to notify us when subscribers do not take out their paper will be held responsible for the subscripsubscribers removing from one pentoffice to ar other should give us the name of the former as well as the present office. Address THE SOMEWEST HERALD,

SOMERSET, PA. LA O'CHASHR F. J. O'CHSSON O CONNOR BROS., ATTORNEYS AT LAW, dices in Sanstract, Pa, and on Franklin street, provents the Postodies, Johnstown, Pa.

FRED. W. BIESECKER. once in Cook & Peccins' Block, up stairs G EORGE R. SCULL, ATTORNEY AT AW, Somerset, Pa.

JOHN R. SCOTT, ATTORNEY AT LAW, STREET, PA. F. J. KOOSKE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Sometset, Pa.

H. S. ENDSLEY, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Some Part Part S. U. TRENT, ATTORNEY ATTAW, Somerset, Pa.

J. PRITTS, ATTURNEY-AT-LAW, on on Somerset County Batik. H. I. BAER. ATTORNEY AT-LAW.

A. H. CLEVIOTE. COFFROTH & RUPPEL,

WM H. KOONTZ, ATTORINGS AT-LAW, Somewel, Pa.,

DENNIS MEYERS, ATTORNEY AT-LAW, Signature outrasted to his core will be come to a trappose and idelity. Office to a Street next door to a R. Sayster &

TOHN O. KIMMEL. ATTORNEY AT-LAW Summer, Pa.

If attend to all business entracted to his care a rest and adjoining essenties, with promptonal pointry, office on Main Cross Street, Philory book Store.

AMES L. PUGH, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. e in Marumoth Block, up stairs. Entrane n Cross Spect. Collections made, estates miles examined, and all legal business at-to with promptures and felelity.

LBORN & COLBORN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

ENRY, F. SCHELL ATTOENEY-AT-LAW. R. B. Schell & Co., Somerset, Pa. ALENTINE HAY,

IN H. UHL.

Money attend to all husiness entrusted Money advanced on collections. Ar. Of PRESERVAN AND SURGEON. his professional services to the citizens of and vicinity. Office in Post Office East of Interests!

H. S. KIMMELL

BRUBAKER

VM. RAUCH

W. BLOUGH.

TRIC PRYSICIAN AND SUBGEON.

M LOUTHER SICIAN AND ST

DR. J. K. MILLER

is all the more appreciated. These pills are among the best made. They are not a patent Somerset County Bank. stock of Drugs in the county. Goods the best (ESTAULISHED BELL

C. J. HARRISON. M. J. PRITTS. PROBLEMS. offertions made in all parts of the United States. CHARGES MODERATE.

Parties wishing to send money West can be accommodated by draft on New York in any sum. Vilections made with promptiones. U. S. Bonds-such and with Money and valuables secured of one of Distabil's celebrated sides, with a Survival & Yale $500 time lock.

ACCOUNTS SOLICITED.

CURTIS K. GROVE. SOMERSET. PA.

SPRING WAGGING. RECK WAGGINS. AND EASTERN AND WESTERN WORK Furnished on Short Notice.

Painting Done on Short Time My work is made out of Thoroughly Sensoned Wood and the Best Iran smel Stef. Substautially ructed, Nearly Philished, and

Warranted to give Satisfaction Repairing of All Kinds in My Line Done on Shirt Notice. Prices REASONABLE, and

All Work Warranted.

Call and Examine my stock, and Learn was do Wagne work, and furnish Serves for Windshills. Remember the place, and call in.

CURTISK GROVE (East of Court House)

The Somerset Herald

ESTABLISHED 1827.

VOL. XXXV. NO. 20.

A STARTLING FACT.

diseased condition or imperfect action of the kidneys and liver; therefore a remely which cures the resulting disease must have found and smitten the first cause.

stances and regulating their action. Taken in connection with Athlophoros Pills this is, without exception, the most valuable kidney and liver remody in the world, and will cure a large proportion of those wao have these diseases.

Copake Iron Works, Copake, N. Y.

For the last five years I have been sub-ject to severe attacks of rheumatism which and I requested him to call the doctor

but he said he had heard of a new remedy for rheumatism called Athlophoros and advised me to try it. I did and you can imagine my surprise, was relieved of all

COOK STOVES

ALWAYS SATISFACTORY.

EIGHTEEN SIZES AND KINDS.

All Purchasers can be Suited

I. A. SHEPHERD & CO. BALTO. MD.

AND FOR SILE BY

Eaton & Bros.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

SPRING AND SUMMER, 1886.

EVERY DAY SPECIALTIES

on orders by Mail attended to with Promotos

AN OPEN LETTER.

Mn. C. N. Boxp. Songerer, Pa.

Dear Sir:—In testifying to the merits your Mandrake Liver Pills, words fall me

Yours, C. L. DELAUTER.

C. N. BOYD.

FOR SALE

BY THE

Gallon and Larger Quantity.

SOMEESET, PA.

