The coal trade seems to be about the only lively business in town, the cold weather of the past few weeks increasing the demand quite considerably and giving employment to a small army of teamsters.

CASTORIA.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child she cried for Castoria. When she was a Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children she gave them Cast'a.

The present month of February will con- sist of four Sundays, four Mondays, four Tuesdays, four Wednesdays, four Thurs- days, four Fridays and four Saturdays. This will happen once more in the present century, in 1891. The same thing occurred in 1801, 1807, 1818, 1829, 1835, 1846, 1863 and 1874.

The United States Fish Commission has succeeded in arousing considerable interest in the introduction of carp into this country. Since their introduction it is estimated that nearly 25,000 persons are engaged in the cul- ture, and it will certainly not be many years, say the Commission, before these fish will become plentiful in our markets.

REMOVED.—People coming to court will please see-Best that Fisher's Book Store has been moved into the large and convenient new store room directly opposite the old stand. In his new room Mr. Fisher has laid in an exceedingly large and varied stock of goods in his line and will be able to serve the public to everything wanted in his line.

An exchange says that it is alleged by one who has been cured of an inordinate thirst for alcoholic stimulants, that a half ounce of ground quassia steeped in a pint of vine- gar, a small teaspoonful of the decoction to be drank in a little water every time the liver comes on, affords a certain cure. In few days the craving for liquor will have entirely disappeared. This is a cheap, sim- ple and harmless remedy for a very serious and expensive appetite.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—As I have gone out of office it is important now that all persons having deeds in my possession should call and lift them promptly. Also, persons ow- ing me Orphans' Court fees will settle the same without further delay. All deeds not called by the 1st of March, and all fees com- ing to me if not paid by that date, will be placed in the hands of an officer of the law for collection. CHAS. H. FISHER.

The sleighing was exceptionally good for several days last week.

Sunday's sun and rain put an end to the sleighing for the present.

Several more good store-rooms could be rented to advantage in Somerset.

The past week has developed nothing new in the Somerset postoffice question.

Dr. W. F. Fundenburg, of Pittsburgh, paid us a brief visit Monday morning.

The weather for the past week would in- dicate that the ground hog's head is level.

Mr. William Hoover is erecting a frame dwelling house opposite Kantner's station.

Our neighbor of the Democrat has added a new power press to his already well equip- ped office.

We have not seen a copy of that interest- ing (?) publication, the Legislative Record, since the present session opened.

Messrs. Samuel Kantner, Hez. Zimmer- man and John Megahan leave to-day for New Orleans to take a look at the Expo- sition.

Our friend William H. Welfley, Julius, will open a book store on the 1st of April in the room in the Mammoth Block now used for a restaurant.

On the 1st of April John R. Scott, Esq., will move his law office into the rooms now occupied by J. G. Ogle, Esq., in Ed. McDowell's building.

Our principal thoroughfares presented a very animated appearance Saturday. The good sleighing brought large numbers of our country friends to town.

Mrs Susan Cooper disposed of her proper- ty on East Main street Monday morning, for five hundred dollars. John H. Uhl, Esq., was the purchaser.

It has been suggested that the question of who shall succeed Postmaster Davis be sub- mitted to the voters on the day of the spring election, which is Tuesday, the 17th.

Downey is the name of a new postoffice in Stonycreek township, of which W. D Fioto is the postmaster. Mr William Bow- man has been appointed postmaster at Hus- band, Somerset township.

Mr Jacob Lenhart last week sold his resi- dence on West street, and an out lot con- taining six acres, to Mr. Washington Stone- braker. The price paid was seventeen hundred dollars.

The Philadelphia Times Almanac for 1885 has come to hand. It is one of the very best compendiums published in this country. It is chuck full of information, political and otherwise, and is very accurate.

Miss Jessie Benford has purchased half interest in Mrs. M. M. Tredwell's store. The new firm will move into Mr. Henry Schell's rooms in the Mammoth Block, now occupied as law offices, on the 1st of April.

Mr. Henry Heffley has had the interior of his large store room handsomely painted and otherwise improved, and it now pre- sents as neat and fresh an appearance as any business house in town. Mr. Heffley is always wide-awake and up with the times, and as a consequence enjoys a large and lu- crative business.

