

"The 'Lost Cause' has been found. HAVE the kickers made bolting respectable?"

"As goes Pennsylvania so doesn't go the Union."

"NEVER say die boys! Pick your flints and try it again."

THERE will be a large crop of candidates for postmasterships in the coming spring.

THE St. John folly has set back the temperance cause at least a quarter of a century.

IT was a pretty close call for Mr. Cleveland, only 1,149 plurality in the State of New York.

MR. ROBERT GARRETT was last week elected President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

THEY are hanging St. John in effigy in all parts of the country. A sinfully waste of old clothes.

FULTON is the only county in the State, in which not a vote was cast for Ben Butler.—Bally boys!

THE Republicans who "would rather be licked with Blaine than succeed with another candidate" have been gratified.

"You've had your vengeance, and that's enough for you," say the Democrats to the Independents, and that is all they will get.

Two years ago Cleveland carried the State of New York by a majority of 192,000; this year he carries it by 1,100. Is any comment on his personal strength necessary?

CLEVELAND says he is not "much of a chopper." Perhaps so, but there are plenty of expert choppers in his party who will insist on his trying his hand on official necks.

THE Philadelphia News says with positiveness that the Republican National Committee "turned a deaf ear to the most promising overtures; $10,000 would have put St. John out of the way."

A SPECIAL election has been ordered in the Adams County district on the 23d of December, to fill the vacancy caused by the death last week of Congressman William A. Duncan, of Gettysburg.

A few of our contemporaries are already boosting Blaine as their candidate for 1888. Better let our broken heads scab over, before preparing to butt them again against the same stone wall.

THE Southern Democratic journals argue with force, that having beaten the giant of the Republican party, there is nothing to fear in the future, if the coming administration is prudent and vigorous in its character.

THE Utica, N. Y., Observer, counts up 96,000 office holders, a large majority of them postmasters, who are subject to removal, and may be replaced by Democrats. Our brother is evidently hungry and dry and impatient.

THE New York Post says, "The Independent Republicans of the country have elected Grover Cleveland President. The point is so clear that nobody can question it. The narrowness of the majority in the State emphasizes it."

MR. CARL SCHURZ, and other eminent Independents are very busy just now assuring the country that Cleveland "will faithfully carry out the civil service law." We have not observed however that the President elect has said "Turkey once."

IT is asserted that the official count in Chicago gives the Democratic candidate (Brand) a majority of ten votes over Leman (Rep.). This will make the Legislature Democratic on joint ballot by one vote and will insure the election of a Democratic U. S. Senator to succeed General Logan, whose term expires on the 4th of March next.

A standing complaint of the Democratic party has been the large number of Government offices. Now that they have succeeded to power, it will be interesting to watch the hungry and thirsty patriots change their tune, and gnash their teeth because there are not enough places to go around.

IT was the Solid South and New York city that elected Cleveland. The Democrats of Pennsylvania, Ohio and other Republican States must stand back from the first table, until the Solid South has had pick and choice of the dainties. The crumbs will have to suffice those who had no electoral votes to deliver.

THESE Democratic neighbors of ours are a queer set of fellows. They were worse whaled in the County, so the Congressional district, and in the State than they ever were, and yet they are as jolly as mud turtles, because they were saved a whaling in the Union by a handful of Independent kickers. After being in the wilderness for twenty-four years, it is but natural, however, that they should rejoice over the first ray of sunshine. We hope they will enjoy their roast beef, and may good digestion wait upon their appetite.

It is worthy of being noted just now, that in all Pennsylvania there was not a single stalwart Republican who opposed Mr. Blaine. He received their earnest and hearty support, notwithstanding the fact that attempts were made to discredit their loyalty to him, by his supercilious friends.

The scramble for office under Cleveland will be the fiercest ever witnessed in this country. Out of power for twenty-four years, the Democracy now comes back ravenously hungry and furiously eager for the spoils. That the leaders understand the temper of their partisans, is attested by the fact that they are already protesting to the public, that the President elect will adhere to the civil service rules, but he will be no more able to withstand the pressure, than he would to dam Niagara with a seine. He must make a clean sweep of all Republicans in office, or his party will turn upon and rend him. "To the victors belong the spoils," is the ancient Democratic doctrine. And the men who elected Grover Cleveland will exact from him a liberal compliance with it.