MANUFACTURED BY

L. H. PATTERSON.

SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1886.

THE COUNTRY OF DICKERY candidate's voice reached far up and down portance of the tariff, the sacredness of sive allusion to a Democratic candidate, by packed humanity, which parted reluc- ed the place of review before nightfall with yellow fever. The first mate and would result in the return of the Republican party to the administration of the Government. He said he appreciated the look of expectancy which he saw upon every face, and would curtail his own remarks in order that the honored guest of the evening might be seen and heard without further delay. Bidding Republicans "God-speed" in their efforts, and with the reiteration that to win now was to win in Pennsylvania the campaign of Cheers for Beaver and cries for Blaine. a little stir on the platform, and with barat the front railing, a smile upon his lips, again and again the volume of vocal greeting swelled up and down the street. Senator Camero s, standing at the rear of the were ready to toss up his hat and cheer,

BLAINE TELLS WHAT REOUGHT HIM.

Grand Ovation to the Maine Statesman tumultuous approbation, the immense crowd meanwhile swaying to and fro and

gent came from Democratic Gettysburg. Gentlemen, it is impossible for me to When we find ourselves girt about on all where the Black boom unaggressively rests | make an argument before this vast assem-As ausk drew on the Harrisburg streets semblage is itself a greater argument than realize that, outside of and beyond our As an all the stone of the ston began to glow with red fire and bands any that means that the Union, the enemics of this great cause which had so far decorated his cost tapet which had so were blaring bruzen music at every cor-ner. The place selected for the meeting people of Pennsylvania are awake to the are as setive and determined. I be seech ter that he remained on the ground pour-ter that he remained on the ground pourner. The place selected for the meeting impending issue. It evinces that the peoform not to stand still on that November ing forth from his exhaustless store a were received. intersection of Third and Market streets. ple intend to maintain the State in her day, nor to allow yourself to be deceived In front of the Lochiel Hotel a stand had position and that, as in the past, they in- by a false confidence that your votes are ens that held the little knot of his listenbeen erected for the speakers all covered with bunting and blazing with electric that single expression, and with renewed 50,000 unjority for this guilant standard lights. As early as 7 o'clock two-thirds thanks for the unparalleled welcome you bearer of your State. [Cheers'] If it would of Harrisburg's population of 60,000 were have given me, I commend you to your otherwise be 50,000 majority, it is worth in the streets, and by 7:30 most of them. duty on the first Tuesday of November: while for Lancaster County to make it Blaine walked through the house, looked coming was attended by some sacrifices, reinforced by 5,000 visitors, had filled elect General Beaver, elect four-fifths of 60,000 [Prolonged cheering] Market street for a block in each direc.

The delegation in Congress, elect a Re
I was somewhat fwitted on my way to stream of anecdote, personal and kindly, places. They were joined in these very men were nearly lifted off their feet be at the historic furniture and set another men were nearly lifted off their feet be abroad were heavily fined for suggesting. Market street for a block in each direction from the speakers' stand in one solid publican Legislature that shall send a publican legis tion from the speakers stand in one solid mass from curb to curb. Twenty-five United States Senator to sustain Republishers that I was coming here to cessor of Lincoln. Then the party were men and children of all ages and condiscrete process. thousand people are a good many, but at can principles and the protection of Amerthousand people are a good many, but at least that many were in sight from the least industries, and you will have dis-least that many were in sight from the least industries, and you will have dis-in which I had no business to take part. Cemetery and visited the graves of Bn. until at 11 o'clock the principal streets least that many were in sight from the stand, and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty which your sister Research and the sea of faces stretched away charged that duty wh stand, and the set of faces stretched away in every direction until their uneasy, publican States expect of you and which believers in "State's rights." [merriment] first speaker of the National House of Some persons who professed to be judges

RETIRENG AMID CHEERS.

made a second brief address.

Mr. Blaine said: Mr. Chairman and was his townsman. It was my privilege to serve for many years in Congress with Mr. Stevens; and I desire here to testify to my conviction that, for acuteness of intellect for breadth of comprehension. for a knowledge of all the details of legislation and for the courage and compass of statesmanship, he had no equal in the Congress of the United States. [Tumultuous cheering.] With my recollections of what we then were as a people, I could if I would forbear contrasting our nation-patriotic Pennsylvanian, you should give farewell." Major Munama, the tall and white-struggling under a Democratic policy.

REPUBLICAN POLICY ATTACKED. My friends, the great policy is on trial before the peole of the United States, and I come from a Protection State to a Protection State and to the great agricultural ounty of that State, with its magnificent majority, to remind you that that policy is in peril; that it is attacked by the tremendous power of a National Administration, and to ask that when the gallant representative and embodiment of that principal, General Beaver, shall come before you for your suffrages on the first Tuesday of November, no, Lancaster home. [Applause!] A county that can red by some extraordinary excitement.

expressing my just appreciation of their good and distance.