Superintendent Bonner has undertaken to improve the freight service on the Somer- set and Cambria Branch, and he hopes to be able in a short time to have a fast train on the road whereby shippers and others will be greatly benefitted. In the event of suc- cess in his undertaking, traffic on the S. & C. will largely increase.

Saturday afternoon Mr. James Saylor with his four strong horses moved a good sized frame building for Mr. Henry Kreger, from Gravel Hill to Lop's Bridge, a distance of al- most a mile. It was a pretty heavy drag, but James got it there in good shape. We understand that Mr. Kreger intends using the building for a slaughter house.

Mr. B. F. Lung, who was arrested last week and lodged in jail, charged with em- bezzlement, etc., on information of Mr. Isa- iah Rodgers, was not released on bail as stated by one of our contemporaries, but is still in jail. Since his incarceration there have been several other informations made against him, on which he would be imme- diately re-arrested were he to be released on bail.

The Pennsylvania State encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in Harrisburg, on February 10th and 11th next. The Harrisburg Posts are making extensive preparations for the gathering, and in addition to the usual arrangements some very handsome and costly badges have been prepared, one of which will be given to each delegate as a memento of the en- campment.

House renters have been considerably embarrassed in securing suitable tenements, there seeming to be a greater demand for comfortable dwellings than the supply will meet. There is a good opening in Somerset for some enterprising capitalist to erect a number of eligible dwelling houses, as the rents of such would bring a better interest on the investment than many of the popu- lar securities in the market.

The changable weather has been very se- vere on many people. It has been warm and cold by spells; sometimes spring-like in the evening and below zero in the morn- ing, or warm and pleasant early in the day and freezing cold later; then one warm day and one cold one. There is consequently much sickness among both old and young. Don't be too ready to lay aside the wraps; better stick to them and be a little too warm than to be laid up with a bad cold, which may end in something more serious.

Valentine Hay, F. J. Kooser and A. H. Coffroth, Esqrs. left for Philadelphia Mon- day to attend the Supreme Court, which is in session in that city. The following are the cases which they go to argue: Thomas Williams et al Plaintiffs in error vs. J. M. Hay; Josiah Brant, Plaintiff in error vs. George R. Drips' Administrators; Joseph Christner, Plaintiff in error vs. John A. Hochstetler; Somerset & Cambria Railroad, plaintiffs in error vs. Mary Galbraith. The gentlemen expect to return home the latter part of the week.

It always pays to watch closely the adver- tisements, but never more so than at a peri- od like the present, when more bargains are offering in all lines of trade, even at the flood-tide of prosperity. In these days it is in general trade that the advertising houses buy the largest stocks upon the best terms and put them to the public at from 20 to 25 per cent. less than their slower competitors. By observing when and where to purchase, as set out each week in our advertising col- umns, the shrewd reader can make a very material saving from the ordinary cost of goods

The manufacture of different kinds of fer- tilizers is a new enterprise about to be estab- lished at this place by Messrs. Samuel Fox and Josiah Woy, who will do business un- der the firm name of the Somerset Fertiliz- er Company. They have erected a building 100x35 feet two stories high, immediately south of town along the line of the old Som- erset and Mineral Point Railroad. A thirty- five horse power engine with boiler attach- ed has been placed in position. They pro- pose putting in a machine for crushing bones and one for mixing the material, be- sides other machinery, of the most improv- ed pattern, used in the business. When completed the factory will have the capaci- ty for turning out a large amount of materi- al daily. This enterprise will afford our farmers an opportunity of procuring first class fertilizers at home and at a reasonable price.

President Keim, of the Reading road, it is said, will succeed Robert H. Sayre as Presi- dent of the South Pennsylvania at the next election.

At the Spring election, which takes place next Tuesday, the following Borough offi- cers are to be elected: Burgess; one Mem- ber of Council, to serve three years; two School Directors; Constable; High Con- stable; Assessor; two Assistant Assessors; Inspector; Judge of Election; Auditor; Street Commissioner.

What is known as the deep cut, right north of where the South Pennsylvania railroad crosses the Stoystown road, is said to be the largest cut on the line of the road. The amount of material yet to be taken out of this cut is greater than that of any of the tunnels. It is the only point where work is at present being done on Shields' & Dar- win's contract, and one of the head men in- forms us that it will take fully one year from the first of March to complete the work. The remainder of the work on this contract can be finished up in a few months.

