The morning flight being over, I fired at a duck in the bushes, and upon wading out to get it I noticed considerable commo tion among the rushes just beyond the duck, and supposed, of course, that I had killed another duck. You can imagine my astonishment when instead of a duck, I found that a two pound black bass with a No. 4 shot in its head was making the disturbance. I have seen a pigeon and a squirrel killed with the same charge, but when you get fish and fowl at the same time it simply beats the record.