I came here to urge you to do. I bid you but the fact is that even, though acception advanced by the strict construction advanced by the strict const sent a great wave of noise rolling over the to his Lochiel home to spend the night local questions for you with which I have Susquehanna into Cumberland county, Mr. Blaine, Celonel Snowden and Charles no concern, is in its larger and grander

PENNSYLVANIA THE LEADER. front of the Lochiel Hotel, and echoing Lancaster, Oct. 18.—As the train drew I want you to have regard for the Re- eager to catch a glimpse of the visitor. The cause was soon apparent. Follow- cheek, and her embarrassment increased apart and hold them by a small gold bar. out into the darkness. If it was a great volume of sound it was also a scene most tions of the cheers that marked the earastounding—those square acres of up- lier part of the journey. The train again bravest and boldest leader has imposed difficulty, and a hearty cheer followed carriage drawn by four horses. In it "But permit me to pay your fare," re- together, but still not united, and are thus turned faces, tossing arms, brandished stopped below the regular station, the upon him a fearful responsibility. He him as he was whirled away. hats, solid, save where parted into a nar-meeting having been arranged to take must live up to his reputation. In this A brief visit to the Lancaster Cemetery Chairman Jones, of the Republican Narow lane through which the hero-laden place in McGran's Park, where the count industrial contest which has been waged where Mr. Blaine looked at the graves of tional Committee, and C. L. Magee, of I can return the money I will consent." carriage slowly rolled, with the long pro- ty fairs are held. The Central and the so long and fought with such bitterness General Reynolds, the hero of Gettys- the Pittsburgh Trans. "There's Blaine!" cession behind-a train of glistening hel- Young Men's Republican Clubs acted as at times, Pennsylvania, the old Keystone burg's first day, and of his brother, Ad- "There's the next President!" "Make The conductor came along and Mr. some people put on airs, and step around mets, nodding white plumes, beating an escort, the visitors passing again of the Union has been the bravest and miral Reynolds, finished the drive and way for the Pennsylvanian from Maine!" Bowers dropped the additional nickie in as though they weighed a ton. frums and blaring brass, fire, smoke, un- through lines of cheering men. A crowd boldest of leaders. I want you to under- the carriage was then turned toward the "And Beaver, the next Governor!" his hand. which I will retail by the gallon, or in larger dulating steps and arching rockets. Five, of eight or nine thousand, comprising stand and to feel that upon you, by rea- waiting train. It was already 4 o'clock. "There's a good team!" and a hundred "I am ever so much obliged," said the The Lebigh Valley Railroad has adoptten minutes went by, while the marching many ladies, gathered on the grounds sor of that very fact, is imposed a duty the scheduled time for departing, when similar expressions, greeted the occupants pretty miss. Now, will you give me ed the Phelps system of telegraphy, line filed past the hotel and still the and in the grand stand of the park. As and a responsibility beyond and above the carriages reached the little crossing of the carriage all along the route. Along your card?" Store room at my house on West Nain Street, Pa.

Store room at my house on West Nain Street, Cheering never slackened. The crowd we Blaine and the veteran whose name that which is imposed upon any other near the fair grounds where the special Fifth avenue it was wilest, but from the Cards were exchanged, and the next to offices along the line. heads the Republican ticket came out state. We will start behind you if you train was writing with hissing engine. Monongabela House to the stand from morning a messenger entered Mr. Bowers and currents, and then rolled back upon itself as the carriage with Blaine and for the speakers this great throng rose as a single individual and cheered again Therefore do not neglect this election, deed, it was difficult for him to embark ous as to compel recognition. In conseand again. Francis Shroder, the manu- Elect as your governor the man who at all. Through a rear door, through the crowd that jammed the hotel to bursting, the trained quiet of a business man, he issue for which Republicans have fought threatened parade that jammed the hotel to bursting, the trained quiet of a business man, he issue for which Republicans have fought threatened parade the only intermission being the time or soon ripened into a friendship and termination to bursting. through an open window and out into in a few words presented Mr. Blaine to so long, but a record of personal heroism waved his handkerchief as the train move cupied in crossing the bridge to Alleghe minuted as above related, and the bridge lips another outburst of applause shook eral Beaver and the latter advanced to. Days and weeks passed, and the ship the air. Three cheers for the next presi- the front the reception was of a character continued on her journey. Being so dent" and three cheers "for the next gov- to make any man proud. At each telling light-handed the vessel could not be Blaine waved his hand at the crowd for United States amounted to $7,000,000,000 and as he came forward, walking by the ernor followed the train with a gust of point made by General Beaver the ap-Four years later, upon the advent of the aid of the well-known crutches, he was sound as it pulled sowly out, with Mr. Blaine on the rear platform waving his his argument was followed, and his elo- slow. After many weary, dreary months handkerchief until a curve hid the quent perocation brought forth cheer after the Captain regained his reason, and throng from view.

VISITING STEVENS GRAVE.

