AGENTS WANTED -TO SELL-PHOTOGRAPH ALBUMS Actress and Jeweler.

The bete noir of woman who get into debt is the jeweler. One of these had a hard battle with an actress recently, in which he was cleverly worsted. He had been steadily prevented from making any seizures because he could not get his hands on her property. But one day word was brought to him that the lady was to hold a grand ball at her house that evening and he determined to catch her at last. On this occasion, thought he, she will certainly wear her jewelry and most expensive dresses and will display all her costly knick-knacks about her apartments. One consideration only made the jeweler's scheme fail. Knowing his customers, he saw that it would make him immensely unpopular if he should interrupt a lady creditor in the midst of her festivities, and fearing that such an act would drive trade from his door he made up his mind to wait till the conclusion of the fete before entering to make the seizure. So he secured the services of two officers and a coach and drove to a point just across the road from the actress' hotel. There he stopped and waited. The night was long and the dancers in the hotel across the way never weary. At the time when the enjoyment was at its height the actress' maid, etly to remove the precious knick-knacks and other valuables from the house by a back door. Morning dawned, and still the fete continued. At 7 o'clock, however, the last guest departed, and the jeweler, cold, hungry and impatient, climbed the stairway. He was received at the doorway by the actress, who was dressed in a plain, loose robe (her expensive dress had been spirited away). She said sweetly, "You have come to make a seizure of personal effects. Very well; I am about to retire, and when I have done so you are welcome to what I have on; but do not touch anything else, for remember I am in the suite that is rented by a third party." It was complete. Not a solitary piece of seizable property worth taking was left in the apartments and the jeweler retired defeated. Highly Recommended
