MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL.

A Christmas Story That Tells of Polly Sylvesters Bard Lot, and How Her Beautiful Dream Was Re-

"Dit up, tallot-hed, else I'll bang oo!" echoed Fish who was almost three years old, but a baby still. and a horrid one. The staile on Polly's tender mouth The staile on Polly staile on changed to a piteous quiver as she that picture paper Miss Slater let us flung aside the bedclothes, and with a shiver jumped out of bed. "I was Christmas in it, and how children ings, and you said it was real splen-allus dreamin', day in and day out but you've got to dream out o' bed Christmas; 'nd I said I guessed if earlier in this, mornin's, now I tell my father and mother wa'n't dead I should have one, because Mother ye. Hurry up 'nd come down ! There, he's most ready for his break folks they was? And then don't all around, and Vi-oh-ly she wants you rek'lect that queer picture ofher shoes tied 'nd her things hooked up." "Tum along tick, for me kick oo! her shoes tied 'nd her things hooked "Tum along tick, for me kick oo!

shouted Fish; and Polly having to with the line of march, tempted by a turnip field with the old pair of Mrs. Tarbox's,-and scut- Santa Claus came down the chim-Viola !) a scrawny girl some eight years old, with thin light hair, weak blue eyes, and a sallow complexion, fretful and sickly, but, after all, kinder to Polly than anybody else in the house, and loved accordingly. Master Fishy was set down on the Master Fishy was set down on the do you think ?-- my own really and floor while his sister's boots were truly father and mother, holdin' out laced, her hair brushed, her clothes their arms to me-O, dear !"

fastened, and the rent in her pink The tears streamed down those calico frock basted up; and he amused himself by overturning his mother's mending-basket, which mother's mending-basket, which Polly must set to rights; then she spread up the bed, and shouldering Fish, went into the kitchen. There

"Darling," he said, as he put her mist before his eyes. Baby was dead then; the little creature he had in the lady's arms, "I have brought hoped would grow into as sweet a you a new mother as sweet and woman as her dead mother, while good as your first one was." she waited for him to come back Polly did not doubt that the loveand claim her.

Little Polly Sylver lay fast asleep on her cot bed in Mrs. Tarbox's garret. It was a cold, dreary place where the rats scampered about, and the mice scuffled and squeaked in every corner. She lay very still; the tangled maas of deep chestaut nut carls was brushed away from her pale, delicate face, the great eyes were shut tight, and their heavy the mice scuffled and squeaked in death in the register, not his child's. It seems that Sam Sylvester, now were shut tight, and their heavy fringe of dark lashes never quivered but there was a smile on her parted lips sweet as summer's own sunshine lips sweet as summer's own sunshine and so wistful it would have made anybody with a heart ache to see it of the town and by them bound nearest very large village to Hill- our institutions, to enforce obedi-

Get up, you little carrot head! she was a plump and rosy child, get up, I say! You're lazier than a snail. Ef I git at ye I guess you'll move pretty consider able spry!" "Dit up, tallet hed one Till the bad made little Poller food, and no care had made little Polly a for- "Yes, dear !" lorn sight a where She had now gone to drive the stocking?" "Why no, my little girl !"

"O, I'm so glad ! then it isn't all What'll You Take?

dreamin'," she said in such a sad somewhere hanged up their stock- Park Hotel, 59th street and 7th Av- that Blaine and Logan received Mr. Jerry P. Thomas, Central is reasonable to presume, even now, 1 enne, New York, writes as follows : more votes, and are entitled to more Last summer I suffered fearfully electors than their successful oppowith neuralgia and could not get nents, and that the beasted Demoany rest, night or day. A friend cratic victory is nothing more than who had used St. Jacob's, thought a deliberate steal of the presidency. Moore always told me what clever so highly of its healing qualities Outside of intimidation and frauduthat he gave me some to try. I lent counts, the Republicans could ven rek'lect that queer picture of-let's see, what's his name ?--oh ! tried it and obtained the first night,s have wen against all the combinarest in weeks and was cured. I tion of forces that confronted it at have found it to be the very best the late election, had it not been for remedy. I keep it constantly in internal dissensions. The revolt of bars down. "Well, I drevmed that not be without it.

old pair of Mrs. Tarbox's, —and scut-tled down stairs as fast as she could, She didn't stop to comb her hair or to wash her face, but took Fish in her arms and went ints the bedroom to dress Viohly, (whose name was Viola !) a scrawny girl some eight Viola !) a scrawny girl some eight with lung fever and abscess on lungs, took the field and gave his unqualirish, went into the kitchen. There Day after day went by, and Polly once more a man, completely re- mand it and take the field, as he at the breakiast-table sat the rest of the family,—Jehiel Tarbox, the fath-er, a rough, stingy, coarse farmer, whose loose lips, red eyes, and stu-work than summer, and when win-

COMMUNICATED CONFLUENCE, PA.,

December 11, 1884. EDITOR HERALD :- The confusion nd claim her. "Well!" said he, slowly, "that's is and fond words was all her father tirely cleared away, and the Demo-