A COLUMN CHEM REPORTED that school, your election does present a While driving back through the city an Senator. Therefore your pending elec answered one of the party. "Brinton, down Fifth avenue and across the Alletwenty thousand more took it up and Senator Cameron took back with him tion, if in some of its features it settles why I know Brinton. He's an old class- gheny river like a mighty wave. The blocked with men women and children drown every other sound.

speak you enforce his silence. But in so wiser counsels, the value of property in that he had been speaking almost twice THE STATE OF ALLEGHENY CHOWAS THE far as this magnificent demonstration is the United States rapidly increased, until each day for three weeks and had two GLORY OF BLAINE AND BEAVER'S TOUR. Chairman Magee was hardly able to declared that, had be been placed in the ion of your distinguished candidate for of both the great parties to exceed 850, they would not be was sure, expect much who ran about the streets of Pittsburgh governor, I thank you from the bottom 000,000,000. The figures I have stated of a speech from him. He could not, yesterday are grandfathers they will of my heart. [Three cheers for Blaine.] may be taken as fairly indicative of the however refrain from acknowledging the talk about "the time Ex-Senator chosstate, I am at home here wherever I take under Protection. In the eventful revos siderations urged by Pennsylvania's ilmy hat off. [An uproar of good humor.] Intion to which I refer, which changed justifious son, the distinguished guest from were at Exposition Park, away back in I owe to Pennsylvania a debt of gratitude the industrial policy of the nation, the Maine, another that should appeal to the 1886," in very much the same strain that so great that it is only equaled by my advoice of Lancaster County, as uttered by Republicans to do their utmost now was the old residents of to-day tell of the miration for your—no, I would say for her distinguished representative, was inthe fact that the pending contest was subgreat Harrison demonstration in 1840
the but the hats, canes, umbredies and shouts one bright day in the sammer the ship my—illustrious Commonwealth. [Great | fluential in the Congress of the United | stantially and really the skirmish line | and those of middle age relate the won-States to a degree which is beyond the for the coming presidential battle. Penn- ders of the Soidiers and Sailors Reunion I claim a birthright in her soil, and a scope of my ability to state. So that it is sylvania, therefore, should give to the and reception to General Grant in 1868. share in the grandeur of her achieve- but proper that we of New England and world a verdict that could not be miscon- And the old men that are to be will proveked another demonstration, more ments. If I came here upon any specific the people of all other sections of the struct. Referring to the great popular have the satisfaction of being able to conerrand it was to impress upon the Republicountry who seek to express their apoutpouring on the present occasion, he clude the recital with the truthful statethat, making due allowance for the growth of the country in 46 and 18 years. hold, as she has so long held, her place at State to which our and their thanks are edly be the great standard bearer of 1888. the coming of Blaine and Beaver to and in the future, as she has so glorious- sylvania, we must come to the country bearers to see that Lancaster county gave popular enthusiasm and had been ated them for their warm reception and cither of the events which had long stood as land marks in Western Pennsylvania's

Mr. Blaine had not appeared before and the people were cheering at the race the public of Pittsburgh since 1876. he would speak in this city on the 20th turned from the grand stand he entered inst, the Republicans of Pittsburgh and a waiting carriage, in which Chairman vicinity resolved, without the formality Cooper, Lewis Hartman, J. Hay Brown of a meeting, that they would unite to do him honor. When it became known was quickly whirled through Lancaster that General Beaver would accompany to the grave of Thad. Stevens. Theillus the Main statesman the enthusiasm was

That it did not burn out in advance, By the time Mr. Blaine concluded the was shown yesterday by the streets crowd was wild. The minute he turned this was the only graveyard in Lancaster crowded as they have only been crowd- to take his seat there was a rush for the ed on rare occasions; by the column of stars. Colonel A. Louden Snowden was men and wagons that followed Chief presented and commenced to speak, but Marshal Laughlin; by the thousands of the people would have nothing but faces that surrounded the speakers' stand | Rhaine | They forced Colonel Snowden to blage, but let me say to you that this as us and act with us, it is difficult for us to brief inscriptions and then he laid upon at Exposition Park; the thousands of cut his remarks short, piled pell-mell exporting the prepared salts and the wavoices that shouted until their owners over the railing and nearly tore Mr.

The city was awake long before the Chairman Mages saw it would be imposs shipped its "sprudel," but then only to the shadows were fairly dispersed the mile out of town to "Wheatland," the cession began to fill up. The first arrivals mile out of fown to "Wheatland, the outlying districts. Their after should went up-hourser than the days was given as a present, and the resold residence of Buchanan. There Mr. were from the outlying districts. Their first of the day, but still of great volume cipients made the town a present in reat the historic furniture and let another and they were determined to have good meddle in the local affairs of your State, carried to nicturesune Woodward Hill tions. These were reinforced by others, said the number was 100,000. Others more under a peculiar circumstance has cial arrangement was fixed upon, which 300,000 was a reasonable figure. HAIL TO THE LEADERS! a rapid rate, and had just passed the was slight at first, but soon became vio-He stopped the carriage, jumped to the lows that men who had been holding to lege fellow. They had not talked togeth- other motive than curiosity, were impell> were sented Mr. Blaine, General Beaver, quested the gentleman. quence Mr. Blaine and General Beaver of Miss Thursfield. Correspondence fol-

