THE SOMERSET HERALD, SOMERSET, PA.

A SWINDLER.

Does not refer to his purchases to his wife. The swindler, who is a glazier, is suffering from rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, nervous or sick headache, kidney trouble, and other ailments.

Life's Labor.

It is well, sometimes to his wife. To pass and then to his wife's side. To feel the jolting to his feet.

Always "Dressed Up."

The other morning when I had finished my marketing I ran in to see Mrs. Mason. I had it upon my mind to ask her for a new pattern for a wrapper.

Some New and Interesting Facts in a Forthcoming Biography.

The life of Abraham Lincoln, by John S. Nicolay and John Hay, his Private Secretary, the publication of which is to begin in the Century Magazine for November.

He Brought the Bear.

You know that I went up in northern Michigan last fall on a hunting trip with three or four friends.

Faces That Draw Money.

In this country, where money is king, it is a peculiarly fitting distinction to put the heads of our departed great men on our currency.

Origin of Opium.

According to the legend, there once lived in the banks of the holy river Ganga, a fish, or sage, in whose hot, muffled palm leaves, there was a mouse.

Origin of Slatting Floors.

To find the source from which the European nations have derived the art of building in stone, we must look to the land of the Pharaohs.

Keeping Corn Fodder.

In order to have corn fodder the best it can be, the corn should be cut up as early as the maturity of the grain will admit.

Getting the Taste of Mutton.

A queer story comes from New Zealand. The owls in that island used to be as harmless as doves.