But Mrs. Tarbox handn't any heart. She came lumbering up the stairs this morning with Fish in her arms in a great passion. but do Mrs. Tarbox. Two long had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there in a great passion. but do Mrs. Tarbox. Two long had six months beside, in a great passion. but do Mrs. Tarbox. Two long had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this new family. When she came there had Polly taken her place in this had Polly taken her place in the place

"And did you come out of a red cessful rule and unprecedented prosperity, should be defeated, is difficult to comprehend. The defeat of Blaine and Logan has been the work of open and unconcealed treachery. It is an indisputable fact that there are more Republicans than Democrats, and it my house for my family, have rec- two years ago did not fail to bear ommended it to others and would fruit, yet it may not have been so intended. Some of those who suffered from the revolt felt that the

D

Mr. E. Springer, of Mechanics- did not matter so much, as the man burg, Pa., writes: "I was afflicted who sustained the greatest injury pid expression told the road he had ter came, with drifts of pitiless snow get a free trial bottle of this certain is a different sort of man, and don't taken at once; Viohly, her mother, over mountains and valleys, and the cure for all Lung Diseases. Large allow himself to be treated with any and two big boys, Jackson and Ever- fierce winds blew more and more bottles $1.00. ett, the terror and torment of Polly's keenly upon Polly's half clothed a poor trembling child fair game, child seemed to shrink away daily ; and took pleasure in her shricks and there was no place for her by the supplications. Now Mrs. Tarbox fire at night, no warm and nourishtook Fishy on her lap and fed him ing food by day, and when she was with fried pork, cold cabbage, and worn out by hard work she crouchhot biscuit yellow with soda, while ed and shivered under her seanty Polly fried cakes over the hissing bedclothes at night, falling asleep All organizations intending to par- Blaine and Logan would have been stove,-not fast enough by any from fatigue, without being warm. means to suit the boys or their fa- One morning-it was the day before Christmus, but Polly did not ther.

"Hurry up your cakes, Silly Poll!' know it, for no record of any holishouted one, "or I'll let the old bull day bu-Thanksgiving was ever kept A new light is thrown on the sub-enemies and have been for a numout into the barn-yard ind set you in the Tarbox family-she was ject of Consumption by Dr. Wagner ber of years, and since Blaine was to catchin' chickens there."

other; "fetch along your slapjacks, alarm lest some day her bound girl edy that has proved itself to be a being the candidate, to make propos or I'll come 'nd stir you up,"---a might be unbound, and leave her process Polly had experienced before for the house of that Father whom work thoroughly, stopping a hack- standing between them. Conkling the poor child thought had forgotten ing cough instantly. Sold by C. N. Boyd. Price 50cts. is too strong a man to a national contest. and stood in mortal fear of. When breakfast was scrambled her.

through, Polly was allowed to eat So they told her she might bring and $1.00 Trial bottle free. Get her scraps of food standing at one her bed down at night and spread it one. end of the table, and, because she in a corner of the kitchen, if it was thing that could have made her to bed, and removed before they got have a friend who is a hard drinker will always purify itself. To ele scanty meal tolerable to her, -a cup up. That night the moon shone of the hot drink they called cof- full and clear over the sheeted snow, silvered the crests of the great moun-

a nest in the crotches of a fir tree. Sum Sylvester loved his little wife so much, that, when one day she died and left him, he wanted to die too; and nobody could comfort him —not even the tiny baby that lay and wailed in an old cradle as if it It is time now to introduce our tains that bore up its drifted piles, telt, what it could not yet know,- bedroom:

sorrows of a motherless "Open that are door, Poll, pretty the There was no one in quick ; don't stand gawpin 'round child. There was no one in quick, dout city folks !' Hill vale in any way related to Sam; as ef you wuz city folks !'

he was an orphan, like his wife, and The startled little creature did as H. Clement is president and Hon. defile better things than ever was any relatives he might have in the she was bid ; and there on the door- John Cessna one of the directors, made manifest by any party, proseaboard New England town where steps stood a man, while beyond him his father had lived he had never in a sleigh heaped with Inre, the he made up his mind to try his fer-tune in California he put his little and just holding aside a silvery veil Pauline, who was named for to look out; and the lady saw her mother, under the care of slender, pallid child, with large, soft his next door neighbor, a eyes, and a head of tangled curis his next door neighbor, a eyes, and a head of angle of the strange gentleman. This took but strange gentleman. This took but the strange refunded. Price 25c every element of opposition could promising to send more. He went one instant's glance, and the stran- per box. away with a sad heart; but when he got to California the voyage had "Yes, sir," said Polly.

taken his thoughts off his own The man seemed choked with his trouble, and hard work at the minus next question, it came so painfully did so still more. In the mean and so low : while Polly grew up under kind "What is your name, child ?" and motheriy Mrs. Moore's care "Polly Sylvester, sir!" "My own beby !" was the deep.

into a fat and happy baby. One day, about a year after he left low answer ; and Polly rested right home, a couple of his mining mates. in her father's arms, subbing so her-who had been down to San Fran- self she could not hear the answering that she knew Kemp's Balsam was cisco for stores, stepped into his throbs of his heart, though her poor a superior remedy, as it stopped her tent, and after standing about un- tired head lay upon it. easily for a moment, one of them spoke:

from Hillvale, Vermont, did you?" bed, fully intending to give Polly a free. "Yes I did, to be sure." trouncing, and came upon the sight

The two men exchanged a glance, we have seen.

