The "importance of one vote" argument and appeal received numerous illustrations at the recent election. Congressman Lawler in Illinois has six majority and Campbell in Ohio three. The New Jersey Legislature is Democratic on joint ballot by one majority and the Indiana Legislature by two. In one of the New Jersey Legislative districts there is a tie between the two candidates, and another election will be necessary.

Directors will bear in mind that the school law makes it obligatory that the schools be closed during the session of the County Institute. This should insure a full attendance of teachers from every district in the county. Superintendent Weller informs us that he confidently expects such an attendance. The teacher who willingly absents himself or herself from the County Institute is unworthy the high calling.

Rev. A. W. Emmons, of Uniontown, Pa., will conduct services in the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath morning and evening. All are welcome.

All the churches were well filled with worshippers on Sunday. The cold, wintry weather drove many into their shelter who would not otherwise have gone.

Capt. W. H. Samuel, we are informed, has been offered the P. & O. agency at Johnstown. We understand that it is a question of a raise of salary as to whether the Captain will accept or not. No better man could be found for the place.

Mr. Noah Scott, who was in town Monday, informs us that Col. E. D. Yutzy walked down stairs to his office Monday morning, the first time since his recent severe illness. The Colonel don't propose to pass in his checks for awhile yet.

We are again under the painful necessity of consigning several interesting communications to the waste paper basket, because the writers neglected to sign their names. In order to insure publication all articles must be signed by the writer with his full name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

It is certainly a shame that parents who have children in our public schools do not encourage the teachers as well as their children by visiting the schools a little, especially on such days for which special preparations have been made. If you want your children to learn, show them once in a while that you take some interest in their progress.

Last week the Hollidaysburg Register, owned and edited by Mr. David Over, who has just been elected Treasurer of Blair county, entered upon its fifty-first year. We wish the Register continued prosperity and extend our hearty congratulations to its veteran editor upon his successful election to a responsible and we hope lucrative position.

The ladies of the Christian Church (Disciples) will hold a Festival in Hennesamp's Block, on Thanksgiving evening, November 25. Oysters, Ice Cream, Cakes, Candies and other refreshments will be served at a moderate price. All are invited to come and spend a social evening with us.

COMMITTEE.

The goosebone prognosticator of the winter weather has been heard from. It is learned that we will have more regular weather than last year, and not so severe. The coldest weather will be during the first half of January. February will not be very cold, but will be very disagreeable. Altogether the winter will be what is known as an open season, and a good wheat year.

"The distinctly literary flavor of the forthcoming Scribner's Magazine will be maintained by the editors and publishers very carefully; while on the other hand, the new periodical will be kept free from that class of articles which makes the specific gravity of a magazine too formidable for the general reading public. The illustrated matter will leave nothing to be desired.—The Independent, New York. See prospectus in another column.

The small locomotive "Ella," formerly used by Patterson & Kuhn, on the Laurel Hill tunnel, and bought by Thomas Collins at the assignee's sale, and by him sold to Wilson R. Sauner, in June last, was shipped from the S. & C. Station on Friday last, to Patterson & Zell, Grafton, Huntington county, Pa. It will be used hereafter on their sawn road, which is one of the largest and most important roads of the State. The consideration was $1,500.

Mr. Edward Diehl, formerly of this place, met with an accident at Johnstown last week that resulted in the amputation of his left foot. He is a young man of about twenty years of age and was employed as a freight brakeman on the Somerset & Cambria Railroad. While breaking a gondola in the S. & C. yards at Johnstown his foot was caught between the bumpers and terribly crushed. Dr. Lowman performed the amputation. Mr. Diehl is a member of the B. & O. Relief Association and will receive six dollars a week during the time he is laid up, and a considerable amount for the loss of his foot.

The congratulations of the fraternity are extended to Brother Scull, of the Somerset HERALD, in being elected to Congress, and to Brother Over, of the Hollidaysburg Register, in his election to the Treasurership of Blair county. Editors don't generally make good candidates—they put on paper sentiments that may not be popular with a certain class at a certain time, and these rise up in judgment against them when before the people for their suffrages; while those who do not have papers only squirt from their mouths into the air, where the stuff evanesces and leaves no blue streaks behind. Besides, there are many things that appear in a paper that tries to publish the news that do not express the sentiments of the editor, but when he becomes a candidate are quoted against him. But, all the same, Brothers Over and Scull got there.—Johnstown Tribune.

