pelled to stand by and see the animal plied : suffer and die. It wasn't quite an hour after he was struck before he was dead. you have to shoot me." In buying horses we stipulated for delivery at certain points, and thus had no the half-breed. horse and ride off to make a purchase. I which to leave the camp. Now go!"

en other reasons to call for delay. We fully excaimed: . 6 o'clock I built a fire and prepared my | -away you will not !" white and that her horse was ja led and the horse to the wagon, told the woman coming slowly. As I held the glass on her that she should occupy the vehicle, and I saw her turn and look back, as one pur- prepared to spend the night on guard. sued, and long before she reached me I | She seemed to oppose this latter arrangecase. She rode straight for the wagon, and declaring it was a sacrifice on my and when she finally came up her horse part she could not accept. I bundled her face seemed to betray both hope and fear. I might eatch a pap after 1 or 2 o'clock if by turns. She was an average looking all was quiet and by and by I let the fire female, about forty years' old and as she | go down and took my circle around the to speak, saying " Well, are you in trouble "

dians visited the place, wounded my wastied up to a tree on the plains, and brother, and set fire to the house, and that a rattlesnake was crawling toward and sob. What could I do but to ask her clear as a bell. The serpent came very to dismount, give her my promise of pro- slowly, halting every two or three feet to testion, and say that when my partner re- rear its head and look about, and when turned we would drive straight to the it was within ten feet it changed. It was ranch, and sacrifice our lives, if need be, yet a serpent but it had a small brown to rescue her brother and teach the In- hand, and the hand clutched a buildog dians a lesson " She did not come down pistol. The pistol was pointed full at me without considerable palayer, seeming and I saw that the hammer was up. very sensitive about gelting me into trou- "Whizz," went the shadow before my ble, and when she did take a seat on the face, and then I looked behind me. The blankets prepared for her, she continued snake was no longer in front, but creepto cry and lament and would not touch a ling up in my rear, and yet I noticed him eaten my supper, and it was now time to When within three feet of my heels the look for Patton. I sought as any man pistol was raised to the back of my head then another. Not one of them all enwould have done under the circumstan- and I said to myself ces, to cheer the woman up, and by and So I am to be shot. It is a large buiby she gave over crying and seemed a let, and it will go clear through my head. bit more hopeful. She explained that she I wonder why he didn't bite me? If I excitement, had removed to the Territory from Clarks-were loose I would make a fierce fight ville, Ark., three years before, being a for my life.

take me away! Let me hide in the and presently a voice bailed me:

"The camp thar-bello!" "Who is it?"

" Friends."

"None of your business. We have the Indian for a wolf and killed him. come for her, and we mean to have her Then the woman concluded that I had by force ?" own stupidity. Early in the seventies, advice. I see you are a tendefoot. Don't she asked me what I was going to do put on too many airs in this country. It about it. Patton had by this time reis a great place to have one's wings clipturned, having raised such a row that ped off in a hurry. Don't attempt any his captors feared to detain him longer, foolishness with us, or you'll never know and he answeren the question by pickwhat burt you."

I had my Winchester in hand and two | tree. revolvers in my belt. Had I been a hot- This broke the woman down so abjecttempered man, there would have been by that we let her free to where she would some shooting before he had concluded when we drove on. To have taken her his bombastic speech. I am slow to an- to Ockmulgee, Kickapoo, or any other ger, especially when human life may pay town as a prisoner would have been to the forfeit, and 1 heard him through cause as great-delay and annoyance, and without being riled. The woman was it was some consolation to know that the that we were not on the watch for some hidden in the wagon, and had not reveal- blow I gave her caused a wound from plan to get the better of us. In one trip ed her presence to them by word or by which she would not recover for many fire. "If she does not you cannot have woman to make a choice."

