A Railroad Item. The Philadelphia Record says: "The fact Moore, the poet, where his eyes first saw the has been made known within the past few days that preliminary steps have been taken for the formation of a syndicate with a capital of $20,000,000 to build a new line to Pittsburgh. This, however, will not be done until it shall be definitely known that the South Pennsylvania will not be built. The capitalists, however, who are both English and American, will hold themselves in readiness should the South Pennsylvania fall through. to push their line to completion."
