Premature Wrinkles.

Wrinkles are as natural to old age as is a full, smooth face to childhood. They are due, mainly, to a certain shrinkage of the muscles -a shrinkage which characterizes, more or lest, the entire system in the later period of life. It is in consequence of this general shrinkage that in advanced life the height is somewhat lowered; that the substance of the jaws contracts, thus often giving rise, by pressure on the nerves that pass through the bony canals, to severe and difficult neuralgia; and that the brain substance becomes reduced in bulk, water filling the vacant space. Were it not for the fixed habits and accumulated resources of a lifetime, an old man's brain would not be equal to the work which he still performs easily. There is, of course, much difference be tween old people in this respect, which is due largely to temperament, habits of thought and of feeling and modes of life. MY VESPER SONG. Filled with weariness and pain, Scarcely strong enough to pray, In this twilight hour I sit, Sit and sing my doubt away. O'er my broken purposes,

E'er the coming shadows roll. Let me build a bridge of song. "Jesus, lover of my soul. Let me to thy bosom fly." How the words my thoughts repeat ; To Thy bosom Lord, I come Though unfit to kiss thy feet, Once I gathered sheaves for Thee, Dreaming I could hold them fast, Now I can but idly sing "O, receive my soul at last. I am weary of my fears,

Like a child when night comes on In the shadows, Lord, I sing "Leave, O leave me not alone. Through the tears I still must shed, Through the evil yet to be. Though I falter while I sing Still support and comfort me.

All my trust on Thee is stayed" Does the rythm of the song Softly falling on my heart, Make its pulses firm and strong? Or is this Thy perfect peace, Now descending while I sing That my soul may sleep to-night

"'Neath the shadow of Thy wing.'

Thou of life the fountain art." If I slumber on Thy breast If I sing myself to sleep; Sleep and death alike are rest, Though the sindows overpast, Through the shadows yet to be Let the ladder of my song

'Rise to all eternity." Note by note its silver bars May my soul in love ascend, Till I reach the highest round In Thy kingdom without end. Not impatiently I sing.

Though I lift my hands and cry