One day in July, while we were on the wheels, and, supposing it to be a wolf, I of sheep, and in this service he displays north fork of the Canadian River, and raised my gun and took a snap shot, car- great intelligence. Of various breeds about twenty miles below Shawneetown, ing only to send a bullet near enough to employed for this purpose the Scotch one of our horses in our team was bitten drive it away. The object dissappeared Collie stands prominent. The well-auby a rattlesnake. I was driving, and I with the echoes of the report and as I thenticated accounts of his intelligence saw the snake as it lifted itself from the walked along to the wagon the two men and skill and devotion to duty excite our grass and bit the horse twice on the leg. who had dismounted, accompanied me. wonder, as the displays of these qualities It was a hot day, the horses well heated Standing within five feet of the wagon I excite the admiration of every beholder. up, and the poison took effect very seen. called to the woman and asked if she de- The writer has seen flocks of wild Herd-We had no remedy for it, but were com- sired to go with the men, and she re- wicks upon the mountains of Westmore-

"But you have got to come!" shouted whole one of us must take the other "I give you two villains sixty seconds in writers love to record his praises. One had been over the route before, and I They were both together and my rifle knew the negrest ranch was twelve miles covered both. They looked straight at up the river. It was now 4 o'clock in the me for fifteen or twenty seconds, and keeps the flocks separate, picks out from afternoon, and we were within half a then turned and rode away in the dark- another hand and brings back to its own mile of the stream and in a wild and ness. I followed them for a hundred a straying sheep; at command collects lonely district of the country. We had vards, when they urged their horses to a into one place the sheep that may be with us in a tin box in the wagon over gallop, and rode to the north without scattered for miles around; watches his $4,000 in gold, and the misfortune to our looking back. I stood and looked after charge faithfully through night and storm; horse naturally increased our anxieties. them until I could no longer hear the is unyielding with the headstrong rams, My partner insisted that I should be the beat of their horses' boofs, and I felt rath and considerate of the tender lambs; disone to remain with the wagon, and he er proud of my nerve in driving them plays courage, caution, patience, and tact had no sconer moved away than I began away. It did not occur to me until the in handling the flock; and will move the to make things secure. The very first next day that either or both of them sheep or force them into the fold quicker move was to take the tin box from could have got the drop on me up to the more surely, and with less demonstration the wagon and bury it in the ground un- time I raised my rifle, and that while than a dozen men." It has been said by der the vehicle, and after that I saw that making their threats of what they would high authority that without him it would every firearm was in good order, and do they left their rifles lying across their require so many men to manage the flocks beat around the camp to drive away any saddles. They simply permitted me to upon the mountain lands of England and force them out of camp at the muzzle of Scotland as to make keeping sheep upon

There was no use in expecting Patton, my Winchester, and that was a part of them unprofitable. But he is not conmy partner, back before 8 o'clock or la-ter. He would doubtless find a suitable the woman was beside it, her face be-everywhere throughout England, upon horse at the first ranch, but the ranch- traying fear and success, and as soon as I large farms and small. He can do as man might be away, or there were a doz- came up she clasped her hands and tear- much for us in America if we will but supper, and was about to begin eating I assured her that they had been driv- have gained. approaching camp from the northwest. gratitude was unbounded. It was now York State Agricultural Society has taken The ground was open for three or four 10 o'clock and after, and Patton had not a step in the right direction by offering miles and as I had glass with me I made yet returned. It was useless to expect lib gal premiums for trained Collies, t out, while the horse was yet a mile and him till morning, and I set about to pre- awarded by actual trials upon the fair a half away, that he bore a woman on pare the camp for the night. As there his back. Had she been a squaw the was a strong probability that the two the training of dogs and will make them sight would not have occasioned surprise | men driven off would secure reinforcesbut the first look proved that she was ments and return during the night, I fied there will be many entries and a most had become greatly interested in her ment, doubting if the men would return. England and Scotland, the sheep-dog was very much blown, and the woman's into the wagon, however, promising that me we surveyed each camp with cat-like step. A few covotes

other for half a minute before either and wolves came about, but nothing seemspoke. During that interval I caught an ed to disturb me, and the hours passed ion on her face which I did not away until 2 o'clock. By that time I was at all like. It was a sly, sinister look, tired and sleepy. I dared not stretch out but it passed swiftly away, and was re- for a regular sleep, knowing that the danplaced by one of anxiety. I was the first | ger was not yet passed, but I sat down on a knoll about forty feet north of the wagon to map a little, knowing that any noise

