STATE.

FOR STATE TREASURER. MATTREW S QUAY, of Beaver County

FOR POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR, THEN C. BAKEON, of Somerset Township FOR JURY COMMISSIONER. IEWIN G. CUSTER, of Somersot Township

COUNTY.

the country, services and ceremonies grief at the Nation's loss.

It was not until death had claimed eral Grant as a military commander country, his desire for harmony and ing, heroic struggle with disease; his persistent effort, amid his sufferings, to complete the literary work Captain E. Blunt. for the sorrowing family and friends a that surrounded him, the unflinchfor appreciative admiration.

The Nation has paid its last, grateful tribute to the preserver of its ful tribute to the preserver longer, far longer, than the granite team of black leaders, and the eur over his last resting place. Grant them. A signal was given and the has passed into history; his fame ed off the plaza on to Broadway.
and his honor are in the keeping of The hour was 9:47. The band play-possible to make room for the par-

THE new First Assistant Postmaster General is getting in his work with a vigor that goes far to remedy the delay in turning out "offensive partisans," caused by the illness of his predecessor. The removal of the Second Division.

The Catafalque.

Representatives of the Grant Family, The Predict and Cabinet.

Public offers, the Governor of the States, in the order of their admission to the Union, and Municipal Authorities.

The Grant Aroay Post and all Vetoran Organizations, under Command of Major General M. The Third Division, Commanded by General M. T. McMahon, composed of all Circle Bodies. ages about two hundred and fifty

Dawes, John Connor and Hon. A. below:

THERE appears to be little doubt that the sale of the South Pennsylvania, to the Pennsylvania railroad company will be consumated during the present month. The courts will then be given an opportunity to decide whether the Constitution of the Calo State accords the people any rights, which the managers of the Pennsylvania railroad are bound to res-district was also removed and a Democrat appointed to his place.

Democrat appointed to his place.

This cleans up the business in this State, and places the entire collection of the revenues of the National government in the hands of the Loricature of the State, and places the entire collection of the revenues of the National government in the hands of the Loricature of the State, and places the entire collection of the revenues of the National government in the hands of the Loricature of the State of the S Societa del Fraterno Amore.

Mount McGregor, and about seven o'clock the Drexel cottage where Grant's remains were lying, was struck by lightning. The lights in the building were all extinguished by the electric bolt.

The Twenty-second and Seventh Quered under him and the army that filing to the side streets, whence to move at the word of command.

Societa del Fraterno Amore.

Receitand Fraterno Amore.

Receitand Fraterno Amore.

Receitand Fraterno Amore.

Societa del Fraterno Amore.

Receitand Fraterno Amore.

Receitand Fraterno Amore.

Societa del Fraterno Amore.

Receitand Amore.

Solwly the funeral car, drawn by six black horses with their mounthad for twe terms been the head of the procession.

First division, New York National by the electric bolt.

The Twenty-second and Seventh quered under him and the amore there to tesmove at the word of command.

Slowly the funeral car, drawn by six black horses with their mounthad for twe terms been the head of the procession.

The Twenty-second and Seventh quered under him and the amore there to tesmove at the word of command.

Slowly the funeral car, drawn by six black horses with their mountby for deed, halms a nation paid the side of the Capital or of the procession, on Fifth Avenue, below Thirty-found and selection.

The Twenty-second and Seventh Regiments of the tomb, and the sailors and th

LAID TO REST.

The Body of General Grant Placed in the Tombat Riverside.

The Casket Closed and the Pace Shut Out From Public View Forever. THE MILITARY PAGEANT

A Scene That Will Not Be Witnessed Again for Many Years If Ever.

Procession That Occupied Many Miles of New York's Streets

The Body Laid to Rest With th Services of the Crand Army Ritual.

ness and splendor was never equal- command, in clear but low tones. The 12 men stooped to the silver rails with gloved hands. "March!" case and its honored burden were Palisades. were held, marking the people's carried up and placed upon the dais After Undertaker Merritt had Paymaster George D. Bartan, Lieu- the temporary tomb.

HOW THEY STARTED.

that will be raised in stately grand- David's Island Band preceded line of coaches with clergymen moved a dirge, the tramp of the regular and honor guard beat upon the paveand crowding the sides of the square of the funeral of General Grant, we straightened into shape its forma-

Men.
The Catalague.
The Catalague.
Family.

