A Word to the Girls.

Because you live in the country and do ousework, and even some good, honest toil on the farm itself, is no reason why you should neglect certain little niceties of life, such as the care of your hands and teeth. You probably will not be able to keep the former white and soft as if you used them only for dainty em broidery, but a few minutes each day pent in caring for them will show at east that they are well kept, and the igns of toil that cannot be eradicated con need not be ashamed of. The nails can be kept nicely trimmed; they cannot be even moderately long, but they may be shapely and pointed. Perhaps you annot afford to buy the outfit of a "mancure" but you undoubtedly have a pair of small embroidery scissors; the file you must replace as best you may with the one in your penknife, or failing in that with a piece of coarse sandpaper; and the chamois polisher, costing anywhere from sixty cents to two dollars, you can make yourself. Take a child's block about an inch thick and three inches wide by five long-large enough to grasp it firmly-tack a piece of soft cloth for padding, and over that a piece of the chamois you keep for polishing silveron one of the edges, and you have an article that may not be ornamental, but will an swer every purpose. Soften your hands by washing in warm water with some good toilet soap for a few minutes, then with the small scissors trim the nails, rounding them nicely, and cutting the corners very low. With some blunt instrument (if you have not a file) push back the flesh from the base of the nails, and trim away all the dead skin. Now apply your polisher and brush vigorously for a few minutes. Do this once a week, and every day spend a few minutes in the use of the polisher, and your hands will repay you in their neat appearance for the time you have spent .-American Agriculturist.