"In great trouble, sir," she replied. "I of account would instantly arouse me. It have been living with my brother on a was perhaps a quarter of an hour before small ranch fifteen miles distant. Two I actually fell asleep, and almost instanthours ago a dozen drunken Kickapoo In- by I began to dream. I dreamed that I would have killed me had I not fled on me. The snake was coming to hite me this horse. They pursued me for several and I was helpless. Every movement of the reptile was as vivid as if the dream Here she broke down and began to cry had been a reality, and my mind was as as plainly as before. He came on slowly It had grown dark by the time I had -cantionsly-always a little nearer.

widow with one son. The son had died "Clug!" It was the sound of pistol within the year, and the brother, who hammer striking on the centre of a cartwas an old bachelor, and not in good ridge-a cartridge which had failed to no-how; but I done hearn tell ob people health, had come to remain until the explode. In the same second I was on dat could read wif glasses dat couldn't place could be sold out. A Kickapoo my feet. A figure stood before me. I read without'em, no-how, an I made up buck had taken a great fancy to the wom- gave my heavy rifle a half sweep, and an and wanted to marry her, and her in- the figure sank down with a stiffed shriek. me! dignant refusal had called down the raid. Then I was fully awake, and I bent over made that day. Her story filled me the stranger to find it was the woman with indignation, and as the night who should have been asleep in the came on I was terribly impatient for Pat- wagon. She was unconscious, but elutebton to return. About half past 9 o'clock ed firmly in her hand was a building pis-I heard the gallop of horses, and was tol, I wrenched it from her hand and ready to welcome my partner, but before carried her to the ember of the fire when they had come in sight the widow sprang I had secured a blaze I saw that I had struck her on the head and given her a "Oh, sir, they are the Indians who had hurt. I examined the pistol, and have been on my trail! Don't let them when I found that the cartridge had been tried by the hammer, it did not take me long to unravel the ple against my life. "In with you quick, and they will I bound the woman hand and foot and have to kill me before they lay hands on then kept viligant watch until daybreak you," I replied as she disappeared be. She recovered consciousness long enough eath the cover with astonishing celer- before this, but the only aid I extended was to loosen her hands and place a dish The gailop came nearer and nearer, of water beside her. She did not address me, and I had no word for her.

When day broke there was another surprise for me. A Kickapoo Indian lay "We are after the woman who came the story she told, knowing that she would into your camp a couple of hours ago. I get into the wagon. The two men came the marble-players of our boyhood were.

St., Little Rock, Ark. our said court at Somersot, Pa., this sth day of long out with the countries of the marble-players of our boyhood were. to distract my attention, and the Kicka- - American Grocer.

By what authority do you demand poo crept up to receive the box. The woman could not find it, and I mistook the money on me, and while I napped "Do you mean that you will take her she crept up to shoot me and secure it. She told the particulars askooly as I re-"I do; and let me give you a piece of late to you, and when she had finished, ing up a rope and starting for the nearest days. She was pentient enough when "If the woman chooses to go with you, we drove away, but six weeks later was Trained Sheep Dogs. Of the animals adapted to usefulness do not make as much use of the dog as The wagon was about ten paces from would be profitable. In some countries not so much that I could not see it pretty the streets of cities are crowded with when I saw a dark object under the his great usefulness is found in his care land and Comberland in England, and "Oh! sir, save me from them, even if of Black-faces in the Highlands of Scotland handled by one dog more effectively than could be done by many men, while his faithful service continued spare ones with us. To make our team "She shall not go?" I shouted at him. through both day and night. Scotch has said. He drives out the sheep to pasture, confines them to their alloted territory (where there are no fences,) regularly put him into our service. In en other reasons to call for delay. We may examined to carried provisions with us, and at about "Oh, you will not let them take me neglecting to use him, our flock-masters DAKOTA, have missed a great benefit they might grounds at Rochester. It will encourage acquainted with their abilities. We hope interesting trial. If any who have train-

At some of the agricultural shows in trials are among their most attractive features, and thousands gather to vitness them.-J. W., in Country Gentleman

He Wanted to Read.

It was a warm summer day when Uncie Ephraim Jackson, a worthy colored man, entered an optician's shop, and reoving his tall, white hat and wijing the prespiration from his forehead with big, red bandana handkerchief, sat down warily on a revolving stool, as if he feared it was about to run away with him, and asked for a pair of glasses "fer

Uncle Ephraim grinned. "I guess I wears two," said he

o, in astonishmet. "Jis' two classes, sah : one eve an' one fer de odder."

