BE A WOMAN.

Oh! I've heard a gentle mother, as the twilight hours began, pleading with her dear son, saying to him: 'Be a man. But smother'd blue-eyed daughter, with her love's wounds as ready points she on her dear duty—' 'Strive, my dear, to be a lady.'

SANDY'S DIAMOND.

"Now, Sandy, it's your turn; why don't you read? Have you lost the place?"

THE RISE IN THE VALUE OF TROTTERS.

Twenty years ago a rising publisher, full of drive, called on Mr. Geo. P. Burnham, of Boston, and was attracted by a print of horse hanging against the wall.

Grant on the Surrender.

A friend of mine, while talking of General Grant's illness, said: "The General is a wonderful man. He often speaks volumes in a single sentence."

Some Foolish People.

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, 'Oh it will wear away, and in most cases it wears them away.'

Didn't Shut the Door.

"What makes me feel so bad this time, 'uz bekase I hear sump on yonder on de bank like a whack er a slam, while ago, it in mine me ef de time I treat my little 'Lizabeth so onery. She was only 'bout 'fo' year old, in she took de look y'arlet fever, en had a powerful rough spell; but she got well, en one day she was a standin' aroun, I says to her, 'I says: 'Shet de do.'"

Eating Off Gold.

Mr. Astor's supper to twenty of her intimates friends was given Monday night, says a recent New York letter to the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Stories About Shiloh.

"The strangest experience at Shiloh," said one of the listeners at a recent sitting of veterans of the war, "was among the wounded after the battle was over."

A Prudent Father.

"Why, don't you take the daily papers 'at de house?' was asked of a miss of sixteen, who was looking up and down Howard street yesterday afternoon.

A Japanese Baby.

When Kine the little Japanese baby, was one hundred days old she was carried to the temple, just as some American parents take their little children to the church to have them christened.

How Washington Was Elected.

The following extract is from the proceedings of Congress, April 6, 1789:
The president of the Senate, elected for the purpose of counting the votes, declared to the Senate that the Senate and House of Representatives had met, and that he, in their presence, had opened and counted the votes of the electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, whereby it appears that George Washington was unanimously elected President.

Why He Objected.

"Judge Bigincome sat down to the dinner-table and after being helped, asked his wife:
"Mary, who is that frank of nature I saw in the backyard?"
"That is the new coachman I engaged this afternoon."