"Anybody there related to ye Sylvester's father ; you have treated any ways? "Nobody but my little girl."

"Name's Mary, ain't it?" "No, Pauline."

"Great Jupiter ?"

ett, the terror and torment of Polly's keeniy upon Polly's half clothed life,-two young brutes who thought body and poor pretence of a bed, the The Washington Monument Celebra-

Sheridan has accepted the position Logan, as he did four years ago for of marshal of the day for the cele. Garfield and Arthur, is clearly evibration of the completion of the dent. Had he made one speech in Washington monument on Feb. 22. favor of the Republican ticket, ticipate should report to him.

A Fortunate Discovery.

found in her garret so drowsy and Kemp, discoverer of Kemp's Baisam the party that used the words that "Come on, Polly Syl! chimed the stiff with cold that Mrs. Tarbox took for the Throat and Lungs. A rem- gave the offense it was his duty, he give has family on order on an undertaker, or els present him with a embodiment of corruption to purify cemetery lot.

In making Christmas presents

cents and 1.00.

Backlen's Aralea salve

Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chap- greatly injured by it, and as a poped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It abounded.

For sale by C. N. Boyd. june20

When Clara was asked what she would do if a nice young gentleman like the Prohibition and Greenback naively replied : "I don't think I'd parties, and still triumph at the

- RHII AR The prettiest lady in Somerset to their senses, and in four years remarked to a friend the other day them hence unite in redeeming the sily for a moment, one of them oke: "Say, Sylvester! you didn't come answer. Out she hopped from her "Say, Sylvester! you didn't come

"The funds all gone ?" shouled and the one who had not spoken "Well! I should like to know-" the depositors. "Every cent," re-sauntered out. Bill Decker went "You shall." interrupted the plied the president. "Are you sure stranger. "Mrs. Tarbox. I am Polly in your house!"

my little darling, whom I believed dead long ago, worse than a dog,ard

she shall not stay another minute less respect than he deserves, with out striking back. That Conkling could have saved the Republican party from defeat in the State of WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 .- General New York and elected Blaine and our next President and Vice President. Outside of the question of the revolt in the State two years ago, Conkling and Blaine were personal is too strong a man to discard during

The proper method of getting rid of any corruption that finds its way into a party organization, is to do i always choose a useful gilt. If you inside the party. An bonest party vate to power a party that is the one less corrupt, is a wrong principle, and dangerous to introduce entered the arena of politics, the Prohibition party has given the Everett's glass company has been best exhibition of the baser and organized, with $15,000 capital. F. meaner elements that corrupt and fessing to represent a good and worthy cause, since the formation of litical party it will only be remembered for the injury it has done and for the iniquities in which it be overcome. It could bid defiance to intimidation, fraud and corruption, and swallow up a half dozen polls. A few years of Democratic rule nation from Democratic rule. cough instantly when others had no all other factions return to their al-Let Stalwarts, Independents, and perity as we have enjoyed since the Republican party came into power.

> Χ. An ancient maiden subscribed for an agricultural paper because she had heard its "Notes on Husbandry well spoken of."

these organs, and are especially designed to cure the disenses caused by their derango-ment, including Constipation, Indiges-tion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysontery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remody. The extensive use of these P11.1.8 by eminent physicians in regular pracre, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profes-These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from caloinel or any other injurious ingredient. A Sufferer from Hendache writes: "AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to nie, and "AVEN'S PILLS are internance to be, and are my constant companies. I have been a severe sufferer from Hendache, and your Pills are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my hend from pain. They are the most effective and the easient physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers. W. I. PAGE, of W. I. Page & Bro." Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

Not a snuff nor a liquid. Applied by the finger to the nostrils. Pleasant, certain, radical. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. A Brakeman Arrested for Bobbery.

Cataract, Crooked Eyes, "Wild Hairs," Proojang Lids, Deafness, Discharge from Ears Colypus and Catarris successfully treated. Spec-acles adjunted. Artificial eyes inserted. Send or free pamphiets. decl. m. CUMBERLAND, MD., Dec. 10 .- William Elsbeck, of Connellsville, a

13.470.57

INCOME -

PATENTS policy holders during the last

New Assurance written

1883, $81,129,756. Paid

he use of Schools. Academics, Colle ate Learners; also a book of rele consting Room.

PREPARED BY

old by all Druggists.

YOUNG, All experience the wonderful beneficial effects of