We take pleasure in extending fraternal congratulations to brother Scull, of the Somerset HERALD, in his election to Congress, and to our esteemed brother Over, of the Hollidaysburg Register, in his election to the Treasurership of Blair county. We see no reason why a good and well-informed editor should not make a good representative. They are the organizers of public opinion, or ought to be, and have a keener sense of what the public need, want and will endorse, than any other class of men. Brother Scull was opposed by General Koontz, a sworn personal enemy and bitter political opponent; nevertheless Col. Scull carried the county of Somerset by 1,618 plurality and defeated Tate by 1,000 majority in the district. Success to the fraternity.—Tyrone Herald.

Lutheran Conference.

The Somerset County Conference of the Allegheny Lutheran Synod met at Jennertown, November 9th, 10th and 11th. Rev. Zinn preached the opening sermon. Rev. M. L. Young was chosen President, Rev. E. L. Folk, Secretary, and Rev. C. B. Gruver, Treasurer.

There were fourteen clerical and six lay members present. The essays and speeches were clear and forcible. The spirit of brotherly love among the members of the Conference is marked. The Conference is composed of seventeen ministers and fifty congregations. The work of the church in the entire Conference is in a comparatively prosperous condition. X.

It is Well to Remember

That a small piece of charcoal placed in the pot when boiling cabbage will prevent it from filling the house with the smell.

That the application of a piece of ice or even cold water to the lobe of the ear will stop hiccoughing.

When baking fruit pies that if the bottom crust is glazed with the white of an egg they will not be soggy.

That if you scorch clothes in ironing they should be placed in the sun to draw the marks out.

That tepid milk and water will clean oil cloth without soap.

That vinegar will clean the mica in stove doors.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, God in his wise providence has removed from our midst by death, our highly esteemed and worthy brother, Philip Ling, a member of the St. Matthew Evangelical Lutheran Church at Roxbury; this, our testimony to his zeal and faithfulness in the responsible trust committed to him in his office of Elder, and in as much as he so regularly attended church, and cheerfully took a very deep interest in the Sunday school.

Resolved, That while we deeply regret this our first loss by death, yet we bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That in the death of our brother we have lost a member of usefulness in our church and Sunday school.

Resolved, That we most sincerely sympathize with the dearly beloved wife and children of the deceased.

Resolved, That this respect be published in our county papers, and a copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother.

Announcement of Ben Perley Poor's Forthcoming Book.

Sixty years of a busy journalist's life at Washington are epitomized in Maj. Ben. Perley Poor's forthcoming book. One of the admirers of the Major recently said that "at a judiciously ripe period of life the Major stopped getting old, and since then, like some of the choice old Maderia of which he writes with so much feeling, he has only been accumulating bouquet and flavor." Major Poore has been one of the best known and one of the most knowing men in Washington society for a half a century. His is the sunny temperament delighting in bright, social intercourse. Yet his connection with daily journalism and his position in the U. S. Senate placed him always in the thick of political affairs and social gossip. He was ever in the "swim," breasting the waves with jovial vigor, and never failing to hear and see what was said and done.

The Major could never be very solemn, and in his ripened sketches of Washington life every phase reminds him of half a dozen amusing anecdotes. He has a rare gift in telling a story, and his anecdotes are inexhaustible.

His book will not only add fame to his lustre as a writer, but is of so unique a character and so intensely interesting in matter that it will prove a valuable contribution to the literature of the country. It has mirth for the mirthful, wit for the witty, information for all, and we doubt if it has been equaled by any subscription book since the war.

It is being issued by the well-known house of Hubbard Bros., Philadelphia, Pa., and sold exclusively by subscription.

Col. Quay's Calling and Election Assured.

The action taken by the Allegheny County delegation to Harrisburg on Saturday virtually settles the United States Senatorship in this State. Mr. Quay will be the only man before the Republican caucus. There may be a few votes cast for personal friends, but they will be complimentary. The Independents all over the State appear to be pleased with the action so far taken, as they are of the opinion that Mr. Quay will be a just and prudent party leader. The Philadelphia Telegraph, the most uncompromising Independent journal in the State, thinks that Mr. Quay should be unanimously chosen Senator, as he will be fair and treat Republicans known as Independents with due consideration, and not ostracise them as some leaders would like to do.—Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette.

Pastor's Report.

Following is the report of Rev. John N. Unruh, retiring pastor of the Hooversville circuit of the Lutheran church:

Time served as pastor, 5 years and 1 month; Congregations, 4; Membership, 440; Additions by baptism, 80; by confirmation, 80; by certificate from Lutheran churches, 30; by certificates from other denominations, 17; by restoration, 3; total, 210. Dismissed, 78; died, 23; children baptized, 129; funerals attended, 37; weddings, 31; communions held, 64; sermons preached, 1093; pastoral visits, 1337; miles traveled in charge, 8393; families connected with charge, 285; protracted meetings held, 20; came to the altar for prayer, 350, making a grand total of souls brought to Christ through protracted effort through my ministry of 2486. We join in our thanks to our kind friends for their great kindness.