WHOLE NO. 1841.

struggle that gave a new existence and as it is impracticable for me to shake ed the park shortly before 2 o'clock, ed out a route to San Francisco. She glorious future to the republic; with all hands with each one of you, I must take They were seen in the distance and al. then practically took command of the the inspirations that can come from a the will for the deed. I am no longer a though they ascended to the stage from vessel and ordered the second mate and generation of progress never parallelest stranger in Lancaster and I shall remean the rear and could not be seen from the surviving members of the crew to make to any state or country; by every worthy ber this occasion with pleasure the long-grand stand they were greeted with a sail, and gave them the direction in which motive that should stir the heart of a est day of my life. I bid you a cordial mighty shout. This was repeated as they to sail. Every day for mouths sne would took their seats. When C. L. Magee as be carried on deck to take the sun and to-day. At that time this country was your vote to James A. Beaver. [Long As the last words fell from Mr. Blaine's chairman of the meeting introduced tien. give her orders. plause was general, showing how closely little sail, consequently her progress was

"BLAINE! BLAINE!" Pressurage, Oct. 20.—When the boys say: "I now have the honor to present same position, he could not have done flowers filled into a large "horn of pienty" sailing into San Francisco bay. were lifted over the rail of the stage. This Supplying a Missing Key-Hole.

Finally Mr. Blaine was permitted to with his hiccoughs as he struggled home swell the refmin.

"Hurrah for Powderly!"

"Yes; three cheers for Powderly!" own door. but the choose as lustily as he velled on was to torment his preceptors. It was noticed, too, that every one of the digni- in a new one; I've got to get my key into fied vice presidents joined in the erv.

The Romance of a Nickel. A romantic courtship begun in Balti- main at home, that the regular commerbecame angry if less than 200,000 was ended in a happy marriage in Richmond, thirty years later gave place to farming suggested, and not a few were certain that Va., writes a Baltimore correspondent of the St. Louis Globs, Democrat. The bride is Miss Blunche Thursfield and the groom is Mr. Thomas Bowers, now a merchant plush sewn on to a coarse back in fine afternoon last June Mr. Bowers boarded join, and the braid is edged with timed an uptown Madison Avenue car, and attracted Mr. Blaine's attention, and he at the foot of Smithfield street; extennoon paper. Presently a handsome side him. He glanced at the new and farmers to postpone their fell work. pretty passenger, and as he looked at the Many have done no plowing, and some noti ed the young lady draw her hand mate of mine," exclaimed Mr. Blaine. effect of the first outburst was so contagfrom her pocket and a blush mantle ber fields are dry, dairymen are short in their cheek. He saw that she had forgotten milk supply, and butter sells for 45 cents ground and grasped the hand of his collamp-posts for five hours, actuated by no her purse, and as she was in the act of a pound. lege fellow. They had not taken together some control of the street was ed to add their voices in the effort to be politely asked her if he could be of any service. The flush again rose to her to divide the ring and bend the cut ends

If you will give me your card so that were kept busy bowing from side to side, lowed, and the acquaintance thus formed threatened parade of 120,000 Socialists of TEMPEST-TOSSED.

Story of a Vessel that Drifted Two Years on the Ocean.

of the bark Kalakus, now loading lumber at Fort Blakely for the West coust of South America, will be remembered as the commander who brought the ship Templar from New York to Sam Francisco a few years ago on one of the most remarkable passages on record. After being out for some time the Captain went into a foreign port, and for some reason his crew, excepting the officers, left. Finally two English ships came in, and from them Captain Armstrong made up a new crew, and after being out firty days the entire crew, including the Captain and his daughter, were taken down drifted about without pilot or mavigator for more than a year. The Captain for the deck to keep him from jumping overboard. He wears the sears from the Blaine's uncle. Mr. Ewing celebrated did. She then sent for her father's in-when he learned of what his daughter had done he was greatly surprised and the man who is to-day first in the hearts better. The ship was loaded with generof all Republicans," when 20,000 hats went all merchandise, the cargo being insured off and 20,000 voices answered, "Blaine, for over $200,000. The long absence of Blaine l' As the Plumed Knight step. the ship and no tidings from her led the and canes and umbrellas were swung lieve that she, with all bands on board over the heads of their owners and the had been lost. Imagine their surprise cry was repeated. Mr. Blaine bowed his after the supposed fate of the ship had closed his mouth. At that instant cut Templar, with her cargo all intact, came licans of Pennsylvania the great duty preciation of the worth of the public men expressed his gratitude for the magnifiment that the old-time and middle-aged speak. His voice was hourse and did not by daylight up the steep sides of Sutter carry half as far as usual, but when those street. The cars had begun running but quently, the whole assemblage belied to be had missed the list car long ago, and When he spoke of the condition of the | was over and to-day had come. To him black laborers of the South and praised no cars ran after 1240 o'clock, and it had tended by more notable incidents than the Knights of Labor for their effort to been 12-40 o'clock for hours. These must affecting their condition, Mr. Blaine be some other cars. He was surprised touched a popular chord. For a little to see a good many people coming down time it seemed that the shouting would town, and in trying to puzzle out what go on until night. When the first burst was up he gradually reached home. A had subsided somewhat somebody shout- stray policeman who had been left out defiance of danger ran. He found the inebriated gentleman firing through his

"Hello! What are you doing ?"