According to the Meyersdale Commercial, the contractor for the Stoystown bridge "was to get $1,084 for the job. The view- ers assessed $684,000 damages, leaving him but $400 for material and services." It is now in order for the Commercial's lightning calculator to demonstrate, to its own satis- faction, that by this marvelous statement it has saved at least five thousand and eighty- four dollars to the county. A reproduction of the "funny story" entitled "He Made the Riffle," which has been going the rounds of our exchanges for the past two years, would be appreciated at this juncture.

Plants, in bedrooms, as a learned writer now declares, far from being hurtful, are beneficial, inasmuch as they exhale a cer- tain amount of ozone and vapor, which maintain a healthy dampness in the air, and besides that are destructive of the microbes which promote consumptive tendencies in human beings. It is only flowers, and not the plants which bear them, that do the damage. Ferns are innocuous; roses and sunflowers are pernicious, at least during the interesting period while they are in bloom.

Next to the love of her husband, nothing so crowns a woman's life with honor as the devotion of a son to her. We never knew a boy to turn out badly who began by falling in love with his mother. Any man may fail in love with a fresh-faced girl, and the man who is gallant to the girl may neglect the poor, weary wife in after years. But the big boy who is a lover of his mother at middle age, is a true knight who will love his wife in sere leaf autumn as he did in the daisied spring. There is nothing so beauti- fully chivalrous as the love of a big boy for his mother.—Carlisle Herald.

KANSAS.—Many of our readers are doubt- less unaware of the extraordinary induce- ments held out to them by one of the great- est Railroad corporations in this country for exploring in that wonder land, Kansas. Round trip tickets can be obtained of the agents of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, enabling land seekers to make a trip of over one thousand miles through the most fertile portions of Kansas and the famed Arkansas valley, at the very low rate of ten dollars. These tickets are good to stop off at any point, and enables the holder to visit Topeka, Emporia, Florence Newton, Wichita, Wellington, Winfield, Elk Falls, Cherryvale, Chanute, Iola, Gar- nett, Ottawa and intermediate points. Send a postal card to W. J. C. Kenyon, Baltimore Md., for the Royal Record of Kansas,—sent free. For rates of fare apply to W. J. C. Kenyon, Baltimore, Md.; or E. E Paton Somerset, Pa.

THE ROLLER SKATE CRAZE.—The Pittsburg Times would like to know if there is any- body so forehanded with knowledge as to settle why it is that the roller skate lunacy overcame the public mind so suddenly and so recently? Why, for instance, didn't it develop a year, or two years, or five years ago, when roller skaters and roller skating were as meritorious and amusing as at any time since. This is one of those intensely psychological problems that come unex- pectedly and all of a heap to bother the in- quiring spirit of mankind. In some places it is remarked that this sort of recreation has become so virulent as to occupy not only the minds and time of the population, but to have so straining effect on personal fiscal affairs as to threaten a mild epidemic of bankruptcy. Boarding house and store- keepers feel the infliction to the utmost; they say their bills remain unsettled from week to week, all the spare change that their pa- trons secure gieng to the enterprising rink projectors, and that nothing short of a gen- eral mobbing of the cause of this distressful condition can adequately meet the emer- gency.

AFTER THE RAILROADS.—Senator Wallace has introduced an anti-discrimination bill in the Senate that is very exhaustive in its provisions. It provides that any railroad shall have the right to interseci, connect or cross any other railroad, and shall receive or transport passengers, tonnage and cars, load- ed or empty, without delay. Any railroad or canal company refusing or neglecting to act as a common carrier, or demanding an exorbitant compensation, shall forfeit and pay threefold the actual damages suffered to persons or corporations by reason of such refusal. Any railroad or canal director, official or employe neglecting or refusing to aid in the performance of that railroad as a common carrier shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, subject to imprisonment for not more than six months, and pay a fine of not more than $3,000. Any railroad de- manding or receiving exorbitant rates for transporting of freight or passengers is sub- ject to payment of threefold damage to the party injured, or if the employe so charged shall be adjudged guilty of the misdemean- or, with the punishment stated in the first instance. Threefold damage is to be award- ed where unjust discrimination is prac- ticed.

EDIE AND VICINITY.

Our obliging merchant J. A. Friedline is taking an inventory of his store this week.

