A Happy New Year!

Institute is in session.

The days are lengthening.

What did you get in your stocking?

Burdette at the Court House this evening.

The pretty school marms are on deck this week.

There was snow enough to make Christmas merry with the jingle of sleigh bells.

The school children have a holiday this week. The teachers are at the county institute.

Miss Mamie Uhl is home from Pittsburgh, where she is attending school, for the holidays.

We hope all our patrons had a merry Christmas, and will have a happy New Year.

Let us temper our holiday enjoyments with sympathy for those who are bereaved.

Johnstown's natural gas well is down to a depth of 2900 feet, but as yet no gas of any consequence has been struck.

Any of our subscribers failing to get their papers regularly should notify us and we will endeavor to ascertain the cause.

Messrs. George R. Coffroth and Frank J. Meyers, who are attending school, the former in Philadelphia and the latter in Pittsburgh, are home for the holiday vacation.

Sheriff-elect Winters took advantage of the good sleighing the latter part of last week, to move a portion of his household goods into his new quarters in the jail.

The National Guard of Pennsylvania will attend the inauguration of President-elect Cleveland, the railroad companies having agreed to transport the troops free of expense to the State.

The Connellsville Courier advertises J. K. Emmett to appear at Newmeyer's Opera House on the 15th of May next. If he don't get there, Eli, it will not because he was not advertised in time.

Among the former Somerset boys who returned home to eat their Christmas dinner were Mr. Will A. Kimmell, of Pittsburgh, Mr. Ferg G. Parker, of Johnstown, Mr. Robert Colborn, of Frostburg, Md., and Mr. John P. Knable, of Pittsburgh.

MUST BE SETTLED.—All accounts on the books of Dr. Ed. M. Kimmel & Son must be settled without further delay. Call at the office or residence of Dr. H. S. Kimmell. The accounts remaining unpaid January 1, 1885, will be handed to a Justice for suit and collection.

Our merchants, especially those who liberally advertised their wares, did a thriving holiday trade. For the three or four days preceding Christmas the stores were crowded, and proprietors and clerks were kept busy. Several merchants informed us that their sales this season were larger than those of any other holiday season.

Mr. A. J. Hileman, clerk to the incoming board of County Commissioners, has been spending the past week in the office, in order to get the run of the business, of which he will take charge on the first of the year. Mr. Hileman will not bring his family to Somerset before the first of April, as he is unable to secure a house before then.

Register and Recorder Charles C. Shafer met with a very painful and severe accident Sunday evening. In coming out of the court house he slipped and fell, striking his head on the curb of the pavement with such force as to render him unconscious. He was picked up by friends and carried into the court house, and was afterwards assisted to his home on Turkeyfoot street, where he has since been confined to his bed.

Says the Westmoreland Democrat: With the advancement of construction on the South Pennsylvania Railroad, according to reports, Donegal is beginning to inflate itself with metropolitan airs of no mean degree. It now wants to be a county seat, taking for its territory a portion of Fayette, Westmoreland and Somerset counties. Up to latest accounts in this new idea, the citizens of other portions of the respective counties are not tearing their hair out by the roots to have the scheme accomplished.

The following is the programme for Union Services in this place during the Week of Prayer, beginning Sunday, January 4th:

Monday evening in the Lutheran Church, led by Rev. J. N. Pershing.

Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian Church, led by Rev. J. F. Shearer.

Vice President, Prof. A. C. Holbert; Secretary, N. Geo. Keim; Asst. Secretary, C. F. Livengood, Quarry Manager, Prof. F. M. Berkey. Prof A. N. Raub was introduced and spoke to the teachers for a short time. Prof. Hall favored the Institute with a suitable portion of music. Prof. Weller announced executive committee, D. C. Eichter, J. F. Dively, F. J. O'Connor. Adjourned.

HOOVERSVILLE ITEMS.

Mr. Noah Crissey killed a pig recently, eleven months old, that dressed 483 lbs. Noah thinks he is entitled to the cake.

The sad deeds done in Hooversville are greatly magnified by her rurals. The good deeds they will not publish, and we are too modest, you know.

The Lutherans dedicated their fine and commodious church on the 30th ultimo, and the Disciples on the 14th instant. Large and attentive congregations were ably entertained continually on both occasions, responded liberally, as large sums were subscribed to liquidate the debts that rested on both those beautiful structures. The needed amounts were subscribed and the good people rejoice.

A PASTOR'S REPORT.

Mr. Editor:—We have spent another year very pleasantly, and I trust profitably, in the Hooversville pastorate. The following is a brief report of our labors during the year ending October 20, 1884: The pastorate is composed of four congregations, viz: Shade, with a membership of 130; Graef's, 94; St. John's, at Lambertsville, 109; Weigle's, at Hooversville, 122; Total, 445; Dismissed by certificate, 20; Died, 3; Children baptized, 13; Members received, by baptism 10, by confirmation 11, by certificate 10, restored 2, total 33; Weddings 14, funerals attended 6, sermons preached 182, pastoral visits 217, miles traveled, 1,472. We held four protracted meetings, at which 47 presented themselves at the altar for prayers. The salary was promptly paid. Donations in cash, grain, provisions, etc., amounting to $212.06 were received, for all of which we join in most hearty thanks to the kind donors. God bless them.

J. N. UNRUH.

Following is the report of the Bakersville school for the second month, ending December 8, 1884:

	M.	F.	T.
Whole No. in attendance,	31	25	56

Thus far the pupils have all made a creditable record both in progress and deportment, and a continuance of the same is expected in the future.