"Thatsh all right: you lem'me alone. "What are you firing at?"

Noted Mineral Springs.

clared the meeting at an end. Then the jul favor, for which a permission of the rowd let itself loose once more. Shout court was necessary. The water in those and there was another rush for Blaine turn, while those citizens who clandes and Beaver. The distinguished gentle- tinely received and executed orders from struggle with those of the inhabitants who fesced that the expectation of these

> This putchwork edges table-covers and starfs, valances, brackets, and is exquisitely effective in a well-lighted room.

quite typical of engagements. weigh about twenty-four pounds, and yet.

which sends messages from moving trains

It doesn't make any difference to you

The ties formed at sociables sometimes leads to matrimonial knots. A cool baseball player-The ice pitcher.

A fire-place has a grate opportunity.

EUGGIES, SDEDURS, CARRIAGES,

SWITHIN C. SHORTLIDGE'S ACADEMY, FOR YOUNG MEN AND BOY'S MEDIA PA 12 miles from Philadelphila Fixed price covers overy experime, even looks, &c. No extra charges. No incidental ex-

It is not commonly known that a large proportion of the rhoumatism and neu-ralgia extant is traceable directly to the DOE.

We floated away in a cool cance. And off by banks where the nonnies grow We sailed for the land of Dickery Doe. Many persons using Athlophoros for rhaumatism and neuralgia have been surprised to find that chronic disorders of the liver and kidneys have also been To and fro.

Land of gleams And fanciful dreams. greatly relieved and they have written for an explanation. The fact is, that the remedy acts directly on these organs, cleansing these from all irritating sol-Oh, a beautiful country is Dickery Doe The clouds are low and the trees go by, There's a breeze in the air and a sign from the

And balo, dear balo, is going to sleep Sleep, sleep, Going to sleep, Then the eyes ope in a lasy peep : Then for awhile Dreams are confused in a mazy heap, would cause me the most excraciating pain Clasp her close, you shadows of eye : in my chest; was obliged to put myself under the doctor's care for two or three Light and shade in her future weave. Shade to soften the glare of the light. months at a time, and even then it was almost impossible to get any relief. The last time I was taken my son was at home. Light to render the shade more bright Here and there. Here and there Fairles are denoting through the air-

Musical singing. Mustical ringing. We moor our besit and we wander far pain after taking one bottle and have not been troubled since. It saved me quite a sum of money, and what is better, I was Off three the land where the fairies are. The son as blue as the sky can be Round about.

not obliged to endure weeks of suffering; would not be without it in the house. Have recommended it to others and it never fails Faire-like forms fit in and out . Greathing and glaneing. Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they can-not be bought of the druggist the Athlo-I dreatning and dancing Hither and thither in spell-bound rout. phoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will We pass the popules : they're all asteen send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c for Pills.

For liver and kidney disease, dyspepsia, in-digestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constitution, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.

Nothing and signing in slumber deep. Over the hill comes a suft, low strain. The moon is our and beginning to wante Tound fro. Show're recked in the moon we go h, a wonderful country is Dickery Doc.

The wind is songhing.

and Soldier Candidate. A TRIUMPHAL TOUR TO HAR-RISBURG.

Mr. Blaine and Gen. Beaver Dine with Cameron at Lochiel. A BIG DAY AT PITTSBURGH.

Hampsmus Oct. 18 -- While Mr. Blaine and Gen. Beaver were dining with Gen. ment was working itself into a higher pitch of enthusiasm. The city has seen bie crowds at conventions and inaneurations, and has entertained many visitors, J. SCHT WARD. but never before has it held such a vast throng or opened its gates to so many strangers. From Lancuster, where President Frank Esbelman had painted the own red with the enthusiasm of his NO. 27 FIFTH AVENUE. James G. Blaine and General James A.

brought 1,000 people, and a large contin. cheering.]

the shout, and when they grew hoarse and Beaver sat bowing and waving their James McCormick. handkerchief, beating up against the heaved after the possion in waves

WHAT THE CANDIDATE SAID. the central circle of white light formed the assemblage. and distinguished service which alone, ed slowly away toward the Lancaster Sta- by.

