At 11:49 the Senate was announced and all the members remained respectfully standing. The Senators, headed by the Chaplain and Sergeant-at-arms, with the presiding officer and the Secretary of the Senate following in the second rank appeared and took their places. Senator Ingails occupied the chair to the right of Speaker Carlisle. The Begents of the Smithsonian Institution, the Judges of the Court of Claims and of the Supreme lowed up this clue, and found that the Court of the District of Columbia, the District Commissioners, the members of New York and Chicago Limited, a train the Diplomatic Corps, the United States in whose description the agent grew clo-Supreme Court and Department of Jusquent.