The optician looked at him with a frown for an instant, but, seeing that the old man was innocent of any attempt to make a joke out of it, went on with the "Try on these," he said picking out a pair, " and see if you can read the letters on that card over there." Uncle Ephrium carefully put on the spectacles, and looked eagerly at the

"Carn't read it, shuah, boss." he said, looking disappointed. "Well, try these," said the optician trying a still stronger pair. 'No go, boss," said Uncle Ephriam. The dealer gave him another pair, and abled Uncle Ephraim to read, though he struggled ever so hard, and wiped his forehead again and again in considerable

"Look here," said the optician finally can you read at all?" "Nebber could read, boss," said Uncle Ephraim, "Dey nebber larned me how my min' I'd see ef 'twas dat way wif

Fen Inchings.

When we were boys and used to play play fair and who would keep reaching marbles in the ring and have a better chance to knock them out. This was called "inching," and "fen inchings" was the warning against unfair play Since the enactment of the interstate commerce law some railroad companies have evidently determined not to play fair with the public, and are 'inching' in various ways. When prohibited from giving rebates and drawbacks to large shippers, the trunk lines made up a classifi.ation which openly discriminated against the small shipper all the way from 16 to 60 per cent., and besides made a number of intricate regulations intending to swell their revenues at the public expense. In dead under a wagon, shot through the many cases they openly advanced rates. heart. It was a great mystery to me, but In others they did it in other ways. We With that a half-breed and a Kickapoo the woman was ready to clear it up. I are not among those who object to railwhich | untied her, washing the blood off her | roads getting a price for service rendered, had neither saddle nor blanket. Both face and bend, and then she gave the but we do want them to get it in a fair, men looked savage and sullen, and were whole plot away. Patton had been made impartial and aboveboard manner. There well armed. The half-breed could speak a prisoner by a gang of outlaws in order has been so much crookedness in railvery good English, and when he had that I might be robbed. These men road operations in the past that it seems come to a halt and looked around he knew of the tin box in the wagon. The very hard for some of our railroad manwoman had been sent into camp with agers to do business in this way, and something to start my blood to circulating rapidly, in fact a general vitalizer. I was directed to take mud baths. These what is known as Fuller's earth. I was incased in this substance with only my head sticking out. Then I was placed in a trough, a tube was inserted into the mud and an electric current turned on.

The sensation was most unique and almost indescribable. The earth around my body soon became churged with electricity and snapped and coquetted with my skin in a most tantalizing way. At imes there would seem to be a race of small tacks down my back, and then the ensation of a brush gently passing over me. My flesh simply acted as a conduc-

a series of currents from powerful electric batteries can produce. After an hour

I was stripped of the mud and 'massaged ' for an hour by two stalwart attendants. A douche of water was administered, and I went home.

Absolutely Pure.

A. M. BRACKENRIDGE, Central Passenger Agent, Corner 7th Ave. and Smithfield Streets,

$25,000.00 IN GOLD! WILL BE PAID FOR

ARBUCKLES' COFFEE WRAPPERS

- 1	Premium		$1,000.00
	Premiums.	٠	$500.00 e
	Premiums,		- $250.00 "
	Premiums,		$100.00
	Premiums,		· $50.00 '
	Premiums,		$20.00 "
	Premiums,		· $10.00 "

HARVEST

NEBRASKA. WYOMING. MINNESOTA,

NORTHERN IOWA,

ONE FARE for the Round Trip. FIRST-CLASS ACCOMMODATIONS. will be good 30 days from date of sale.

For circulars and full particulars apply to the near-cet Ticket Agent, or address

H. A. CROSS, Traveling Agent,

29 Center Square. LANCASTER. PA.

M. HUGHITT. H. C. WICKER, E. P. WILSON,

Prost Traffic Munager. Gen. Pass. Agt.

BUY YOUR

RUBBER BOOTS

SHOES

John G. Sanner,

Somerset, Pa.

SUMMONS IN PARTITION. George W. Anderson
Yes.

