A KISS IN THE RAIN.

One stormy morn I chanced to meet A lassie in the town : Her locks were like the ripened wheat, Her laughing eyes were brown. watched her as she tripped along Till madness filled my brain, And then-and then-I knew 'twee wrong-

With rain-drops shining on her cheek Like dew drops on a rose, The little lassie strove to speak My boldness to oppose; She strove in vain, and, quivering, Her finger stole in mine; And then the birds began to sing. The sun began to shine.

I kissed her in the rain !

Oh, let the clouds grow dark above, Mp heart is light below; Tis always summer when we love, However winds may blow: And I'm as proud as any prince, All bonor I disdain ; She says I am her rain beau since
