I like to laugh, and to dance and sing, And to tease my parents dear. My brothers call me a "tiresome thing," Aut they wouldn't miss me here. Oh, 'tis I am my mother's heart's delight, And my father's right hand brave,

Would I leave my home so free and bright To be a rich man's slave? Would I buy myself a gowu of silk In a grand dull house to pine, When I have boys to play with and cows milk. And the whole fair world is mine? Ah, don't come talking of the cares of life; My head is gold, not gray ; And it's my desire to be no man's wife-At least, not just to-day. But I've a heart and it's warm and true,

And I'll keep it safe at ease;

And if one I love should come to woo,
