Emboldened by this refusal, the Hatfield gang made a raid into Pike County on New Year's Eve of the present year and burned old man-McCoy's house. McCoy's youngest daughter ttempted to quench the flames and was shot in the breast and killed. A young son was also killed on the same night, and the aged mother was beaten nearly to death. The old man escaped and carried the news to Pikeville. The people armed themselves and about thirty men formed a party to avenge the outrage. They went into Logan ounty and soon after killed two men, Jim Vance and John Hatfield, connected with the Hatfield gang. On Thursday, last this party crossed Tug River and proceeded a ort distance in West Virginia anmolested, but when nearing the residence of Captain Hatfield they came across a woman in the road with a bucket, who was standing picket and who immediately waved an alarm.
