A Soldier's Bright Idea.

One day soon after the second Bull Run and Chantilly, a private soldier belonging to an Ohio regiment sought an interview with his captain, and announced that he dad a plan for a military campaign, which must certainly result in crushing out the rebellion. The officer very naturally inquired for particulars, but the soldier refused to reyeal them, and asked for a chance to lay his plans before Pope himself. After some delay he was given a pass to headquarters. He did not go to see Pope, but after the chief o staff had coaxed and promised and threatened for a quarter of an hour the Buckeye stood up and repli-

TROY, N. Y., May 20.-Some unknown miscreant started a switch engine on the Delaware and Hudson road at Mechanicsville last night, and then leaped off and let it go at full speed. It soon met and collid-ed with the Montreal sleeper train. Both engines were totally wrecked The baggageman, named Trickman, seventy years old, was dangerously hurt, and engineer Myers had his leg broken. Some other persons were bruised.