Howard Anderson, Thos.
M. Anderson, Mailinda, intermarried with James Hyatt, A. J. Anderson residing in Fayeste Co. Pa.
Noah M. Anderson, residing in Greene Co. Pa.
Elizadeth, Intermarried
with Francis Morrison, now decessed, leaving to survive her seven heirs:
Lucinda and Mary Elizabeth, residing in Fayofte Co. Pa. Flora, residing in Scottonic, Westmoreland Co. Pa., Chas., Thos. and Geo. Morrison and Margaret, intermar-

No. 1 Sept. Term, 1887. facts.

SOMERSET COUNTY, 88.

SEAL to the Sheriff of said County, Greeting If George W. Anderson make you seeme in presenting his chain, then we command you that you summon by good and lawful summons Howard Anderson. Thomas M. Anderson, Malinda internarried with James Hyatt, A. J. Anderson, residing in Greene Co., Pa., Rinabeth, internarried with Fannes Hyatt, A. J. Anderson, residing in Greene Co., Pa., Rinabeth, internarried with Francis Morrison, now deceased leaving to survive her seven heirs. Lucinda and Mary Elizabeth, residing in Fayette Co., Flora, residing in Scottchle, Westmorchand Co., Pa., Caarles, Thomas and George Morrison, and Mary green, thermacrid with — Fleming, residing in Westmorchand Co., P., late of your County so that they be and appear before our Judges at somerset at our County Court of Common Pleas there to be held on the second Monday of September next, to answer George M. Anderson in Summers of Partition for the following described Real Estate: A certain tract of land strate in Lower Turkeyfort rown-kip, Somerset Co., Pa., adjoining lands of Jacob H. Moon, Lorenzo D. McNair, Henry H. Koontz, and others, containing lor acres y H Kroantz, and others containing 107 acres or less, having thereon erected three small welling houses, one stable and other outlings, of which fifty acres are elemed, and cres in meadow. Also, two apple orehards a premises, with the appurenances. That then thereof be made between them the fift and Defendants according to the law-instance of this Commenwealth in such cases. I had the names of those summoned, and this mediate Proty's Office. N. B. CRITCHFIELD. Going out ried couple.

sat down, took a long breath, and lighting a long eigar began to puff vigorously. A reporter asked him if he was ill. He re-"Ill? No. I have just taken a dirt bath. Don't know what a dirt bath is? Then I'll tell you. I concluded that my system had run down and that I needed fully recommend it to all." Mrs. E. F. ANNABLE, New Haven, Coun. Mrs. Mary C. Smith, Cambridgeport, Mass., was a sufferer from dyspepsia and sick head-ache. She took Hood's Sarsaparti a and found it the best remedy she ever used.

Sick Headache

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Made only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar.

FASHIONABLE tor and enjoyed all the little pranks that CUTTER and TAILOR

"But the bath cannot be finished in one day. I went back the next morning and was given a cold water bath and rubbed again very thoroughly, Then my feet were placed in water charged with electricity. The attendants then seized several large sponges, dipped them into the water and began to rub me. It was an electric bath, and the sponges fairly made me howl with the shocks I received. The next day I went back and finished the bath. I was placed in a vat of large grained salt and rolled about until my flesh glowed with irritating excitement. A rub down and warm water bath then finished my mud bath. It takes only three days. I wanted to perspire, and I succeeded. Sometimes I dream I am closed up in an armor of mud, and the perspiration comes from me in copions streams. If a man has three solid days to spare, I think nothing is more pleasant all around than to take a first class mud bath."-New York Mail and Express.

Give Them a Chance.

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonlerful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. and what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, starrh, consumption or any of the famiof throat and nose and head and lung bstructions, all are bad. All ought to be st rid of. There is just one sure way to before purchasing elsewhere. get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will send you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if lepend upon this for certain.

Wrinkled Age and Youth.

Age takes small account of the immeate flight of time. To the young a year a mighty span. slit a happy or an shappy year that youth looks forward it is a vista that stretches far into the ture. And when it is done, this inrminable year, and youth, just twelve onths older, looks back to the first of t, what a long way off it is. What trenendous progress we have made. How such more we know. How insufficient are the standards by which we measured he world a poor 365 days back! But age has grown habituated to the ight of time. Years! We have seen so cany of them that they make no impresion upon it. What! is it ten years since came Midas first came to the countings om, asking humbly for an entry clerk's ace-he who is now the firm. Blessus! since we first put on that coat? Why it must be clean out of fashin by this time .-

A Lengthy Pastorate.