Beaver turned back to the hotel.

campaign was the precursor of that great- of the Republican party at this critical desire to say nothing reflecting upon him mighty cheers, the air was white with notice an escort fit for a king. BLAINE'S TRIBUTE TO STEVENS.

er one of 1888 upon which the party had time, all went straight home to the minds nor to which he would object; but as I handkerchiefs and a sea of faces tossed already entered and which, he trusted, and hearts of the throng. Fellow Citizens of Lancaster county: It is just thirty years ago this month since I had the pleasure of addressing a Lan-

1888, the General introduced the statesmusn from Maine. ed head Pennsylvania's favorite son stood a sheen of light all about him. Again, platform, gazed at Blaine and at the crowd, smiled, and looked as though he haired chairman of the meeting, waved. The preceding census showed that the his hand at Blaine for an introduction. estimated total value of property in the General Beaver was next introduced.

silence, and then he said : vania welcome; it overwhelms a man the policy of the Government was chang. which greeted Mr. Blaine. General Bea-(cheers), and when you would have him ed, and, under the benign influence of ver said that when his audience realized intended as a welcome to me, a compan- to-day it is admitted by the economists weeks more of like work ahead of him Lalways return to Pentsylvania with the wealth of the country, in the first in cordial greeting which had been tender en President in 1888) Blaine and General sense that, although a citizen of another stance, under Free Frade, and in the other ed him to-day. In addition to the con- other the fact of the control of

Cheering.] which they owe to Republicans of other States, to the Republicans of the whole | tective policy in the United States | must | bearer of 1884, who, so far as Pennsyl-Union, to have their State continue to come first of all, to Pennsylvania as the vania's voice is concerned, will undoubtthe head of the column; that she may now eminently due, and of all spots in Penn- [Tremendous cheering.] Exhorting his Pittsburgh in 1886 had aroused more ly in the past, lead the Republicans of the and city which hold the ashes of Thad- her accustomed great majority, he thanknation to decisive victory. [Cheers and deus Stevens. [Cheers.]

huzzahing wildly.] Mr. Blaine (continuing with considerable exertion in the effort to make his voice heard above the good-natured tumult) went on: I say to this vast, this innumerable assemblage, that the progress Young Men's Republican Club, a special which you have made in all the pursuits train followed the Blaine special contain- of industry, whether as artisans, mechaning 1,000 people. The cars were covered ics, or merchants, is an attestation of what with bunting, and on their sides was the a practical adaptation of the principle of inscription: Lancaster County Escorts to Protection has accomplished in your State. That principle is now attacked and James G. Blaine and General James A.

Beaver." Other trains came from as far

I am here to beg of Pennsylvania to County Republican shall be found at The obscurity of his last resting place. west as Huntingdon, north from Williams stand, as she has stood in the past, the port, south from York and the Cumber- representative of that doctrine, and the throw a 10,000 majority is always in dan-land Valley. One train from York alone leader in its vindication. [Continued ger of not doing its full duty unless stir-

The proces ion was formed some dis- Here the shouting, roaring multitude most important national aspect. When incident occurred which peculiarly illustance down Second street and waited un- renewed their huzzahing, and Mr. Blaine you are about to elect twenty-eight rep- trates Blaine's tenacious memory of names til 8 o'clock for Senator Cameron's car- withdrew. Colonel A. Londen Snowden, resentatives in Congress and a Legisla- and personal associations. The carriage Shortly before 12 o'clock a movement til 8 o'clock for Senator Cameron's car-their smatter influence. I bearing til 8 o'clock for Senator Cameron's car-and personal associations. The carriage and personal associations. The carriage and personal associations. The carriage and personal associations. The carriage was bowling along South Queen Street at reached the crowd on Fifth avenue. It story opens a resident of this city. One came there was an outburst of bross Senator B. F. Hughes, of Philadelphia, United States you are about to do that bands that ought to have made itself followed with entertaining addresses, which affects not only the State but the house in which Thad Stevens once lived, lent enough to shake everybody. It was heard from York to Reading, and from Senator Cameron was loudly called for nation, and therefore, indirectly the state when an old gentleman rushed upon the accompanied by sounds that were early The above testimonial came unsolicited and laneaster to Huntingdon. It woke up just before the meeting adjourned, and of Main. It is a matter of great concern sidewalk and waved his hat. The action distinguished as cheers. They originated Harrisburg, which should with a mighty made a short speech. As he was leaving to the state of Maine that you elect the shout and blazed crimson with chemical the stand to take his carriage he was right kind of representatives to Congress asked who it was. "That's William P. ded around to Grant, by way of Second fire. Twenty thousand voices kept up again surrounded by his conditions, and and that you elect the right kind of a Brinton, a member of the Lancaster bar," avenue, and gathering volume, solled > surging all through the streets of the city, Emory Smith. General Beaver passed aspect as thoroughly national as though overwhelming the carriage where Blaine, the night in Harrisburg, at the home of you were electing a president of the United States, [Cheers.]

emerged into full view of the street there arose a yet mightier roar of welcome. It swelled loader and loader; then died gradually away while General Beaver item to speak. The air was crisp, clear and perfectly calm and the Republican again interrupted by cheers, and the same effort was noted as a Downingtown, the expression upon the sea of faces before him changing in sympathy with his again interrupted by cheers, and the which is honorable and heroic in human deeds.

