Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows: "75 E. 54th St., New York, May 16, 1882. MESSIES, J. C. AYEIL & Co., Gentlemen: Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my linds, which itched as intolerably at night, and burned so intense-by, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and entarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYEE'S SARSAFARTHALA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite im-proved almost from the first dose. After as follows:
