MOTHER AND UNCLE JOE.

"Auntie, who are the heroes?" "Them, or don't you know?" "I looked up from my sewing."

A School Girl's Romance.

I suppose normal school girls of the present generation are not radically different from those of my day.

From New York to California by Sea.

The ships that sail from this port to San Francisco take about one hundred and twenty-five days to make the outward trip.

How Booth Passed the Pickets.

"Did you ever know how Booth passed the pickets on the bridge on the eastern branch of the Potomac?"

The Handsome Neapolitans.

They are a handsome race, these Neapolitans, and some day in the future they will be able to practice the elementary arts of the toilet.

Women in a Sleeper.

There are more hatreds engendered between women on sleeping cars than in any other place.

OLD BULLION'S BRIDE.

Let me see—where was it that I first met her? Oh, yes, it was under a supercilious arch of High Bridge, looking by moonlight.

Coloring a Meerschaum.

The most common complaint is that their meerschaums will not turn from their natural yellowish-white color to a rich brown.

Gypsy Eccentricities.

Few more fantastic scenes can be conceived than a gypsy wedding. The place usually chosen is a sand-pit.

Why He Left the Church.

A young man who had been attending a fashionable church for a year or more changed his place of worship.

A Poetic Clerk.

When Grant was in Chicago, three or four years ago, he lounged about Sheridan's headquarters a good deal.

A Startling Discovery.

Mr. Wm. Johnson, of Huron, Dak., writes that his wife had been troubled with acute Bronchitis for many years.

Never Give Up.

If you are suffering with low and depressed spirits, loss of appetite, general debility, disordered blood, weak constitution, headache, or any disease of a bilious nature, by all means procure a bottle of Electric Bitters.