George J. Swank who had a severe attack of typhoid fever has not yet fully recovered: An oiled tongued swindler made him the victim of a little fraud by taking a five dol- lar bill of him for medicine which never came to hand.

A fancy young man from Ligonier came through this neck o'woods a short time ago selling knives, forks and spoons, and sells them for just what he can get for them; it is said one farmer paid $7, one $5, one $4 and another $3.50 for a set. Some of the same farmers refused to take the same goods from our merchant for $2.50 per set. Some of the same farmers refused to take the same goods from our merchant for $2.00 per set; but it seems our people will allow them- selves to be taken in by any clever rascal who lights on them

Josiah Friedline and Ed. Daniels are each going to set their steam saw mills, one on either side of Laurel Hill.

William Cover moved from Petersburg to Lewisville. William Griffith moved in where Cover moved out. Samuel Philippi will move to Petersburg in the near future.

Our friend Mesheck Beam wears a broad smile, "they are twins."

The loafers association of Edie elected Mesheck Beam captain. Any one can be- come a member by setting up the cigars and giving his name to the captain.

Mr. A. L. Miller undertook a tall job on last evening from the prayermeeting at Case- beer's Church. Well Link, could you see any stars when you looked up.

OUR HARRISBURG LETTER.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7, 1885.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

There have been several very lively and exciting scenes in the House this week, al- though scarcely anything has been done. On Monday evening the Governor's veto of the first House bill, establishing four additional Magistrate's Courts in the city of Philadel- phia was read, and then the fun began, which lasted until the time for adjourn- ment. Fillibustering and political strategy were resorted to by the friends and enemies of the bill, and the veto message was not dis- posed of until Thursday, when the bill was finally lost for want of twelve votes to give it the necessary two-thirds. Mr. Faunce, an old Democratic member from Philadelphia, and Speaker of the last House, made the most powerful and eloquent appeal for the bill. He said it was not a question for pub- lic opinion and newspapers to determine, for the Constitution of the State has deter- mined it, and it is only necessary for mem- bers to consider whether they will act in accordance with the oath they had taken to uphold, defend and obey the Constitution of Pennsylvania, or to follow with the mob who despised the mandates of the Constitu- tion, and were crying as of old, "Crucify Him, crucify Him."

Immediately after the natural gas explo- sion in Pittsburgh, every member from the Allegheny delegation seemed to have a "nat- ural gas" bill to introduce. Of course they want a liberal appropriation in every bill, and to impress the necessity of such a thing upon the minds of the unsophisticated members from the country districts, the halls and aisles are filled with smiling, en- ergetic, omniscient "bill-pullers." It is al- most time for Pennsylvania, to stop the un- necessary appropriations that every two years she is called upon to make. While I do not think it good policy for the legisla- ture to promiscuously grant appropriations to every public or private institution, nei- ther would it be wise to go to the other ex- treme, and refuse aid to all; but every ef- fort should be made to find out what institu- tions are worthy and give them a fair and just appropriation, but not one that will fill the pockets and make rich the dif- ferent officers.

The only bills that have passed the House this week were bills making appropriations to pay the Judges in Philadelphia, Berks, Cambria and Clearfield counties, as these were cut out in the general appropriation of 1883.

A caucus of the Republican Senators was held last Wednesday night to determine upon a bill for the Senatorial apportion- ment. Everything moved along harmoni- ously, and the current of opinion favored a ratio to be determined by dividing the population outside of the eight districts of Philadelphia by forty-two. The Philadel- phia Republican delegation of the House have agreed upon a representative appor- tionment for Philadelphia, which gives thirty-two Republican and seven Democrat- ic districts, and this it is believed the gener- al caucus will accept.

The Senate has done very little this week, except pass three or four insignificant meas- ures. It cannot get properly down to work until the House quiets itself, as it has been quarreling and wrangling for nearly four days over the veto message.

A bill has been favorably reported (and it looks as though it would go through) which prohibits the employment of school teachers under 18 years of age. This will be disas- trous to a great many young teachers. I pre- sume, in your county, as I think the average age of your teachers is scarcely 18.

Pittsburgh's handsome statesman, Chris Magee, has been here several days this week, moving around among the Legislators and Senators in his usual genial and affable manner. It is singular to watch how the reporters and newspaper men follow around after him and constantly watch him, as if he were a dynamiter.

