Terms of Publication. sublished every Wednesday morning at $2 00 per angum, if paid to advance; otherwise $2.00 all everably be charged. Nombertpline will be di continued until all grounders are paid up. Postmasters neglecting month as when subscribers do not take out their ner will be hald responsible for the subscripsubscribers removing from one postoffice to another should give us the name of the former as well as the present officer. Address. THE SOMERSHY HERALD, SOMBING, PA. A. C. HOLBERT, AT-LAW, SOMEONE, Pa.

Office with John H. Uhl. FRED, W. BIESECKEL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Sometset, Pa.

G EORGE R. SCULL. JOHN R. SCOTT. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Summerset, Pa.

J. KOOSER, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, U. TRENT, ATTORNEY AT LAW, SANTON PA.

M. J. PRITTS.
ATTORNEY-AV-LAW,
Somered, Pa. fire in Somether County Bank. II L RAER. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, SUMMERSEL, PR. will practice in Senterect and adjulying com-

w. H. Rurrica. this, and have given us a large share of their OFFECTH & RUPPEL ATTORNEYS AT LAW. becomes entrained to their rate will be by and penetually attended to. Office on the street, opposite Mammeth Black. WM. H. KOONTZ.

DENNIS MEYERS, AT LAW,

All legal business unimeted to his care will be broated in with possipitions and admire, timber leads Street, opposite the Court House. JOHN O. KIMMEL.

will green to all business entracted to his care Superstant adjusting mainties, with prompt on and filmity. Office on Main Cross Street, leve Fider's Book Store. JAMES L. PUGH. other in Manusch Rock, up stairs. Entrance Main Cross Street, Collections made, estade of interexaminat, and all logal business at odel to with groundiness and nicelity.

L. C. COLBOROS COLBORN & COLBORN. All business estimated to our one will be supply and fatherity attended to. Collections take in Scientific and adjusting estimate in Scientific and conveyancing done on rea-

HENRY, F. SCHELL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. orașt Pa-

VALENTINE HAY, ATTURNEY AT LAW, SUBJECT PA

JOHN H. UHILATIORNEY-AT-LAW, Sheetings and Muslins. Will promptly aslend to all business entrusted him. Money advanced on collections, &c. Of-e in Mammoth Hard

DR J. E. BIESECKER, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

Tembers his professional services to the citizens of Somerser, and victority, Office in Hiesenker & Suppler's Drug Store. DR. H. S. KIMMELL,

DR. H. BRUBAKER,

DR. J. M. LOUTEER, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Its housed permanently in Sumetset for the moment of his production. Office on Main street, a year of Dring Store.

DE J. S. MMILLEN. a to special election to the preservation of at 1 o'clock p. m., the following described a ratoral texts artificial sets inserted. All at 1 o'clock p. m., the following described artificial electric via:

DR. JOHN BILLS. Office up-claim in Cook & Beerile Block. DR. WM. COLLENS.

see found at all times prepared in diract ainds work such as filling, regulating, extracting, Actional teeth of all kinds and of the best DE J. K. MILLER

Somerset County Bank. (ESTABLISHED ISTA)

C. J. HARRISON, M. J. PRITTS. PROBLEMST. Collections made in all parts of the United States.

CHARGES MODERATE. Parties whiching to send money West can be ab-minodated by draft on New York in any som-derthose made with primiproses. It. S. Bondo and and rold. Money and valuables secured one of Reshold's calebrated mass, with a Sar-grall Legal Holidays Observed.

ACCOUNTS SOLICITED.

CURTIS K. GROVE. SOMERSET, PA. SUGGLES, SLEIGHS, CARRIAGES, SPRING WAGONEL BUCK WAGONE.

AND EASTERN AND WESTERN WORK Furnished on Short Setice. Painting Done on Short Time,

My work is made out of Therengtly Scanned Wood, and the few few seef Seef, Schematially Constructed, Neatly Finished, and Warranted to give Sathraction.

Employ Only First Class Workmen. Repairing of All Kinds is My Line Bone on Short Notice. Prices REASONABLE and

All Work Warranted.