United States Senators, 10 carriages, Members of Congress, 16 carriages, Admiral Juacete, one carriages, Commedore Chandler, one carriage, Proving Ministers, 10 carriages, Proving Ministers, 10 carriages, Proving Ministers, 10 carriages, Calonet of General Grant, 4 carriages, Estired Armo Others, 10 carriages, Entired Armo Staff, to carriages, Control Grant, Staff, to carriages, Family and relatives, seven carriages, Attenting physicians, two-carriages, Pallbearers, six carriages, General Sheridan and Staf, four carriages, of Stream War Departments, 1992 carriages, of Stream War Departments, 1992 carriages,

Internal Revenue Collector Frank
P. Case, of this district, was removed last week and John Dowlin, of Greene county, was appointed to the vacancy. The Collector of the Eric Governor of Rhode Island and Staff four car-

AT THE TOMB, a million of people crowded the was the word. The body moved, side Park that the funeral processtreets of the city and viewed in Out upon the portico were borne the sion had begun to move from the

on the mounted catafalque. The tried the two keys-one for the casveterans retired down the steps. ket and one for the outer door of the Sartoris passed to the Colonel's side The body was alone for all to view, tomb-he handed them in a bag of him, that the Nation appeared to re- but deeply guarded. The honor black velvet to Commissioner Crimguard next to the hearse on either mins, who will hand them to Gen- from the car, and when it was borne side took the same relative position eral Hancock, who will give them to into the hollow square toward the it has lost. The greatness of Gen- they had maintained to the remains Mayor Grace, who will again conwhile being borne to the car. The fide them to the care and custody of steps were drawn away from the the Park Commissioner. Scarcely has been acknowledged throughout bearse, and then Commander John-the world, but it was only to his own the world, but it was only to his own immediately behind the funeral car. It is the funeral car. It is the surface, and upon these the re-drums and the blare of trumpets ing scene was ended were heard from the lower end of A PEN-PICTURE OF THE DAY.

and plumes were waving over the such as nature rarely paints a land-conspicuous in the streets.

slope to the southward; the trap- scape with.

regiments stacked arms and were at them. And as the world had done Capitol, as did General Farnsworth had come with the train followed Guard, about 4000. The division of Veteran Guards numbered probably 1600 men. The visiting military organizations, including the New Jersey division, may be estimated at 2500. The members of the Grand Army of the Republic formed a considerable part of the procession. The New York Poets alone from other States about half that number were here. The veteran organizations not included in the ed while waiting. Three and four ranizations not included in the ed while waiting. Three and four rest.

The afternoon grew older. Theheat him honor living as the greatest of Americans, its other governments to add insent their representatives to add insent their remains out in double file. The Americans, its other governments was great. There was no sign of the was first procession. The New Jersey division, may be estimated at 2500. The members of the Capitol and the Capitol and the was fift the remains out in double file. The Americans, its other governments was great. There was no sign of the turning. The afternoon grew older. The afternoon grew older. The afternoon grew older. The afternoon grew older. The Americans, its other governments was fift and staff. Governor Hill and staff. Capitol and the Capit number were here. The veteran organizations not included in the dwhile waiting. Three and four tained probably 3000 men. The civil organizations probably numbered 20,000 men. The entire number of men in line was from 50,000 men. The line moved promptly, and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly, and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly, and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly, and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly, and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed. The line moved promptly and at 1 o'clock the catafalque passed all was still, save for the steady tramp of the marchers, the rumble of the o'clock the catafalque, and then the clergy, and then the clergy between the dark-hued ing clergy between the dark-hued ingert of the body escort, the sombre shape of the bero's coffin was tendered to the control to the strains of trumpets of the conting to the catafalque and the under the color than the cata were nodding as they advanced. When information reached River- The car stopped abreast the tomb. The guard of honor ascended to bear down the casket. Col. Beck remains. Commander Johnson im- City Hall, Quartermaster Townsend formed his two companies of escort melancholy silence the last impres- mediately at the head. Down the waved his flag from the summit of in a hollow square between the tomb sive rites paid to the Nation's hero. steps with measured tread, across the bluffs, about ten rods from the and the hearse. The family carthe open space to the steps of the open tomb of General Grant, and riage had drawn near. From the At the same time in almost every black and waiting car. Commander the dispatch-boat, Dispatch, answer- first Colonel Grant, wife and two city, village and hamlet throughout Johnson stepped aside. The silver ed the signal with a report that children alighted and passed to the mountings glistened as the burial echoed again and again along the foot of the steps of the funeral car. There they were joined by U. S. Grant, Jr., and wife, Jesse and wife and child, and Mrs. Sartoris, Mrs. and took his arm. So they stood while the casket was being removed countrymen his modesty, his domes. At his left and right, in either rear echoes again awake. Then the G. Mead, Post No. 1, of Philadel- liness of its environment. The rolltic virtues, his overwhelming love of Corner of the car, were Comrades Omaha took up the martial strain. Phia, represented by fifteen men, ing. sinuous drive rose and fell in Dowing and Primsby, of Wheeler After two minutes the Swatara did circled the casket. The Command- gentle undulations; now skirting Post, Saratoga, respectively. Next, her honors, and then the Alliance er took post at the head of the cas- around a rugged knoll of rocky, peace were known and fully ap- and right directly behind these, were fired her salute. The strains of the ket, with officers and post com- stony ground, crested with the folrepresentatives of the Loyal Legion approaching procession were faintly manders in the rear; The chaplain lage of tree and bush; then dipping abreast, as follows: General John J. audible before the final touches stood at the foot, and the colors were until the rich screens of verdure in last illness; his silent, uncomplain- Milkan, General C. A. Carleton, were put to the casket of steel and placed upod it. The ritual service the park would hide the glory of seemed to have come out to stand was then performed.