The late Rev. H. B. Ewell was the pasor of the Baptist Church at Pavilion, N. Y., for nearly half a century. He was a nan of strict honor and integrity and the highest Christian character. His word was as good as a government bond, and te never expressed an opinion that he id not firmly believe. He wrote as folws:-" It affords me great pleasure to ommend to the public, Gilmore's Arnatic Wine. I believe it to be the most desirable remedy that can be placed in any family. I am well acquainted with the manufacturers, and have confidence in their ability to do a good thing for suffering humanity. I have used their will do what is claimed for it. The Gilmore Remedies are for sale by Biesecker & Snyder, Mammoth Block, owe our lives to Shiloh's Consumption Cure." Sold by G. W. Benford & Son.

Somerset, Pa.

The Drummer Boy of the Cumberland. The Chicago Ledger says: Some time ago we presented to our readers a short sketch of Captain Mott, who was said to be the youngest soldier in our civil war. Since that time we have received information that Avery Brown, "The Drummer Boy of the Cumberland," lays claim to being the youngest soldier and sub-stantiates his claim with undeniable

Avery Brown was born at Delphos, Allen county, Ohio, on September 28, 1852. On August 18, 1861, he was mustered into the United States service at Camp Chase, Columbus Ohio, and joined Company C. Thirty-first Ohio Volunteer Infantry, First Brigade, Second Divison, Fourteeuth Army Corps. His age therefore, at muster, was eight years, eleven months and thirteen days, which certainly entides him to the distinction of being the youngest soldier in the civil war. His claim is conceded by all other claimants. At present Mr. Brown resides at Eikhardt, Ind. He is a marble-cutter by trade and a musician of no mean ability. He is highly respected as a citizen and as a member of the Grand Army post, is generous to a fault, and is ever ready to lend his aid to all worthy objects of charity, is a genial, God fearing gentleman, and conducts himself with the dignity becoming a man of his distinction and reputation as "The Drummer Boy of the Cu

I can cheerfully recommend Ely's Cream Balm to the suffering public for hay fever and stoppage of the air passages. I have tried it and find it gives immediate relief .- J. E. Rector, 209 Rock Going out with the tied—a newly-mar-

DYSPEPSIA

Causes its yletims to be miserable, hoperess, confused, and depressed in mind, very irritable, languid, and drowsy. It is a disease which does not get well o. Itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy to throw off the causes and tone up the digestive organs till they perform their duties willingly. Hosd's Sarsaparilla has proven just the required remedy in hundreds of cases. "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for dys-pepsia, from which I have suffered two years. I tried many other medicines, but none proved so satisfactory as Hood's Sarsaparilla." OMAS COOK, Brush Electric Light Co., THOMAS COOK, New York City.

baths are very expensive. The attendant stood me up and began to cover me with "For the past two years I have been afflicted with severe headaches and dyspepsia. I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and have found great relief. I cheer-

CENTRAL State Normal School.

Unsurpassed in its advantages Location healthful and inspiring Instructors experienced teachers and honored graduates of colleges, State appropriations this year $55,000. Extensive IMPROVEMENTS, Conveniences and Counforts. Superior Model and Training School. State aid to professional students.

The Old Reliable

Wagon. Schuttler

AMENDMENT.

ARTICLE XIX.

The manufacture, sale, or keeping for sale of intoxicating liquor, to be used as a beverage, is hereby prohibited, and any violation of this prohibition shall be a misdemoanor, punishable as shall be provided by law.

The manufacture, sale or keeping for sale of intoxicating liquor for other purposes than as a beverage may be allowed in such manner only as may be prescribed by law. The General Assembly shall, at the first assion succeeding the adoption of this article of the Constitution, cancel laws with adequate penalties for its enforcement.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution.

CHARLES W. STONE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

JAMES ELDON, A. M., Principal, Lock Haven, Pa.

BEAVER COLLEGE

I have just received two car loads of the SELF-OILING, STEEL-SKEIN SCHUTTLER WAGONS, the most complete Western Wagon in the market for Road or Farm Purposes. On the SCHUTTLER know the necessity of when hauling on hilly farms. Every part of the Wood-work of this wagon has laid in Stock three years before being worked up, insuring the work to be thoroughly seasoned before being ironed. Being the patentees of the

DOUBLE COLLAR AND OIL CUPS,

It is the only Wagon made that has this improvement. It avoids the necessity of taking off the wheels to grease, as in the old style; by simply turning a capthe wagon can be oiled in less than five minutes. This Wagon wants to be seen to be fully appreciated, and parties wishing to buy will do well to see it

Every Wagon Fully Insured.

