

OLD TIME CONDOLENCE.

The following is taken from the Ulster County Gazette, published at Kingston, Ulster County, by Samuel Freer & Son, on Saturday, January 4, 1880, and is believed to be the original copy.

To the President of the U. S., Sir: The Senate of the United States respectfully take leave, Sir, to express to you their deep regret for the loss of your country as sustained in the death of General George Washington.

With patriotic pride we review the life of our Washington, and compare him with those of other countries who have been pre-eminent in fame.

As a patriot and a statesman, he is distinguished before him. Greatness and guilt have too often been allied, but his fame is whiter than it is brilliant.

His name stands as a monument to the nation's glory. He has been honored by the people of his country, and his name is a source of pride to all who love their country.

His name is a source of pride to all who love their country. He has been honored by the people of his country, and his name is a source of pride to all who love their country.

The Burial Service.

Everything was now ready for the burial service. The casket was placed on a bier, and the coffin was lowered into the ground.

The casket was placed on a bier, and the coffin was lowered into the ground. The burial service was conducted with solemnity and reverence.

A War Poem.

While Longstreet was in front of Suffolk, writes Ned Bunline, pecking at us with Wright's batteries, and of coming in and wiping us out, as he would have done before we were reinforced, a report came in that he was massing a heavy force to the southeast of the lines.