tomb and Riverside Park was the Harris then read the ritual service shine through the interstices of the Hudson on its way to the me-The dergy and physicians had scene of discomfort for waiting for burial of the Methodist Episco- emerald boughs. By this varying tropolis, going at the rate of twenty paid respect to the remains by thousands. Heat had followed the pal Church. During these ceremo-stretch of grove and sward, over the his wife, his thoughtful kindness alighting from their carriages and cool of the morning, and the succeed nies the family stood at the foot of broad gray of the road, the glitterto the car. They then entered car- and thousands of people. The lat- neral party stood General Hancock, brilliant changes of bright color, riages on either side of the plaza ter suffered much in their cramped At his elbow was President Cleve- horsemen, bandsmen and troops alpublic attention, and gave pause for West, Rev. Father Deshon, Rev. ly. Superintendent Murray estab- form were uncovered during the encontemplation, for sympathy, and Drs. Douglas, Shrady and Sands. knoll at the rear of the tomb, and Presidents Arthur and Hayes and Majestic in its calm tranquillity thence directed the great force of Senator Sherman. On the other the bread bosom of the Hudson men on duty there, and who guard- side of the casket were Admiral Por- spread its fair expanse at the base of case rested upon two marble blocks, fired three volleys toward the river. The family carriages drove away.

tion was as follows:

Commander-in-Clater Major General Hancock mains of Mrs. Grant are expected to repose. Many persons were permitted to peer within the tomb, where mand of General Shaler.

The Remainster of the Armsy Bodies under Command of General Shaler.

The Guard of rionor of Soldiers and Grand Army Men.

The Guard of rionor of Soldiers and Grand Army Men.

The Guard of rionor of Soldiers and Grand Army Men.

The Remainster of the Armsy and the Marines mitted to peer within the tomb, where by writing their names upon it. A guard of regulars was mounted at once, the military marched, the dig-Soon after 1 o'clock the beat of nitaries rode away, and the imposthe Park. A carriage came in view: With a magnificence of imposing in it was General Hancock. He was display to which the whole country alone, and stood erect. Trooping lent its aid, with ceremonies that behind him, on horseback, were the members of his staff. The General rode to a point near the tomb. As ges about two hundred and fifty

The carriage in which President close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was met by Superince close of a great career, the body of the alighted he was ers at the funeral of President Lin- carriages, containing the Vice Presi- staff swept past. There were Gencoln, twenty years ago. Of these, dent and members of the President's eral Fitzhugh Lee and General seven only are now living—General cabinet. Behind these followed a Gordon, whom General Sherman made worthy of the glory which the ed early, and all through the foreseven only are now living—General seven Green Clay Smith, Hon. Henry L. guests followed in the order named sashes of gray silk. Upon a com- the Republic was paid to him to together, it is estimated, 100,000 manding slope, 100 yards north of whom it owed so much, and with strangers in the old Duch city. General Grant's tomb, the staff offibooming artillery and the clamor of Field pieces and limbers drawn by cers and aides drew rein beneath a bells, in the presence of reverent powerful horses rolled through the clump of spreading trees.