I am not in the habit of indulging in personal references to candidates; I certain shed in front of the Lancaster State of the parade as first proposed. If the original idea had been carried out the committee on Arrangements in deciding to abandon the general trades features of the parade as first proposed. If the original idea had been carried out the original idea had been carried out the end of the line would not have reaching the wisotom of the Committee on Arrangements in deciding to abandon the general trades features of the parade as first proposed. If the original idea had been carried out the end of the line would not have reaching the wisotom of the Committee on Arrangements in the Committee on the street, yet probably not one-half the freedom of callet for colored as well as and having in mind that I cherish an in- tantly before the engine and closed in be- As it was, the column was easily handled several of the sailors died. Those who throng could hear him. General Beaver white men in the South, and the berited friendship for the Democratic hind the last carlike a wedge. The train and proved the ability of Western Pennwreed the consideration that the present importance of united action on the part candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, 1 stopped. The shed roof re-schoed with sylvania Republicans to provide at short dead overhoad one by one; the ship said three nights ago in Philadelphia, over tracks and platform. Mr. Blaine Before the last of the column had reach. two years was so violent from the ravages that in his person, with all the political glanced through the car window, and ed the Allegreny river, Exposition Park of the fever that he had to be chained to traditions that surround him, in the per- then with General Beaver walked upon became the objective point for the throng son of General Beaver the people of the platform. The cheering immediately in Pittsburgh. Twenty thousand persons Peansylvania are fighting over again the swelfed to a shout that lasted for several among them perhaps 2,000 ladies, found chains and lashings to this day. During precise issues that were presented a quar- uninutes, while Mr. Blaine bowed to right their way there before 2 o'clock, although the year that the ship drifted about the ter of a century ago in the person of Mr. and to left. There was a sudden back- it must have been known that, notwith- second mate and three or four of the suitcaster County andience. Two illustrious Buchanan and in the person of Abraham ward movement of the train for several standing the excellent arrangements, not ors recovered, but being out or sight of citizens of your county and city had then Lincoln. [Long continued applause.] feet and one or two men narrowly escapmore than half that number could hear land not understanding navigation Those of you who adhere to the tradi- ed the wheels, while Mr. Blaine frantic- what the speakers said. The andience they were powless to do anything with Buchanan was the candidate of a great from the speakers and. The analysis of Mr. Buchanan's administration ally waved his hands for the crowd to was one of the most representative asparty for the Presidency of the United should by all means, sustain Chaemcey part. Then the train was still again and sembled anywhere. A conspicuous figure her reason, but not her strength. One States, and his most dreaded opponent in Black. Those who adhere to and sustain the great crowd surged up against it, on the stage was the venerable John H. day she sent for the second mate and askthe great progress and immortal princi- while quiet was gradually restored. Ewing, of Washington county, Mr. ed him to carry her on deck, which he ples identified with the name of Abra- Then Mr. Blaine said : ham Lincoln [cheers]; with all that they "I would be very glad, gentlemen, if I his 90th birthday a few days ago, but struments, and by the aid of these and mean for us, with all that they mean for could take each of you by the hand and felt strong enough to come to Pittsburgh her knowledge of navigation she figured a race trodden down for two centuries, express to you the gratification which I to hear his distinguished nephew speak, out the location of the vessel. She then with all that they meant to the heroic have felt for your cordial reception, but Mr. Blaine and General Beaver reach- took the charts from the cabin and trac-

> continued applause.] GENERAL BEAVER'S OVATION.

There is one trouble about a Pennsyl- Republican party to power in the nation, tendered an ovation hardly second to that who instituted and maintained the Pro- cent reception given to the great standard > bade them farewell. While the later speakers were speaking track. Mr. Blaine was finding entertainment in another way. As soon as he reand E. K. Martin also found sents, and trions Lancastrian lies buried in an ob- increased scure little graveyard known as Shreiners Cemetery, in the Western part of the city. was the great commoner's own choice, for not dominated by sect and whose charter did not contain the word "White." Mr. the stone "the red rose of Lancaster," stream of personal reminiscences of Stevers spell-bound. At length the party rethe central circle of white light formed by the incandescent carbons came Mr. It was several seconds before Mr. aside from any beyond political issues, tion, followed by cheers. Many of the Everywhere as soon as Blaine and Beathaging trip. Mr. Bowers is a well finally to change into a bear. This must Blaine and General Beaver. When they Blaine was allowed to speak. When at commends him to all his fellow-citizens crowd at the crossing ran over the ties ver passed the crowd closed up the pass known and snows-full merchant of Richemerged into full view of the street there last his address began, he was again and of his native State who appreciate that after the cars, and every now and then sage. This demonstrated the wisdom of mond.