

Miss Carl E. Brubaker is visiting friends in Pittsburgh.

The public schools opened again Monday, after their week's vacation.

Mr. Zsch Mayer, of Rockwood was among our callers Tuesday.

A. J. Colborn, Esq., and A. J. Colborn, Jr., are spending the present week at Harrisburg.

The old year was shut out, and the new one in, in the regulation manner, by the Somerset school children.

General Campbell returned to Washington on Saturday, having passed the holidays at his home in Johnsburg.

Hon. James L. Pugh and Hon. Noah S. Miller left for Harrisburg Friday to enter upon their legislative duties.

Last week's Institute is generally conceded to have been the most successful one ever held in the county.

Many of our people were greatly disappointed at the failure of Dr. Finley to give an appearance and lecture Tuesday night.

The festival held in the Lutheran Church during the holidays was largely attended, each evening, and was well patronized.

During the past week a fine crop has been secured, and the ice harvest in town has been filled with clear ice from ten to fourteen inches thick.

Mr. George T. Ball has sold his grocery store at the corner of Market and Main streets, to Mr. Russell Hill. Mr. Hill took possession on Saturday last—Johnston Tribune.

Landlord Higginbottom raised a purse Monday evening among the friends of "Booby" Bricker and purchased the old stage a very good and comfortable set of clothes.

The County Commissioners have retained the services of Messrs. H. H. Hill, Esq., Attorney; Dr. H. S. Kimmel, physician to the jail; and C. A. Kimmel, janitor.

J. C. Loney, Esq., received a telegram from Harrisburg Tuesday afternoon, informing him that he had been appointed assistant messenger to the House, Mr. Loney will accept the position and will move upon the duties of his appointment.

George A. Hoffmann, the Columbia county boy who shot and killed Campbell, was on Christmas day and afterward effected his escape from the officers who had him in custody, was re-arrested at B. Hill Wednesday and is now in the B. Hill county jail.

The Court Monday ordered the County Commissioners to convert the town into a village, and to have the same done by the County Treasurer into a vault.

Messrs. F. B. Schaeffer, John C. Birton and Isaac Ankeny, the gentlemen composing the Board of Poor Devisors, met Monday and organized for the year. They appointed William Baker, of Somerset, town clerk, and J. C. Loney, Esq., as assessors.

Rev. J. D. Johnson, formerly of Berlin, was for a number of years pastor of the Reform Congregation at Norristown, on account of weakness of the throat he was compelled to retire from the ministry and has located in Washington City, Md. Rev. Johnson will take his place at Norristown.

The 20th Teachers' Institute in the history of Somerset County schools, was a fitting and profitable one.

Mr. Charles Patten, who is employed on the S. & C. Railroad as night watchman, slipped on the ice and fell Monday, breaking his right leg a short distance above the knee.

This is the fourth time, within the last few years, that his leg has been broken at the same place. He was brought to the hospital at last by being put on his back and taken to the hospital at last by being put on his back.