bells, in the presence of reverent powerful horses rolled through the multitudes the dead General was streets to the Capitol Park. Mount-Meantime helmets were glistening, left to sleep amid a scene of beauty ed officers and their trappings were pings upon many horses shone in In its proportions the demonstrathe sunlight; cannons and limbers tion of national respect and honor who have immediate charge of the drawn by horses that were ridden by was colossal. Its several features by artillerymen came over the brow of their simple magnitude would have and not a little anxious to-day. The the southern slope, and orderlies made the day memorable in the jolting of the body over the cobblgalloped to and fro, and sabres and city's annals, even had they not stone pavements on its passage to accourtements clattered and rattled. been quickened by a spirit and the Capitol had no good effect. The The regulars and marines, with Light Battery F, of the Fifth Artil- It were almost idle to attempt to is said, by rubber bands. The face Light Battery F, of the Fifth Artiliery, were coming down the drive. They marched out the slope where General Hancock's Staff was halted, and there the infantry and marines assumed positions of rest in the shade and out upon the slope toward the Clermont Hotel, which was covered with black drapery. The bands, with red coats and bright trappings, rested against the knowledge of the sumbers of spectators that peopled the line of march, or of the soldiery and private citizens and means known to their craft are being employed by the embalmers and undertakers to preserve the remains in such condition as will make to the population of Manhattan Island; of the Federal and State troops and veterans whose military brillianters and the same ghastly appearance as that peopled the line of march, or of the soldiery and private citizens and means known to their craft are being employed by the embalmers and undertakers to preserve the remains in such condition as will make it both possible and proper to displant of the bands, with red coats and bright trappings, rested against the knowledge of the line of march, or of the soldiery and private citizens and means known to their craft are being employed by the embalmers and undertakers to preserve the remains in such condition as will make it both possible and proper to displant trappings, rested against the knowledge of the line of march, or of the soldiery and private citizens and means known to their craft are being employed by the embalmers and undertakers to preserve the remains in such condition as will make it both possible and proper to displant the body in New York. Those in charge say there is no doubt that the soldiery and private citizens and means known to their craft are being employed by the embalmers and undertakers to preserve the remains in such condition as will make it both possible and proper to displant the soldiery and proper to displa

DETAILS OF THE PROCESSION.

NEW YORK, August 8.—At 9:35 Governors and their staffs, the excitored colock this morning the imposing funeral car was drawn by 24 jet black horses, in black trappings. It half the Senators and members of the House of Representatives, the Governors and their staffs, the excitored colock this morning the imposing funeral car was drawn by 24 jet black horses, in black trappings. It half the Senators and members of the House of Representatives, the Sheridan were paired, while General Sherman, and Buckner and the black on either side of the car. The procession then started at a measured pace down State street to the depot amid the funeral car magnificence of the catafalque. With solemn slowness the funeral car moved into Broadway; the lines of the steps and passed into the steps and passed into the steps and chiming of bells in the steeples. Everywhere were dense men from the Brooklyn U. S. Grant On Saturday the body of General Grant was consigned to its final rest with great military pomp, and followed by thousands of mourning lowed by thousands of mourning citizens. The procession in its vastness and splendor was never equal-ness of the special splendor was never equal-ness and splendor was never equal-ness of the streets and splendor was never equal-ness the streets of the str

Until the bright sheen of leaves and grass in Riverside Park greeted the eyes of the marching troops the picture, differing only in the extent and variety of its beauty, was like other spectacles of gavly-clad military with which a great city is familiar. The march had been made up Broadway to Fourteenth street. through the street to Fifth avenue and up that proud avenue to Fifty seventh street. Here some of the organizations fell out of line and dispersed, while others, lured by the coolness of the day, kept on their way to where the coremonies were to end, though the regulations did not require it. Shortened some what in its length, but shorn of none tenant Colonel Floyd Clarkson, Lieu- From noonday on for hours into The bugle-call "Rest" was then a level where the changing tint of sweeping curve was rounded and tenant Colonel A. M. Clark, and the afternoon the vicinity of the sounded. Dr. Newman and Bishop wave shone under a burst of sun-ting from their carriages and cool of the morning and the succeed lines the lamity stood at the foot of their groups of plain, sad-faced people tinguished gathering of Englishmen ing heroism with which he looked death in the face and unshrinkingly death in the face and unshrinkingly death in the face and unshrinkingly and the face and unshrinkingly death in the face and unshrinking death in the face and unshrinkingly awaited its final summons, chained Field, Rev. Dr. Bridgeman, Rev. Dr.