G. M. DICKEY, Teacher.

The rumor that the Cambria Iron Company would close down indefinitely proves to without foundation.

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR'S ON THE B. & O.—The B. & O., as usual, will extend Holiday greetings in the shape of Round Trip Tickets at greatly reduced rates over their entire system. The low rates go into effect at all stations on the main line and branches east of Ohio river, including the Pittsburgh Division, on the Twenty-third, and those who go to take Christmas turkey with friends may remain until after New Year and enjoy themselves to the utmost. If they do not want to go on that date they can purchase tickets on the Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Thirtieth and Thirty-first of December, also January first. These tickets are all good to return until January fifth, inclusive. The plan adopted by this Company of issuing Round Trip Tickets has been in vogue for several years, and has become not only popular with their patrons but quite successful in a pecuniary point of view. RAILROAD NEWS.

At the meeting of the officers and directors of the South Pennsylvania railroad company held in New York on Wednesday it was decided to push the work of construction as rapidly as possible and every effort is to be made to have the road in running order by the latter part of 1885. Contractors for the different tunnels along the line were notified to excavate for single track only, instead of double track as heretofore. The company will widen out the tunnel for double track at its own convenience after the road is in operation.

The promoters of the South Pennsylvania railroad have arranged for the calling of further assessments from the stockholders whenever funds should be needed. Work on the tunnels is being pushed night and day. The connection with the B. & O. over the Harrisburg bridge will be no later than May 1, and it is estimated that $1,500,000 of business will be turned over to the Reading system in 1885 on account of this connection. Routine business matters were referred to committees, and the meeting adjourned after a short session.

It looks as if the South Pennsylvania and the Balto. & Ohio railroad companies are to unite in battling against their common enemy, the Pennsylvania railroad company. The Pennsylvania has succeeded in keeping the B. & O. out of Philadelphia and New York for many years, but it seems that the latter, with the assistance of the South Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia & Reading, will at last "get there."

The new route takes the Western Maryland at Hagerstown and continues to Shippensburg; there it takes the Harrisburg & Potomac to Harrisburg; at Harrisburg it crosses the South Pennsylvania bridge, now being constructed, and connects with the Lebanon Valley branch of the Philadelphia & Reading road. It then follows the P. & R. to Philadelphia and New York. It is probable that Philadelphia & Reading, the Baltimore & Ohio and the South Pennsylvania will compose a great system when the last named company starts in operation.

Diaries for 1885 at Fisher's Book Store.

State Superintendent Dr. E. E. Higbee, had a talk before the Lycoming County Institute, in which he said: "Children can not be allowed the same liberties at school that they have at home; school rooms should be large enough to comfortably seat the pupils; the lives of the little ones should not be imperiled by sitting near a hot stove and then going out in the cold while perspiring; the State means that the pupils must be protected; a thermometer is a necessary adjunct to school rooms; teachers should possess a knowledge of anatomy and hygiene, and use it.

THE CHILD AND THE YEAR.

Said the Child to the youthful Year:
"What hast thou in store for me,
O giver of beautiful gifts, what cheer,
What joy dost thou bring with thee?"

"My seasons four shall bring
Their treasures; the winter's snows,
The autumn's store and flowers of spring
And the summer's perfect rose.

"All these and more shall be thine,
Dear Child—but the last and best
Thyself must earn by a strife divine,
If thou wouldst be truly blest.

"Wouldst know this last, best gift?
'Tis a conscience clear and bright,
A peace of mind which the soul can lift
To an infinite delight.

"Truth, patience, courage and love
If though unto me canst bring,
I will set thee all earth's ills above,
O Child, and crown thee a King!"

—Celia Thaxter in St. Nicholas.

EDITOR HERALD:—Following is the second monthly report of "Brumm's School," in Somerset Township, for the month ending December 25, 1884:

Whole number in attendance during the month, males 22, females 20, total 42.

Per cent. of attendance during the month, males 89, females 91, total 90

Number of visits by patrons, 4; by Directors, 0.

The attendance has not been as good as it might have been, especially among the boys. I think that rabbit hunting is the fault, and hope that parents who have big boys to send to school will attend to this matter, and see that their boys will go to school instead of running through the woods with a gun on their back, and spending their time in hunting when they should be in school. I think that parents are to blame to some extent, and hope hereafter that the attendance will be better than it has been in the past. Visitors are welcome at any time. Come and see what we are doing. To the patrons who have visited us, I would say, come again; and to those who have not visited us, I would say come and see what we are doing with the young ideas.

The

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.

From the Tenth Census, Vol. 8, Just Published.

"The American Agriculturist is especially worthy of mention, because of the remarkable success which it has attained by the unique and wise efforts of its proprietors to increase and extend its circulation. Its contents are duplicated every month for a German edition, which also circulates widely."

This tribute is a pleasing incident in the marvelous nearly

Career of this recognized leading Agricultural Journal of the world.

What it is To-Day.

Six months ago the American Agriculturist entered upon a new career of prosperity, and to-day it is far superior to any similar periodical ever published in this or any other country. Richer in editorial strength; richer in engravings; printed on finer paper, and presenting in every issue 100 columns of original reading matter from the ablest writers, and nearly one hundred illustrations. Dr. George Ehurber, for nearly a quarter of a century the editor-in-chief of the American Agriculturist, Joseph Harris, Byron D. Halstead, Col. S. C. Wehi and Andrew S. Fuller, the other long-time writers who have made the American Agriculturist what it to-day, are still at their posts.
