THE GATES AJAR. One night as old Saint Peter slept, He left the door of Heaven night

When through a little angel crept. And came down with a falling star. One surumer as the blessel beams Of mouru approached my blushing brid Awakened from some pleasing dreams

And found that angel by her side. God grant but this, I ask no more. That when he leaves this world of sin, He'll wing his way to that bright shore And and the door of Heaven seain.

SAINT PRIVING S REPLY.

For eighteen bundred years and more. I've look my door securely tyled: There has no little angel strayed-No one been missing all the while.

I did not sleep, as you have said, Nor leave the door of heaven agar, Nor has a little angel strayed

Nor gone down with a falling star-Goush that blushing bride and see If she don't frankly own and say That when she found that angel balse She found if in the good old way.

God gener this. I ask no more, That should your family still enlarge. You will not do as heretofore. And lay it to old Poter's charge.