ing of the cedar case into which the casket and remains of General Grant should be placed. Down the slope, nearer the vault, was a portable furnace, such as is used by workmen for heating bolts used in repairing the elevated roads. In a group near the elevated roads. In a group near the case then being performed. The station was the elevated roads. In a group near the case then being performed. The station was the elevated roads. In a group near the case then being performed. The station was the elevated roads. In a group near the case then being performed. The station was the elevated roads. In a group near the case then being performed. The station was the elevated roads. In a group near the case then being performed. The station was the elevated roads. In a group near the case then being performed. The station was the station was the elevated roads. In a group near the case then being performed. The station was the heavy atmosphere. The speed was station of the heavy atmosphere. The speed was station of West Point. Suddent in the station was the heavy atmosphere. The speed was station of West Point. Suddent in the station was the heavy atmosphere. The speed was station of West Point. Suddent in the heavy atmosphere. The speed was station of the heavy atmosph by were five men, mechanics, who maining only a few moments, then heaven. Only to the east was the the cut north of the station, and last tribute to the dead soldier. should rivet fast the steel casket within which both coffin and cedar box should be preserved. The steel ond regiments, in line on the bluff, landscape unrolled a splendor of that before the coming storm was Belletiving that a large majority of our readers will derive a mournof our readers will derive a mournful satisfaction in reading the details by the troops selected to encircle dent home to the dead soldier. Along the line of the railway before the station the cadets from West down the road regiment after regiment was deployed in double lines of blue and white and gray, relieved by the scattered bits of livelier hue from epaulette, felt or feather.

| Case rested upon two marble blocks, fired three volleys toward the river, landscape unrolled a spiendor of that before the coming storm was almost hushed. Then at 327 the property of the coming storm was almost hushed. Then at 327 the coming storm was almost hushed. The co the tomb, a cordon of color was made shown the tribute from his old stuby the troops selected to encircle dent home to the dead soldier. but were not out of sight when persons attempted to deface the tomb by writing their names upon it. A guard of regulars was mounted at once, the military marched, the dignitaries rode away, and the imposing scene was ended.

by the troops selected to encircle dent home to the dead soldier. Along the line of the railway before the station the cadets from West deceased, to wit:

A cortain tract of lend situate in Lower Tu weyfort Tay. Somerset Co. Pa. adjoining lands of the Post were near with uncovered by the scattered bits of livelier hue from epaulette, felt or feather. With muffled drums, was playing, laving thereonered a log and frame

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 5 -From the committee from New York entered their cars, General Hancock Grant family had left the building and staff were aboard, the regulars the coffin was taken into a private were quartered and the train was room, where it was opened and the ready to start. The remains were viewed in Al- powder which had been placed over bany by 773,000 persons. the features was carefully removed.

A little pilot engine left Albany Then, according to the request of

It was exactly half-past 12 o'clock al Grant's breast the decoration of when the funeral train started. At the Loyal Legion of Honor, and the instant a dirge came up to the Senior Vice Commander Johnson ears of all in the train from the fastened by its side the medal of the band of the Jackson Corps, which Grand Army of the Republic. stood in line and saluted. Hundreds Dr. G. W. Brush and Deputy Corofpersons standing nearest the tracks oner, who viewed the body officiallaid coins on the rails to have them ly, stated that it was in an excellent flattened beneath the wheels of the state of preservation, and there aptrain that carried General Grant on peared to be no tendency to decom his last journey. On the roofs of the position. houses in the vicinity hundreds witnessed the start, and as the black o'clock when the coffin, with the lid train rumbled across the long bridge removed, was again placed on the of the Hudson it was between two catafalque, and the iron gates were dense lines of people who filled the swung open and the public allowed foot-paths on either side. Across to enter. Three different guards of P. S .- Our 50-Cent Straw Hat Sale Still Continue the river were crowds of people. honor reported for duty. The shops and stores and factories had closed their doors to business, ed the remains to-night. All who work and those of leisure the river from view; again seeking with uncovered heads. The long day of last week, impressive ser- Brass and Iron Founders, Machinists, and Manufacts. the train straightened out level with

At every rural road crossing which were assembled the most disstood and watched.