In offering this make of Wagon to the public, will say I used the sa * Agents Wanted Throughout the County.

PETER HEFFLEY.

THE SOMERSET HERALD

Established 1827.

blace—he who is now the firm. Blessus! Is the Oldest Paper in the County. IS PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING.

> 52 NUMBERS EACH YEAR. IS RED HOT REPUBLICAN.

Is Read by the Best Class of People. Wine in my family for a number of years with good effect, and firmly believe it Is the Best Advertising Medium.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bonr- HAS A BONA FIDE CIRCULATION DOUBLE THAT OF ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN THE COUNTY.

It Contains all the County News.

HAS ALL THE COUNTY ADVERTISING.

Has all the Legal Advertising.

It has connected with it one of the BEST JOB OFFICES In Western Pennsylvania.

Does all Kinds of Job Work With Neatness and Despatch at PRICES THAT DEFY COMPETITION.

Terms, $2. per Year in Advance.

For prices for Advertising or Job Work, call on or address, THE HERALD,

SOMERSET, PA.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD.-SOMERSET & CAMBRIA BRANCH. DISTANCE AND FARE.

A MENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION
A proposed to the citizens of this Commonwealth for their approval or rejection by the tien, eral Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Published by order of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in pursuance of Article XVIII of the Constitution.

Joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met. That the following amendment is proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the Egitteenth Article there of: omerset to Washington Sumerset to Pittsburgh ....

BEST MADE

CLOTHING

PHILADELPHIA

A. C. YATES & CO.

SIXTH & CHESTNUT STS

It Will Be Glad Tidings to the

ESPECIALLY ON THE

WHITE

SELF-THREADING

Except the eye of the needle. A perfect no

HIVE TAKE-UP WITHOUT A CHECK

SPHING, A PERFECT

SELF-THREADING SHUTTLE

s teneton can be regulated without removing cated without experimenting. A

B IN THE MOST DURABLE and THOM

OUGHLY BUILT MACHINE IN THE

LEDGER BUILDING

Summer Arrangement-In effect since May 29, '87.

NORTH-BOUND TRAINS. JOHNSTOWN EXPRESS No. 91. * MAIL-No. 93. *

Passengers from Pittsburgh change cars for ofnts on the Somerset & Cambria at Rockwood. On Sondays this train will run two hours late rom Rockwood to Somerset, and five hours late

AND MUSICAL INSTITUTE. SOMERSET ACCOMMODATION-No. 95. F

Passengers for Somerset from the east and west on the Pittsburgh Division, change cars at Rock-

SOUTH-BOUND TRAINS. LADIES TO KNOW THE BALTIMORE MAIL-No. 92.* GREAT IMPROVEMENTS

Passengers for points east and west change cars at Hockwood. SEWING MACHINES, On Sundays this train will run twenty midate from Johnstown to Rockwood. ACCOMMODATION-No. 94, *

Letter 2.20 p m | Rockwood |
Johnstown 2.20 p m | Rockwood |
Ichhel. Sto p m | Cumberland |
Hooversville 2.20 p m | Pittbergh |
Stoystown 3.22 p m | Washington |
Ceiger 3.57 p m |
Solinser 4.05 p m |
Millord 4.16 p m It has a HIGH ARM: BULKY GOODS CAN SE HANDERD WITH EASE. It is absolutely On Sundays this train will run three hours and sifteen minutes late from Johnstown to Backwood Passengers leaving on this train can make con section at Rockwood with night Express train BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD,-PITTSBURGH DIVISION.

ROCKWOOD ACCOMMODATION-No. 96. †

Stitch Regulator and Indicator. EAST-BOUND TRAINS. By which any exact stitch can be made or duple Tenins Leave Comber d Ec. 7.30 A. M. 18:30 F. M. 7:40 4 7:49 4 2052 4 1:10 P. M. AUTOMATIC BOBBIN-WINDER 9:52 10:25 By which a hobbin can be wound so even as a 11:15 12:15 A. M bockwood 1256 **

WEST-BOUND TRAINS.

