The rescale will be turned out on the fourth of next March.

Harrison and Morton are not only elected but the Republicans will have a maority in the next Congress.

Chairman Shafer knew what he was talking about when he said the ticket would have 2,500 in Somerset county.

The good news comes flashing in from along the entire horizon. Harrison and jorities. New York swings into line to the tens of "home markets and protection to American industries." The watchfires learned bright from the Atlantic to the golden gate of California, and as the night were on the Republican sentry at New York started the glad cry along the Hear "Twelve o'clock ' and all's well" "Ail's well," called Pennsylvania, and the friumphant, exultant cry was taken up by the sentries in Ohio, Illinois, Intiana, Nebruska, Colorado, Necada and Califernia. Iowa caught up the wester 's call. and sped it on by may of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, New Hampshire and Vermont to far off Maine, from whence it came in clarion tones down the count by Massehusetts, Rhode Islawi and Conumphant, pestective North, and New York repeated, "All's well," It was a great day for Republicans, and Grover the Big, found when the pollschood, that it was "a condition, not a theory," that confronted him. All ball! the younger Tippecance! All half! the galiant Morton, whose name on the ticket lent such valuable aid in swinging the grand old Empire State into line.

The fight was hot, bitter and long, and when night came to the embattled hosts the Republican phalanx was found shoul. der to shoulder, with the proud consciousness that the victory they had won was in the interests of protection, prosperity and home markets over those who, under the guise of tariff reform, would have brought the American workingman into competition with the illy-paid labor of

In local politics we have done as well, Somerset, Bedford and Blair give our Congressional candidate largely increased majorities. Mr. Senli's majority in the district will be over 4001,

The Republicans of this borough and township commenced gathering in the Newarm office shortly after the polls were closed and patiently awaited the serical of neturns. Among the first sussecret received WE'VE GOT 'EM! was one from Chairman Brice of the Downeratic National committee dairung New York for Cleveland. This was hooted by report. Every message up till eleven a clock from that state showed large galles for the Republican candidates and the crowd claser ed each message to the echo as it was read by Chairman Shafer.

The streets were crowed with people cheering and howling, and when the telegram from Chaleman Quay saying "We have Indiana Gives "Young Tip" 6,000 New York," was received the scene about HEEXAD office was simply indescribable. One faction of the Democrats met in Fish er's Book store and the other in the hall over Coffeeth & Ruppel's law office As usual they were very demonstratics before the returns commenced to your in but it wasn't long until they heard 'womerhing drap," and it fell very heavy.