Hudson was passed at 1.27 P. M. nonnced a most appropriate dis-flag was floated at half mast on all A SALUTE FROM WEST POINT. At Poughkeepsie all the railroad of the government buildings in Lonemployes and hundreds of citizens don, during the day. Against the whole array the soberer "Sweet Spirit, riear sity to one and one half story frame barn, spring house colors of civilian dress yielded an of- dued, and they blended with the and other outbuildings. Convenient to church and school. Good water. the mountains, where the storm had swept down to the flagstaff-tip that swept down to the flagstaff-tip that shot up from the trees. And all the while, at intervals of five seconds, came the sound of a gun. As the little stations seed out of sight and the strains from the head had died.

One-half cash on confirmation of sale and delivery of deed, balance in one year from day of sale with interest, 10per cent of the purchase money to he paid when the property is knocked down. Deformed payments to be secured by judgment bonen the premises. J. W. BURKHOLDER, augs. little station. seed out of sight and the strains from the band had died LEGAL NOTICE. away a view across the river disclosed bright flashes, quick belching of ed bright flashes, quick belching of smoke, and then, as soon as sound could travel, the booming of another gun smote the ear. The salute was being fired from the river shore at the foot of the bluff, which is crowned by the garrison.

The funeral train had again quickened speed, but it was overtaken by the storm, which prevailed with much force for ten minutes. Then the clouds broke, the rain ceased and the sunlight was again on the mountains. Peekskill went by at 343 p. m., Sing Sing at 4.01, Tarrytown at 4.11, Dobbs' Ferry at 4.19 and Yonkers at 4.29, where the military was drawn up at the depot and thousands were waiting. The Palice of the part of the palice of thousands were waiting. The Pali-sades were passed, and at 4.37, the LIME! black train swept around the curve and left the Hudson behind. Rain was falling on the Harlem River. At High Bridge there were few people. When the train passed the Atlanta Boat Club-house on the river the flag was dipped. The junction was rounded at 4.48, and the funeral train had made its last curve. Down through Harlem and the tunnel the decative heavy train rumbled toward the RED HOT!

After the male members of the

It was a few minutes after nine

Thirty-four thousand people view

WHILE funeral services were be ing held at Mount McGregor on Frivices were also being held in commemoration of General Grant's leath at Westminister Abbev, at course upon the life and character of our great Captain. The British

AND

STRAW AND LIGHT FELT HATS.

Which we are anxious to dispose of, being determined the season not to carry over a single dollar's worth of Summer Goods. We offer these goods at Light-weight Prices, and quest our friends to take advantage of the offer. We are a prepared to show you anything else you are in need of in way of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, at the Lowest Possible body prepared for public view. The Figures.

at 12.20, to clear the track shead of the funeral train to New York.

Then, according to the request of Col. Grant, Lieutenant Colonel the funeral train to New York.

Then, according to the request of Col. Grant, Lieutenant Colonel Floyd Clarkson placed upon Gener-

The Popular One-Price

CLOTHIERS, HATTERS and FURNISHERS

JOHNSTOWN, PA.

BOYTS, PORTER & CO.

rers of Miners' Supplies, WATER ST., OPPOSITE B. & O. DEPOT, CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

MANUFACTURERS OF THE that ever met to pay honor to the YOUCH STEAM PUMP. Every Pump fully WARRANTED

Stone Wedges. ARRIES, PIT CARS, COKE SCRAPERS, COKE BARROWS COKE OVEN FRAMES, R. R. FROGS, BRIDGE BOLTS, SWITCH STANDS, MILL GEARING, PULLEYS, AND

Heavy Castings and Porgings; Sheet-Iron Work; Machinery of all kinds built and

LOUTHER'S

DRUG

MAIN STREET, SOMERSET, PA.

This Model Drug Store is rapidly becoming a Great Favorite with Par-

FRESH AND PURE DRUGS, MEDICINES, TOILET ARTICLES. PERFUMES.

SUPPORTERS, &c. &c. THE DOCTOR GIVES PERSONAL ATTENTION TO THE COMPOUNDING OF

SPECTACLES, EYE-GLASSES

And a Full Line of Optical Goods always on hand. From such a large assortment all can be suited.

The Finest Brands of Cigars

Always on hand. It is always a pleasure to display our goods to intending purchasers, whether they buy from us or

HIVE J. M. LOUTHER. M. D.

Valuable Real Estate. CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

LIME

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 182 Pulton Street, N.

CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY AND TH

An absolute cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Pain is the Back, Burns, Galls, &c. An Instantaneous Painrelieving and Healing Remedy.