged in jail, when they were taken to the county jail, where they were held in a highly respectable gentleman from Butler county, who left their homes some three weeks ago on a hunting and fishing trip. Harper's Ferry being their objective point. They had reached Stoytown on their return trip, when they were arrested. It is needless to say that they were promptly discharged.

The committee who arranged the premium list for the coming County Fair, made a great mistake when they elected to offer a premium for the champion "reformer." According to the Meyersdale Convention there will be at least three entries in this class, namely: "Glories" Tom Marshall, ex-governor Hoyt, and our own Governor, John Wolf. It is not for us to say whether it is a mistake or not, but it is a mistake, and a large portion of it is made up of coal. It is one of the most desirable items in this section, and by the expenditure of a few thousand dollars can be made one of the most valuable farms in the county. Several other parties wanted to buy the farm, but the first to agree to pay the price asked.

The conductive school, which has been conducted under the auspices of the Women's Christian Union, commenced at Hogue's grove last Wednesday. The weather was rather cold in the morning, but by noon it moderated considerably and both teachers and scholars enjoyed the day immensely. The pupils are certainly greatly benefited by the course, and it is a pleasure to see them so well advanced in their studies. The course is a most valuable one, and it is a pleasure to see them so well advanced in their studies.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

On the 6th of September, Mr. Suttler, the tenant on Barclay's farm near Bedford, missed four head of young cattle. No one had seen them and as the days lengthened into two weeks, he concluded that they were lost. In the Barclay farm there is a tenant house in a field west of Bedford, which has been the place for the past year and an applicant of this week there was an Wednesday of the last week.

Mr. Wm. H. Barnhart, agent for Morgan's Woolen goods, will be at the fair with a full assortment of goods. Do not fail to buy what you need for the coming winter.

A friend informs that the road in Larimer township from Deal's Mill to Sand Patch, which has been long ago opened for travel, has at length been opened for travel, and is being extensively used by the public.

Wolf's new building has been completed and thoroughly stocked with one of the finest assortments of clothing, hats and caps in the State of Pennsylvania. The building will be thrown open to the public on Wednesday, September 29th, and all are cordially invited to be present, as will be seen by the advertisement in another column. The truth of the matter is, Wolf has a good line of goods, and the people are anxious to see it.

Our school directors are at a deadlock in the selection of a teacher for the primary school. There are a number of applicants, but three of the directors uniformly vote for one person, and won't agree to compromise upon any one else.

A man belonging to a hunting party from Connellysview, was almost fatally shot on Tuesday last week, by one of his companions. The fall passed through his right arm under the lower portion of the rib and hit the arm near the elbow. The shot was accidental.

This is the citizens of West Township. An effort having been made to exchange out Appleton's School Readers for series not used in any district in the county, this is a fair notice to the citizens that the so-called adoption is not legal, and I would urge the citizens to look to their rights in this matter, and under no circumstances to exchange their old books for the new. Let us stand shoulder to shoulder on this question, and we will prevent any further attempt to commit this outrage in opposition to the wishes of the people who pay for the books, and against the written judgment of the teachers who will teach the schools, and against the expressed opinions of the leading educators of the county.

John H. Uhl, Esq., left for Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday morning, on legal business. He will spend some time in Chicago before his return. He expects to be absent about three weeks.

Mr. Isaac Jones has the contract for building Mr. Ed McDowell's new dwelling and business house, on Main Cross street. The building will be of brick, and work will be commenced on it this week.

Mr. Wm. H. Platt has opened his oyster saloon, at his old stand, in the basement of the Cook & Berrett's Block, and is now prepared to furnish his patrons with first class oysters, in any shape that they may desire.

A gentleman by the name of Charles Henpe, living in Somerset township, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Spangler, charged with a false indictment of the same name of his thirteen-year-old daughter.

Reports indicate that there was a great deal of unnecessary alarm after the recent floods concerning the buckwheat crop. It was stated in many quarters that it was almost entirely ruined. It is now said to have sustained but little damage.

Mr. James Phillips, of Chicago, Illinois, spent Saturday and Sunday with his friends and relations in Somerset. He returned to Chicago Sunday evening, accompanied by Mr. Ned Klemm, who will spend several weeks with him in the Western metropolis.

The impression seems to be daily gaining ground that the Harrisburg & Western Railroad, or the South Pennsylvania, which ever you may please to call it, is not going to be built, at least not by the present management.

Many of our farmer friends tell us that the talk about the potato crop being a failure in this section, is all rot. They say that while the crop is not so good as in years gone by, it is not so bad as the reports have turned out remarkably well, the yield per acre being unusually large, and the size of the potatoes being exceptionally large.

An error prevails in the minds of a good many people that the new mill at Statesburg, Pa., is not yet completed. It is in fact for all some less than five dollars. Such is not the case, and money orders are available as they were before the postal notes were issued. The postal note is for the convenience of those who desire to transmit small amounts of money, and is not through the mails at a trifling cost of three cents.

A special order was issued from the B. & O. headquarters last week, instructing all agents to be on hand at the Somerset depot for all some less than five dollars. Such is not the case, and money orders are available as they were before the postal notes were issued. The postal note is for the convenience of those who desire to transmit small amounts of money, and is not through the mails at a trifling cost of three cents.

Mr. Ed Sell was last week made the recipient of several very elegant presents, in the shape of a beautiful and valuable large time watch, which he had purchased from a large local jeweler, and an exquisite French clock, purchased by an acquaintance from Boston, and a handsome bronze statue, which was presented to Mr. Sell as a token of their esteem, by the revenue inspectors, who were recently under him in the office of Franklin, Huntington, Moffitt, Blair and Cambria.

Mr. J. Earl Ogil, at one time a resident of this place, was married last Tuesday evening to Miss Laura Lane, of Johnstown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Franklin, pastor of the First M. E. Church, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Locust street, Johnstown. Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple took a trip on the Erie, on a trip to Chicago and other Western cities. The Herald extends its congratulations and best wishes.

The two young men who were arrested in Stoytown last week, supposed to be the Chaneyville burglars, and taken to Bedford and lodged in jail, when they were taken to the county jail, where they were held in a highly respectable gentleman from Butler county, who left their homes some three weeks ago on a hunting and fishing trip. Harper's Ferry being their objective point. They had reached Stoytown on their return trip, when they were arrested. It is needless to say that they were promptly discharged.

The committee who arranged the premium list for the coming County Fair, made a great mistake when they elected to offer a premium for the champion "reformer." According to the Meyersdale Convention there will be at least three entries in this class, namely: "Glories" Tom Marshall, ex-governor Hoyt, and our own Governor