For solid brazen cheek, the kickers are entitled to the belt. We are led to this conclusion from the fact that several of the organs of the kickers that did all in their power to defeat General Bevier in 1882, are now advocating his election to the United States Senate, and their brethren in New York are suggesting a combination with the Democrats by which Roscoe Conkling will be returned to the Senate. This exhibits cheek of the hardest kind, but beneath it lies an attempt to steal from the regular Republicans the fruits of their victory. In New York the Republicans have control of the next Legislature, and consequently the power to select a U. S. Senator, but if a combination could be made between the Democrats, and a sufficient number of kickers in that body to elect Mr. Conkling, of course the power would be stolen away from the regulars, and they would be prevented from securing the success of their own chosen candidate. So here in Pennsylvania, it is pretty generally conceded that Mr. Cameron should be his own successor—and this feeling is largely due to the outrageous abuse showered upon him by the kickers two years ago—and the suggestion of General Bevier as a candidate by the men who vilified and defeated him is merely an attempt to sow dissension in our ranks in the coming Legislature. There never was a fairer nomination made, than was that of General Bevier for Governor, and it was endorsed by a vast majority of the Republicans of the State at the polls. Nevertheless he was defeated by those who now profess a desire to see him sent to the Senate. The Republicans of the State will demand his re-nomination at the next gubernatorial Convention, and then these kickers who profess such an admiration for him now, will have an opportunity to prove their sincerity.

SINCE the election of Cleveland has been assured, it is amusing to observe the decided change that has taken place in the tone of most of the Democratic organs in regard to the Independents whom they used as a cat's paw to pull the chestnuts out of the fire for the Democratic monkey. They now demand with great vehemence, and a considerable show of temper that the Cleveland administration shall consist exclusively of fossil Democrats whose title cannot be disputed, and in order to secure this, they are busily engaged in supplying him with lists of ancient members of the party from which to make selections. The New York World apparently thinks that a liberal supply of tally is all that is necessary to clear off scores with these allies of its party, and accordingly says: "They are men of ideas, and prefer ideas to offices" and "principles to patronage." They "do not want office from Cleveland" because he is a Democrat, and "they are not of his party. What they want is clean government," "tariff reform, &c., &c."

The Harrisburg Patriot condescendingly puts them on the back, and graciously says: "It is to the credit of the independent that no conspicuous representative of that element in the late contest has asked for reward. As a rule the body of voters who left the republican party because they were repelled by the bad record of James G. Blaine are not of the kind that determine their political action by mercenary considerations. Nevertheless if President Cleveland would call some of them to the discharge of official duties they would undoubtedly yield to a sense of the responsibility of good citizenship."

While the Savannah News, after telling the rest of the Independents "that Blaine's defeat must be their only and sufficient reward" makes a most flattering and specific promise to Henry Ward Beecher that he shall be invited to lecture in the South, and in consideration of his work for Cleveland, they will let him speak without jeering and insulting him as they did, when he was down there before.

How very liberal these lordly old Democrats are to the menials who drew their ass out of the pit for them! Their labor shall be their sufficient reward—but no office—and when they look at their shares, they are as much disgusted as was the Indian, when the result of a days hunt—a turkey and a buzzard—came to be divided with his white partner.

The negroes of the South are panic-stricken at the return of the Democracy to power. They have become possessed with the idea that they will be deprived of their civil rights and possibly of their freedom, and in their fright they are endeavoring to peace the Southern society. Speaking of this condition of affairs, Mr. Cleveland has expressed his astonishment that the freedmen are apprehensive at the prospect of Democratic rule; Whereupon the Philadelphia North American asks, But why should he be astonished? And answers its own query as follows:

He ought not to be astonished that the restoration of the Democracy begets apprehensiveness among the freedmen of the old slave belt. We invite him to take up the history of his party. He will then learn that for thirty years his party was the bulwark of the institution of slavery. He will find its first croaking of the pregnant hinges of the knee to the oligarchy of the compromise of 1852-53. He will find about that time the slave power submitted its ultimatum to his party, and that ultimatum was unquestioning subservience. If he care to pursue the quest further, he will find his party yielding such subservience to the oligarchy in legislation adverse to the growth of industry, in declaring war against Mexico, and the subsequent execution of the slave laws by purchase. He will find his party eager to accede to the demand of the slave power that the entire body of northern citizens should become a constabulary for the apprehension and return of fugitive slaves to their owners, and that they should be liable to imprisonment and fine for non-compliance. And he will find the party, which in 1852, was the bulwark of the institution of slavery, and which in 1860, was the bulwark of the institution of slavery, and which in 1864, was the bulwark of the institution of slavery, and which in 1868, was the bulwark of the institution of slavery, and which in 1872, was the bulwark of the institution of slavery, and which in 1876, was the bulwark of the
