

EDWARD SULLIVAN, Editor and Proprietor. WEDNESDAY, November 16, 1887.

Do you hear anything deep? Fear victory into victory we march with steady tread.

Last Tuesday was a very cold day for Pennsylvania Democrats.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania set the pace for 1888 Tuesday.

The temperature in the county is 125 less this year than last.

Personal Liberty doesn't mean permission to blot out Sunday.

Three of a full Republican ticket elected in old Westmoreland.

Returns from the Southern elections indicate the usual amount of solidity in that quarter.

Indications are multiplying that the Republican party of Somerset county is in a healthy condition.

We believe it was Foraker, of Ohio, who said, "No rebel flag will be returned while I am Governor."

The "all hunt" is still popular among the fellows who have taken a hand in it! How do you like the result?

New York Republicans have discovered that there is not much to be gained in supporting a democratic county ticket.

Somerset county may not get the honor offered by the State Committee, but never reaching for the best she knew how.

The fellows who were complaining of Chairman Shafer's inactivity before the election are now hunting some one to kick them.

In Somerset county can give a majority of over 2200 in an "off year," what majority can she give in a Presidential year? Answer, 5,000.

President Cleveland "snubbed" Governor Foraker, and the Governor's Grand Army comrades know how to "snub" the President.

The result of the election in New Jersey Tuesday will give the Republicans a United States Senator in place of McPherson, Democrat.

Somerset county polled eleven hundred less votes this year than last, and still our majority is greater than that given Beaver.

The Republican Committee this year did some tall hunting. They were picked out as carefully as though selected for a League hall ball team.

The importation of southern fire-arms into Ohio didn't pan out well for the Democracy. The Republicans increased their majority several thousand.

What's to hinder us from having the next National Convention "immediately" at St. Louis, Missouri? Chicago, my child, Chicago!—responds the Chicago Tribune.

Milford township is the banner township of the county. Last year she gave Mayor 119 votes and a majority of 82. This year she gave Hart 138 votes and a majority of 112.

It looks as though Fayette had come into the Republican ranks to stay. He took his defeat like a man, just the same, and was among the first to telegraph his congratulations to his opponent.

Suppose Governor Beaver had been "bull-headed" into calling an extra session of the legislature by the Democratic press of the State, wouldn't it cost more than it would to have a club against the Republican party?

Somerset county gave the candidates for State offices on the Prohibition ticket 171 votes and a majority of 296 for Wolfe, last year; a falling off of 125 votes. The Labor candidates received 33 votes this year against 19 last year; a gain of 14.

Hos. William H. Kelley has been invited to his old home, an extra session of the legislature by the Democratic press of the State, wouldn't it cost more than it would to have a club against the Republican party?

It was not such an attack on the officers of the law as a blow at the law of the land itself.
