How to Frighten Burglars.

"Do you know what kind of a burglar alarm I shall have in my house?" said a gentleman interested in an electrical business to a reporter.

"What burglar would have the impudence to keep stealing with an eighteen inch gong striking fifty times a minute?"

A Soft Thing. Two old friends met on a train between Dallas and Fort Worth.

Oldest of Old Maids. The following description of a model woman, written about 5,000 years ago, is very pertinent to the matrimonial question.

How a Steamer Got Ice. The United States fish commission steamer Albatross, Lieut. Com. Z. L. Tanner commander, recently arrived in port.

A Curious Pardon. A pardon was issued May 23rd by Gov. Martin, of Kansas, to Charles B. Rotrock, of Ottawa county, who killed his wife.

Distance Covered by a Waltz. Mr. Edward Scott, in his "Dancing and Dancers," makes the following estimate of the distance actually waltzed over in an evening by a belle of the ball room.

Do You Have What Ails You? Is that dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, and the law of kinship, result in consumption, and end in the grave.

Thief Arrested. The news was received with the utmost satisfaction by the community that he had terrorized; but the arrest of a disease that is stealing away a loved and valued life, is an achievement that should inspire heart-felt gratitude.

Riding the Yellow Pony. In the former day procession in Haven one of the "Lancasterian school boys" led a yellow pony.

The World's Quinine. The yearly production of quinine is estimated to be about 15,000,000 ounces. This is chiefly furnished by eighteen factories—two in Holland, two in England, two in Italy, three in France, four in the United States and six in Germany.

What made the Tower of Pisa lean? "Because of the famine in the land," said a boy who got the tower confined with Joseph's brethren.