JOHN N. UNRUH.

A Compliment and an Apology.

The week before the election the Bedford Gazette told how, under the "Gallant leadership of General William H. Koontz," the Republicans of Somerset county were to be knocked silly by the immense vote that would be polled for Tate. In its issue of the week after the election it required a concentrated effort of the three heavy weight editors to get up an article in which they lampooned the "Gallant" leader and his followers who had "buckled on their armor," most viciously. In its last issue it veers around once more and apologizes to the "General" and his followers. As the Gazette is an out and out Bourbon Democrat and Free Trade organ, the following will likely be taken not only as an apology but as a compliment:

"Some of the Somerset Independents think the Gazette censured them unjustly, last week. We confess our error. The article was written before the correct vote had been received and when the situation was not understood. The Independents did well, and on behalf of Mr. Tate we thank them."

From Lambertsville.

The Republicans of Lambertsville and vicinity assembled on the 6th, to ratify the result of the election on Nov 2d. Ten pounds of dynamite and a large bonfire were the principal features of the occasion. M. A. Barr and Jonas F. Sipe had charge of the dynamite and by the way they made things boom showed that they were masters of the situation. Cheer after cheer rent the air as one explosion followed the other in quick succession. After that part of the program was carried into execution the crowd repaired to the town hall, where stirring speeches were made by a number of those present.

Quite a number of ladies were present who seemed to be pleased about as well as the men with the result of the election.

The Republicans manifested a vim and a spirit of their old enthusiasm. They will be heard of in 1888 for Blaine and Logan. The meeting was closed with three cheers for the whole republican ticket, three cheers for the ladies, three cheers for the committeemen and three cheers in honor of the county chairman for the valuable services rendered, and splendid work done during the campaign. In a word we will say that the enthusiasm of the republicans in this neck of the woods knows no bounds, and they are ready for the great fight before us. COMMITTEE.

Casselman Items.

Scull wasn't snowed under.

Rain, snow, mud and sunshine.

Our town is still improving. Several new buildings have been erected this summer. Mr. H. H. Witt was the architect.

Our school is progressing finely under the tutorship of L. L. Weimer. This is the fourth term for Mr. W. at this place, and thus far he has given entire satisfaction.

Phillipps's boys shot three or four fine deer last week. Aust. wears the belt, having killed the largest; he also shot a number of foxes, killing two in one day.

The foreman on the B. & O. R. R., Mr. J. Lighcart, has his track ready for inspection, he has for several years gained the prize for having his section in the best condition, on the line, and we think he will win again, as his section is in good trim.

The Democrats are very much dejected over the result of the election. Daniel was stricken so hard he refused to speak to any one, and would not be comforted. We hope, however he may recover soon. The Republican boys tried to cheer him, one night, by burning oil barrels, shooting and hallooing, which made the town quite lively, but he is dead to rise no more.

Casselman has become quite a noted place for running fights. Several weeks ago the town was very much elated over a Professional, diplomatic, would-be teacher and musician, Mr. Y. by name, who was going to naturalize, and systematize the place. They finally got tired of him. L. gave him $1.50 and C. paid his way, and sent him home. But he returned in a short time and Chas. run him half a mile out of town, in such a manner that he will not be likely to return any more. XTY.

Thanking all heartily for past patronage, we ask you to call and see this lot.

MRS. A. E. UHL'S.

A Faithful Newspaper.

The Republicans of the county cannot but be struck with one fact, that in any campaign of a national significance, and in every part of the country, one of their very best allies is the N. Y. TRIBUNE. Its fighting, especially for the last two years, has been of a superior order. Its work in the Blaine campaign was zealous and effective; it was the first to expose the Pan-Electric scandal; and in the canvass for Congress just closed, in which the Republican victories of 1886 have chiefly been won, it has been THE TRIBUNE which laid out the successful campaign. THE TRIBUNE has been right on temperance; and it has been especially right in awakening the country to the danger threatened its industries. Our ardent metropolitan contemporary made a din last winter concerning the effort of Cleveland's cabinet to break down John Roach, the shipbuilder, which seemed to some of us at the time more noisy than the circumstances demanded. But the events proved the wisdom of THE TRIBUNE'S proceedings. The Congressional victories have been won on the platform of protection to American interests, upon which the editor of THE TRIBUNE has so strenuously insisted. THE TRIBUNE is a faithful newspaper, an element of strength to the Republican party and worthy of its large circulation. As a general newspaper for the family and especially for the farmer it has no superior. THE TRIBUNE is one of the papers which offer a few premiums to subscribers. A unique feature of its list of books this winter is its own "BOOK OF OPEN AIR SPORTS." Whatever THE TRIBUNE does, it does well, and this book ought to be well worthy of the attention of all young men interested in athletic sports, as every young man who wants a sound mind in a sound body ought to be.

