

TRUST.

I tried to say only what I believed. As he lay on my breast to die...

NONA'S OBEDIENCE.

A lovely afternoon in the spring, when the balmy air and the fresh light...

Philip Hays stood at his office door, thoughtfully pulling on his neatly fitting gloves...

But he knew of a far better reason why, if what he would have acknowledged it, too...

Well, after this, for a couple of weeks, there was no hesitating at the office door...

But as the weather grew hotter, the subjects of summer resorts became uppermost...

To tell the truth, she did wish she was a little more stylish, and would put up her curls...

"I thought you liked me just as I am, Philip. What is wrong in the city that is proper and pretty in the country, you tell me..."

"Certainly, Nona. Your loose flowing hair and short dresses, and your frank, familiar ways, all so perfectly charming just here, would occasion remarks and unjust criticism in the city..."

New Railroad Ties.

"That is a railroad tie." It was of the regular size and polished as smoothly as a piece of Italian marble...

"This," said he, as he patted the railroad tie lovingly, "is the result of years of labor, and I believe that it is perfect. It is made of paper, which I believe is to enter to a large extent in all kinds of operations..."

"The paper used is generally made of straw, though almost any kind of fibre will do as well, because it is prepared because it can be easily obtained and the supply is unlimited..."

School children are causing revolution in their houses of late, and because their teachers are getting up so many new fangled ideas, and the parents not being up to snuff...

Did you know the end, Philip? Did not like the fashionable Nona at all; his whole heart cried out for the sweet, natural girl that he had never prized enough...

Gen. Stevenson recalled the following incident of the war. He said that in his command was a very devout and energetic disciplinarian, exceedingly earnest in regard to the spiritual welfare of the soldiers...

Woman's Rights. Silas is a country character, who means well. He tries to earn a living and "inkers around" at odd jobs and chores...

An Ancient Mexican Village.

One of the most interesting places in Mexico is the old town of Zintanaco, only twenty miles from Mexico by the main highway...

"The Captain of the steamship, Southern Cross, which arrived at Anckland on the 10th, reports having felt at sea the effect of the disturbances..."

Hay Fever Sufferers. The number of people annually afflicted with this most annoying malady seems to be greatly on the increase...

Is Lager-Beer an Intoxicant? A stone-cutter, whose office adjoined his stone-yard, was seated in his office when a friend called upon him...

Baptism by Military Order. Gen. Stevenson recalled the following incident of the war. He said that in his command was a very devout and energetic disciplinarian...

Two heads are better than one—in a frank in a dime tinusum.
