

The Somerset Herald.

Three nights of opera! Just think of it! A week has passed without a full delivery.

"Chimes of Normandy" at the Court House tonight.

The Herald is full of advertisements. Read them.

Mr. Ed. F. East and wife, of Pittsburgh, are visiting in Somerset.

The first of the season were on sale at Platt's saloon, Saturday.

Mr. John M. Tupper has been appointed postmaster at New Baltimore.

John O. Kimmel, Esq., visited Reading last week, and took in the Berks County fair.

General Coffey is having a furnace placed in the cellar of his building, wherewith to heat his law office.

The Herald job office is turning out some very large and neatly printed paper books for the Supreme Court.

A professional umpire has been engaged for the game of base ball, Saturday. There will be no kicking allowed.

The trial of the Greenlee Hospital case in the Dauphin county court has been postponed to November term.

Episcopal services were held in the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening by Rev. A. Dell, M. of Meyersdale.

Mrs. Emma Beer and Miss Mame Dill leave this week for Staunton, Virginia, where they will attend school.

Dr. James E. Bodecker left for Philadelphia Saturday afternoon to return his studies at the Jefferson Medical College.

Mr. C. N. Boyd was at attendance at the Druggists Convention at Pittsburgh last week. He returned home Monday.

Any of our readers wishing to purchase thoroughbred cattle, hogs or sheep will do well to consult the advertisement of Mr. Peter Heffley to be found elsewhere in this paper.

Mrs. Minnie Hinckman, widow of Captain James Hinckman, has decided to return to Somerset to live and has purchased Geo. W. Snyder's property on North Main Cross street.

Mrs. Woolery, wife of Elder W. H. Woolery, formerly pastor of the Disciple Church in Somerset, is at present the guest of Mrs. Elias Cunningham.

The Ferner Brothers have on exhibition at their store a tomato, raised in their garden, which measures twenty inches in circumference and weighs two and three-fourths pounds.

Outdoors, the famous Spanish steaks mentioned in the advertisement of the North American Review. His first article will be in the Progress of Democracy in Europe.

Dr. Shoemaker offers his entire stock of Dr. Cook's, Nott's, Hays and Cape, Boots and Shoes, Quinine, Wagon, Wooden ware, Groceries, etc., at less than cost. Must be sold within thirty days.

Mr. Elias Cunningham has raised the frame work of his new cottage on Patriot street and will soon have it under roof. When completed this will be one of the handsomest cottages in Somerset.

We are informed that the County Auditors and Poor Trustees, against whom information was filed by the Somerset P. R. Snyder, will call around at the proper time to take orders and measures.

Next Market—Main Street. We have added a large Refrigerator to our Meat Market in which all meats can be kept cool and clean. Mutton, Beef, Pork, etc., kept fresh and cool. Order daily. Parties having meat to be kept in the Refrigerator until wanted.

Next in the history of Somerset has there been an era in the history of clothing as you will find in J. B. Snyder & Co. Don't buy an overcoat before seeing our line. Our line is made of the best materials, carry an old coat from year to year, and try to palm them off on our customers for new goods which will sell. This fall, especially we can give you a bargain. Come and see us.

A crowd of home greeted Hester Opera Company Monday night to hear their rendition of "The Mascot." The Company is a good one, Miss Della Nicholson as Bettina and Mr. W. K. Kyle as Pippo being particularly effective. Miss Nicholson's voice is thoroughly well cultivated, but her volume. Mr. Kyle's voice seems strong, and sweet and true. The Gobbie song was particularly appreciated and loudly applauded. The funny business in the hands of Mr. Hester and Mr. Ed. F. East was very much appreciated and was generally greeted. The Company labored under great disadvantages in not having a larger stage, scenery, and particularly in the absence of a good orchestra. Tuesday night they give the "Chimes of Normandy" and Wednesday "Oliver."

RUSSIAN SCHOOL CELEBRATION AT GERMANTOWN.—According to public notice given, a large number of people from Turkeyfoot and surrounding townships assembled at Germantown on the 10th of September, and held a basket picnic. The Sunday schools participating with the school here were the Mount Union, Marlinton and Laurel schools, with great numbers of children and others from Kingwood, New Lexington, Rockwood and other places. The day was spent in the festivities of the occasion. The large assembly of several hundred people was called to order at 10 o'clock a. m., when David McVicker, Esq., was chosen President, and William Suttell, Esq., Vice President of the day, and Messrs. Simon and Levi Weisner Secretaries. Thus organized, Mr. Suttell stated that the object of the day was the celebration of our harvest home, the successful progress of our Sunday schools, and the memory of our noble ancestor, General Ulysses S. Grant, who was born on this day. ing the coming of the Lord, amid the scenes of his childhood, made doubly sacred by the memory of the sainted companion who long since entered the rest that remaineth to the people of God. The Grants can feel proud of their Somerset county kinship and of their Keystone-Philadelphia in general, and perhaps for the first time brought to their attention."
