

U. S. SENATOR REDOLEDINGER gives it as his opinion that if nominated, Mr. Blaine will carry Virginia next year.

Does the tax on whiskey affect the interests of labor? If not, then why should it be allowed to remain, and tariff duties that intimately concern the interests of labor, be reduced or repealed * that the coming Congress will be in ses. follows: sion until August. The ground for this opinion is an expected, protracted and stabborn controversy over the tariff. The expenses attending the recent election in New York amounted to about one million dollars, one thousand of which come from Mr. Cleveland's pocket. Of course more than one-ball of this sume thing which, moreover, the most advanced of living free traders insists upon as was spent unnecessarily and corruptly.
