Johnston prizes held on having the only colored draught in Pennsylvania.

Among the prizes granted last week were to Samuel Ziegler, of Lumbertown, Pa.

The spring term of the Somerset Normal opened in the Academy building, Tuesday morning, and there were 30 students enrolled.

J. H. K. Schmidt, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, was in the city Tuesday morning.

Mr. Alex. Bonds and family, of Somerset, arrived in the city Tuesday morning.

There was only one marriage license issued since last report. It was to Wm. F. Bond, of Philadelphia, and Miss J. O. Bond, of Somerset.

Commissioner of Education has just returned from Chambersburg, where he attended a lot of fine young horses as were taken away from Somerset county.

Quite a number of new names have been added to our subscription list during the past week. Come on, friends, now is the time to subscribe. The commission promises to be interesting.

Miss Bertha Miller, one of Somerset's finest and most accomplished dancers, left for an extensive tour through Iowa and Nebraska last week. She intends to remain until fall taking her momentary friends and relatives.

Colonel Andrew Stewart, of Ohio, Pa., son of the famous "Tartan Army" Stewart, and generally known as "Black," is a member of the United States House of Representatives in Congress, has announced himself a candidate for Congress in the Twenty-fourth Pennsylvania district.

Chiefly Representative Weller, of Greentown, and Mr. H. H. Bartsch, of Greentown, were among our callers Monday. "Mary" has just returned from a trip to Texas where he bought several hundred head of stock, which he expects to bring to Somerset, within the next thirty days.

A. B. & O. ENGINE EXPLODES AT ROCKWOOD.

Narrow Escape of the Engineer, Fireman and Frank S. Cunningham.

Some time since we announced that the United States Express Company, of Philadelphia, had secured the business of the Somerset and Ohio Express Co., and that the latter had been organized.

The United States Express Company is a large concern, and has a long history. It is one of the largest concerns of its kind in the United States.

The Somerset and Ohio Express Co. is a branch of the United States Express Company, and has been in business for many years.

The explosion occurred on Monday morning, at Rockwood, Pa. The engine was being used for hauling freight, and was moving at a high speed.

The explosion was caused by a defect in the engine. The fireman, Frank S. Cunningham, and the engineer, both escaped with serious injuries.

The fireman, Frank S. Cunningham, was severely injured. He was thrown from the engine and landed in a pool of water.

The engineer was also severely injured. He was thrown from the engine and landed in a pool of water.