K-30 H

W. M. CLEMENTS, Manager, C. K. LORD, Gen'l Pass, Agt.

The time given is Eastern Standard Time.)

force the circular, small be amended, so as to read as follows:

Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications shall be entitled to vote at the polling place of the election district of which he shall at the time be a recedent and not elsewhere:

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least thirty days, second. He shall have resided in the state one year for if having previously been a qualified election or malive been citizen of the state, he shall have reasoved therefrom and returned, then six monthly immediately preceding the election.

time thereafter may, chact have to properly en-orce this provision.

Fourth. Every male citizen of the age of twen-yone years, who chall have been a citizen for airty days and an inhabitant of this state one cast next preceding an election, except at munic-pal elections, and for the last thirty days a resi-tent of the election district in which he may of-fer his vote, shall be entitled to vote at such elec-lon in the election district of which he shall at the time he a resident and not elsewhere for all stablished.

A true copy of the joint resolution.
CHARLES W. STONE.

MT. PLEASANT Classical Institute.

Five Graduating Courses of Study, Including Music and Art. Select Courses to suit students of various washs. German ion to the Students of the Students of Students of Students of Students from only five recent classes have entered fourteen leading Colleges and Universities. Students last term, Hz. Normal and business course. Mt. Pleasant has no saloons. Send postal for new entablente.

LEROY STEPHENS, Parsingent, augio-2m. Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

Traine Lance Comberf'd Ac.

WORLD. Ladies are astonished at, and greatly admire its LIGHT AND QUIET RUNNING I:20 ** Qualities, and at the immense vi and useful work that can be don Ladies of tasts and good judgment will enten stain the thought of buying any other Sewing Machine, after carefully examining the memori the WHITE. Persons wishing to champe ! JOSEPH CRIST, Ag't.,

PERCHEON, NORMAN, OR FRENCH DRAFT HORSE TERS. CLEVELAND BAYS AND FRENCH COACHER SADDLE AND CARRIAGE HORSES.

[The time given is Eastern Standard Time.]

NOTE.—On Sundays Rockwood Express leave Pittsburgh at 8.05, A. M., arrive at Rockwood at 12-20, U. M. Leave Rockwood at 4-00 r. M., arrive at Pittsburgh at 8 r. M.

Mail Trains connect at Rockwood with trains to and from Somerect and Johnstown, at Hyndman with trains to and from Bedford, at Garrett with trains to and from Berlin, at Salisbury June tion with trains to and from Salisbury.

W. G.LEWENTS, Manager. ICELAND AND SHETLAND POSES. Our contoners have the advantage of our many years' experience in breeding and investing upperfor quality; large variety and innersecollections; opportunity of comparing different breeds; and low prices, because of our uniqueled facilities, extent of business, milow rates of transportation.

NO OTHER ENTABLISHMENT in the WORLD offers such advantages to the purchaser. A MENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION proposed to the citizens of this Commonwealth for their approval or rejection by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Published by order of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in pursuance of Article XVIII of the Constitution. WORLD offers such advantages to the purchase PRICES LOW: TERMS EASY! Visitors welcome. Correspondence sulicit Circulars free. POWELL BROTHERS. institution. Joint resolution proposing an amendment to the institution of the commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and Bouse Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pounsel unit in General Assembly set. That the following proposed as an amendment to the constitution of the commonwealth of Pennselvania in neverther which the provisions of the eighteenth article are with the provisions of the eighteenth article.

Springboro, Crawford Co., Fo THE PEOPLE

lows:

"If twenty-two years of age or upwards, he shall have paid, within two years, a state or esunty tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months, and paid at least one month before the election," so that the section which reads as

CHERRY MALT PHOSPHATES.

78 Maiden Lane, N. Y. PENNSYLVANIA COLLEGE,

Gettysburg, Pa.

LIEBIG PHARMACAL CO.

FOUNDED IN 1832 Large Faculty. Two full courses of study

For Cataloguee, address
H. W. McKNIGHT, D. D.
Presides

HUBER G BUEBLER, A M

CATARRH Hay Fever

AY-FEVER Ely's Create Bala.