Obituary.

SCOTT.—At the residence of Noah Scott, near Ursina, Pa., on October 11, 1886, in her 85th year, Mrs. Elizabeth Scott, relict of George H. Scott.

Mrs. Scott was born and raised in Somerset county, and lived in Jefferson Township, on the farm now occupied by Mr. Wm. Hay from the date of her marriage until after the death of her husband, which occurred Jan. 9, 1867, after which she removed to New Centreville, and subsequently to Ursina, where she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. E. D. Yutzy. She was the mother of eleven children, only five of whom are yet living, viz: Matthias, Nancy, (now Mrs. E. D. Yutzy) Noah, and Mary, all of Ursina, and J. B. Scott, who since 1854 has lived in the State of California. Mrs. Scott was immersed by Elder Chauncey Forward, and united with the Christian Church August 11th, 1833, and continued a zealous member, and a strong advocate of the cause while health permitted.

As a mother she was kind and indulgent. As a neighbor she was ever ready to minister to the wants of the sick, and comfort those in deep distress. Her hospitality knew no limit, as all who made her acquaintance could attest, and by her many kind acts she had endeared herself to all who lived in her neighborhood. Like most of mothers who raise large families she had her trials in life. Her oldest son, Montgomery, left home several years before he attained his majority, and no tidings were had from him for four long years, and remained absent for 32 years. During the late war her youngest son was taken prisoner, and was starved to death in Andersonville with many others. The next to the youngest son, Walter Scott, served his country during the war, after which he went West, and it is supposed was robbed and murdered, then her husband died suddenly of apoplexy. Imagine a mother's anxiety, sorrow and grief under such trying circumstances. But she bore this and more too, with that christian fortitude that characterized her through life, and with that patience that none but a mother possesses.

Her funeral sermon was preached by Elder Larimer of the "Christian Church," and her remains were followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives, friends and neighbors. C.

DIED.

LING.—On Wednesday, November 3, 1886, Philip Ling, aged 74 years, 5 months and 16 days.

His funeral was very largely attended. Besides the numerous relations the citizens of Roxbury and neighborhood turned out in a body to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased. His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at the Glade Church, four miles north-east of Roxbury. He left a dear companion and six children to mourn his loss. Their loss is a sad one indeed, and seems to them almost insufferable. Yet they can draw comfort and consolation from the fact that his immortal spirit is in the land of endless bliss.

The Narrow Escape

Of a Massachusetts Engineer.

Sleep after fatigue and health after disease are two of the sweetest experiences known to man. Fourteen years is a long time to suffer, yet Mr. Peter Lawler, of Dalton, Mass., had led a miserable life for that period through the presence of a stone in the bladder. He did obtain temporary relief, but nothing more. Last January he called on Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who said, after an examination: "Mr. Lawler, you have a stone in the bladder. We will first try DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, before risking an operation." A few days later the following letter passed through the Rondout Post-office:

Dear Dr. Kennedy: The day after I came home I passed two gravel stones, and am doing nicely now. PETER LAWLER.

Dr. Kennedy now has the stones at his office, and they are sufficiently formidable to justify the claim that "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" is the leading specific for stone in the bladder. In his letter Mr. Lawler also mentions that "Favorite Remedy" cured him of rheumatism. The subjoined certificate tells its own story:

OLD BERKSHIRE MILLS,
Dalton, Mass., April 27, 1886.

Mr. Peter Lawler has been a resident of this town for the past seventeen years, and in our employ for 12, and in all these years he has been a good and respected citizen of this town and community. He has had some chronic disease to our knowledge for most of the time, but now claims to be, and is, in apparent good health.

CHARLES O. BROWN, President.

$1 a bottle; six for $5; all druggists.

Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy," of Rondout, N. Y.—It acts a mere soother, temporarily, of pain, but by its alterative action purifies the blood, restores a healthful condition to the diseased organs, and even dissolves and removes the expulsion of gravel and stone from the kidneys and bladder. The testimony of hundreds who have been cured by it vouches for this.
