AND ENTERPRISING.

Weekly in taei Union.

THE PITTSBURGH POST For the year 1889 will continue with redonb Wilder, Cash Marry, John Prince and Net-son and Andrew Steamis. It is not likely that any of them can get out of the trap set reaching and thorough character. Its mar-act reports, local and telegraphic, covering every branch of trade, have won a wide repof the Pennsylvania Hospital yesterday, at our political and ousiness history, and promises to see the conclusion of the great battle witness feats of human strength, which the waged on the questions of Tariff Reform and doctor deciated were simply marvelous.

Students of the various medical colleges were present in large numbers, and even the business, industry, finance, legislation and politics. Washington and Harristong will be alike great centers of news. The Old World is on the vogge of a volcano of war and revolution. The Pitrsmann Daily Post will print all the news.