Tim O'Leary, the big, fat, Democratic ward politician, has been here in the inter- est of the natural gas companies.

All the talk now seems to be in regard to the different apportionment bills. The ire of Hon. A. J. Colborn was aroused the other day, when one of the Senators said they were going to make a Congressional district out of Somerset, Fayette and Westmoreland counties. He told the Senator he would fight such a bill to the bitter end, and he knew "the frosty sons of thunder" would stand by him. Westmoreland is overly anxious to be tacked on to some Republican district so she can forever throw off democ- racy, and her Senator and Representatives seem to think Somerset, with her 3,000 Re- publican majority, is the best county to be hitched to.

The general sentiment among Republic- ans, so far as I have tested it, is that it will be true wisdom for the Republican majority to claim neither more nor less than they de- manded during the former sessions, when the Democrats controlled the House of Rep- resentatives. Petitions are still rolling in, and so rapidly and lengthy do they come that the genial, smiling face of the good- natured transcriber—George VonBonhorst— is forced to wear a frown.

On Friday morning a special train took the appropriation committees of both Senate and House to Huntingdon, to inspect the reformatory there.

Our statesmen have most all gone home, and Harrisburg in many respects reminds one of a deserted village.

SANCO.

CONFLUENCE ITEMS

The peddler murdered in the spring of 1879 between Aibrightsville and Cranberry Summit, West Virginia, a note of which was published in the HERALD at the time, turns out to be Andrew Jackson, of New Haven, Pa. The greatest publicity was giv- en the matter at the time but nothing was learned of the name of the murdered man until recently, when it appeared in the Preston County (W. Va.) Journal.

The protracted meeting in the M E. Church is still in progress. Miss Smith was here and added much interest to the meet- ing.

J. O'Donovan Rossa don't like to take his own medicine. He may, however, now consider himself a martyr instead of a mur- derer. A little dynamite under his coat tail might rid the country of a wicked man, but the example would be worse than the rem- edy. X.

FROM SOUTHAMPTON.

This vicinity had quite a grand wedding last week, and of course, as a general thing (especially in this part of the country) every little codger large enough to keep up with the crowd, went to serenade the couple with anything they could get hold of in the "rat- tling" line. After arriving at the place and getting permission of the old gentleman, we gave them several rounds of music and ev- erything went on as merrily as a "marriage bell." But behold, instead of the couple making their appearance the groom came out in a great rage and said, "What in the h—l do you want here?" We said we want to see the bride and something to drink. He said, "I don't have to bring her out, and as to drinking, you may drink water." Of course we went home sadly disappointed.

MARRIED.

GLESSNER—STUTZMAN.—Berlin, Pa., January 25, 1885, by Rev. J. S. Wagner, Mr. Albert E. Glessner to Miss Susan M. Stutz- man, both of Stonycreek township, this county.

DIED.

The following account of the death of Mrs. Alpheus Husband is taken from the Dallas Centre Globe. It was handed us by Capt. R. J. Walter.

HUSBAND—On Tuesday morning, Janu- ary 27, 1885, at 9 o'clock, Mrs. Priscilla Husband, wife of Al. Husband, aged 39 years, and 9 months.

A postmortem examination made by Doc tors Criley and Grossman revealed the fact that her death was caused by rupture of the uterus, while in confinement, and the rup- ture was caused by the disease of the uterus.

Mr. and Mrs. Husband were married Feb. 18, 1864, and by their union eleven children have been born unto them, an d a large fam- ily of children and a husband is thus left to mourn the loss of a mother and wife.

For the past eight years, off and on, this family resided in Dallas Centre and have many warm friends here who extend their heartfelt sympathy. Mrs. Husband was a good Christian woman having been a mem- ber of the Christian Church nineteen years.

The funeral will take place to-day, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. Archer at the M. E. Church at one o'clock and the remains will be laid to rest in the Dunkard cemetery east of town.

WADSWORTH.—At Stanton's Mill, Som- erset County, Pa., February 3d, 1885, Miss Rebecca Jane Wadsworth, aged 12 years, 5 months and 12 days.

The funeral services were held in the Hopewell M. E. Church, which was full of sympathizing friends and relatives. Rev. J. C. Brodfuehrer improved the occasion by showing the duty of this life is to prepare for that life beyond the grave. The Text is found in the nineteenth Psalm, twelfth verse: "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts to wisdom."
