But you've got to know me fust.

When I fust begun my term,

I was standing mighty firm;

But the people were mistaken-

Off their base as I may say-

My party said I was too good

And acted kind o' shy,

I only shouted for Reform

Would let the party bust,

No matter who might kick,

The people thought I meant it.

And it made my party sick;

And shouted "Go aboud?"

For I knowed what I was doing

You can bet your bottom dollar

Now my party sees there wasn't

Any grounds for its disgust,

Of course I talked Reform in all

The letters that I wrote.

But now you know I done it

For-I'm all right when you know me,

(Promenade-full orchestra.)

But you've got to know me fust.

Just to catch the Mugwump vote;

Yes, I'm all right when you know me,

Just retain that in your mind,

You must be growing blind;
