

Our merchants are purchasing their goods for the holidays trade.

Mr. Lottie F. Kimmel, of Sharpsville, is visiting relatives in Somerset.

Hon. A. J. Colburn is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frank Beal, at Frothing.

Ice formed on the creek below town Friday night, but not of sufficient thickness for skating.

Mr. John Waterman last week broke ground for a new residence on his lot on Turkeyfoot street.

Dr. James O. Kinney returned Saturday from Philadelphia where he has been for the past six weeks.

John H. Scott, Esq., has been in Pittsburgh for the past few days, called there by important legal business.

Dr. H. S. Kimmel has commenced work on the construction of a new frame house on the corner of East and Race streets.

Another visitor of the state legislature is one of our own citizens, Mr. F. C. Phillips, of Somerset, who will be in town on Friday next.

The farmers living on Loyal Hanna creek, in Westmoreland county, are said to be considerably agitated over deposits of silver ore, found in that section.

Mr. W. H. Wood, Jeweler, has been confined to his room at the Glade House by sickness. We hope that he will soon be able to be about again.

Collector Dowlin sold at auction last Friday the copper and staves of the illicit distillers lately captured in Somerset county. The property went for a mere song. What a pity the owners were not there to bid it in.

The members of the Reformed congregation of this place are arranging to erect a new church building, early in the spring. The site of the new church is on the corner of Haines and West streets.

County Superintendent Waller paid a brief visit Saturday afternoon. He reports the county schools in a flourishing condition, and says that the coming legislature promises to be one of the most interesting ever held at this place.

Elder Peter Vogel, pastor of the Disciple congregation in this place, returned home Saturday from Ohio, where he had been for the past three weeks. He reports that he was well, as well as his many other friends, who were glad to welcome him home.

Meess Jack and George Pitt, last week were arrested by Wm. Armstrong's meat market on main street. Both young men have had considerable experience in the butchering business and we have no doubt will receive a liberal patronage from our citizens.

A medical paper is responsible for the assertion that every farmer wears out, on the average, two wives and a half during his lifetime. This is a rough statement, and may not be borne out by the facts, but it is not likely to be the opinion of our farmers.

Mrs. Jacob Brulaker, died on last Thursday morning at the same afternoon her sister, Mrs. David Rodgers, passed away. Both of these good ladies were residents of Shade township, and were much loved and respected. Mrs. Brulaker has been ill for nearly a year, and her death was not unexpected.

Mr. Robert N. Williams, of Philadelphia, was married in the Episcopal Church at York, Pa., on October 29th, to Mrs. George Williams, of the same place. The bride, daughter of Mr. Wm. C. Williams, of York, is well known to many of the people of Somerset county, who will join in wishing him joy in his new departure.

The Meyersdale Commercial is so accustomed to making false statements to its readers, particularly about matters political, that it seems to be unable to even publish a correct tabulation of the official vote of the late election. For instance, it gives the result as follows: For the Democratic ticket, 186. This was probably done for the purpose of making its readers believe that Barry's vote here was much larger than Barry's.

Mr. William Rodgers, of Shade township, met with a serious accident last week, that may leave him crippled for some time to come. One of his young boys ran into the folding gang, and in attempting to get it open, Mr. Rodgers brought his stomach to a considerable injury, which he is still suffering. Medical aid was summoned and he is now able to about, although very feeble.

We have received from the publisher, John R. Alden, of New York, through Wm. H. Welfley, the local bookseller, a copy of Charles Lamb's Essays of Elia. The work is so well known to nearly every one in this section of our county, that we will not describe it at length.

Notice has come out from headquarters at Baltimore that after December 1st Mr. E. E. Paterson's title will be General Agent of the Parkersburg, Chillicothe and Cincinnati Railroad, with headquarters at Chillicothe, Ohio. This is a new division of the Baltimore and Ohio, and only recently put in operation. Mr. Paterson's present position, Traveling Agent of the Pittsburgh Division, will be filled by his father, John W. Patton. The best wishes of a host of friends in South-western Pennsylvania will go with friend "Pat" to his new field of labor.

A Temperance Institute was held on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 10th and 11th at Trivona, conducted by Mrs. L. M. Wells, of Indianapolis. The leading feature of the institute was the very readable and profitable instruction given by Mrs. Wells to the County Superintendents of the different departments of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Wells delivered two of her popular lectures, "The Social Evil," and "The Moral Right to Refuse to Drink," which were highly appreciated by large audiences. The Delegates attending this meeting were most hospitably entertained by the good people of Trivona.

A Christian Conference will be held at the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 24th and 25th, 1886. Morning, afternoon and evening sessions. The speakers will be Rev. A. B. Simpson and Dr. John Cookman, New York City; Rev. H. W. Brown, Chicago, Mrs. M. Baxter, London, England; Mrs. E. Strouth Smith, Liverpool, England; Mrs. J. J. Bull, Buffalo, Mrs. S. G. Beck, Philadelphia. All who desire a deeper spiritual life, a special attention to the teachings of the Bible, and to understand better the teachings of the Scriptures respecting our physical life in Christ, are invited to attend. COMMITTEE—Rev. James A. Greig, Geo. S. Rice, John A. Best, Miss Mar Moorhead, Mrs. A. G. Beck.

Who advertised several lines of about a few days ago, headed "The Mystery Solver," did not think that one of our readers would be so kind as to write him and tell him that he was not a lawyer, and that he was not a detective, and that he was not a solver of mysteries.

Wednesday evening, J. DeWitt Miller, of Philadelphia, whose lecture on "Love, Courtesy and Marriage," is highly spoken of by the press, will either deliver it or his son, one of the "Fives of Light," on Thursday evening in this place. The lecture is so entertaining as to be furnished by the popular concert singers, Messrs. Siders, and Prof. Education of C. F. Underhill, of New York.

If all this array of talent fail to furnish the teachers of Somerset county a week's instruction and pleasure they will have to be very hard to please indeed.

To SCHOOL DIRECTORS AND TEACHERS—The Superintendent of Public Instruction wishes a report from each County Superintendent of the results of Arbor day work for 1886. In order that it may be the proper data from which to make a report I would be pleased to receive by December 1, from any persons connected with the schools of the county a statement of the number of trees planted by them in that year.

I also desire to receive upon exhibition at the County Institute sample copies of school work of any of the Common School branches, such as exercises in spelling, diagrams in grammar, problems in arithmetic, specimens of penmanship, drawings or any other matter which you may think of interest to teachers and friends of education.

A committee will be appointed to judge of the merits of the work. The district, name and age of the pupil should be written on the work. We hope you will be able to send the best goods for the least money, and that you will be able to win some of our prizes.

Very Respectfully,
J. C. WELLES,
County Sup't.

THEY MEAN BUSINESS—The liquor dealers are evidently preparing to meet the Prohibitionists half way in the next fight that comes off before the legislature upon the liquor question. Fred Schmidt, of Pittsburgh, has sent copies of the following circular to the saloon and hotel keepers of Western Pennsylvania. Many copies have been received in this county. Our good looking would be competitor will please mark this.

We will now bid our uniform in price, cloth, and should be over taken in again. It is not our intention to sell to you, but it will not have a dummy to contend with, but one that is up to the times, and has his pedigree from the beginning of his business career to the present day.