Call and Examine my Block, and Learn Price he Wagon-work, and furnish Selves for Wind Mile. Remember the place, and call in.

CURTIS K. GROVE. (East of Court Borne) SOMERSET, PA

MARLES HOFFMAN, MERCHANT TAILOR.

DITTSBURGH FEMALE COLLEGE Latest Styles, and Lowest Prices.

ATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

Somerset Herald.

ESTABLISHED 1827.

MARING UP LOST TIME

THE PITCAIRNS IN CHARGE.

PITTSHURGH WAS ASLEEP.

A PUFF FOR JEANNETTE.

DIDN'T THEY SER TOUNSTORY?

to be in or about the station.

ing little city.

who were awake.

ALTOONA GETS THE GO-BY.

LOSING TIME AGAIN.

VOL. XXXVII. NO. 37.

It is to Your Interest

TO BUY YOUR

Drugs and Medicines

SUCCESSORS TO C. N. BOYD.

None but the purest and best kept in stock, and when Drugs become inert by stand-log, as certain of them do, we destroy them, rather than impose on our enstomers.

You can depend on having your

PRESCRIPTIONS & FAMILY RECEIPTS

filled with cure. Our prices are as low as any other first-class house and on many articles much lower.

The people of this county seem to know patronage, and we shall still continue to give them the very best goods for their money.

Do not forget that we make a specialty of FITTING TRUSSES.

We guarantee satisfaction, and, if you have had trouble in this direction,

SPECTACLES AND EYE-GLASSES

in great variety; A full set of Test Lenses.

Come in and have your eyes examined. No charge for examination, and we are confident

Respectfully,

BIESECKER & SNYDER.

Black and Colored Silks. Velvets an Inshes.

Colors and Black.

to $2 75 a yard.

Pittsburgh. .

PUBLIC SALE

- OF -

DWELLING HOUSE.

g 5 acres and 35 perches, street measure

TERMS:

MERCHANT TAILOR. .

(No. 2 MANHOTH BLOCK.)

SONATED.

IN SEVEN DAYS.

Also Schools of Elecution and Fine Arts and est school for powing indice : instreasmed home comforts and care. Central: Healthrid Charg-yory moderate: Next term will open January we can suit you. Come and see us.

SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1889.

THE GOOD WIFE. BY AMELIA E. BARK. "I am looking for a wife, True and kind and pretty I don't ask that she should be Stylish, wise and witty. I want a Good Housekeeper Pray how shall I tell her? Read the secret, mother dear." 'Try and see her cellar :

"If you find it clean and sweet, All in tip-top order, You may venture a kind word, Just to cross the border.

Parlors are no trusty key, So, if you would guess her, Never mind the bric-a-brac Watch the kitchen dresser. " Tis the girl that's orderly

Makes the household pleasure; And not many understand How to take her measure, She may play a 3ne nocturne, Paint a pretty cluster;

But be sure that she can use Both the broom and duster. "For the pleasant evening hours She has used adorning: .

See her in the kitchen, son, At the early morning, If she can, with cheerful heart, Every duty carry, She's the wife for daily life-

She's the girl to marry. "If-and, ob, be sure of this-She's good to her mother. To her father dutiful-

If not, choose quother, For the daughter that will sucer At her parents' life, Is not worth a weeding ring, Nor the name of wife."

THE PRESIDENT-ELECT'S

LAST DAY AT HOME. Harrison passed a very quiet Sunday, of the distinguished party. taking his usual walk and attending di-FALL #1888 WINTER, vine service at the First Presbyterian Wool Henriettas, at 50 cents to $1.50 event.

tender to them the heartfelt assurance of of mere congratulation, however sincere Our sense of personal esteem and gratifi-Saturday, March 2'89 swerving confidence as well as the warm said:

No. 3. A percel of land situate in Brothers.

No. 3. A percel of land situate in Brothers and yours tenderly in our hearts, and we mind and heart for each of you, I love will remember you at the throne of this city. It has been my own cherished both Hoffier, Plank Bond, and others, contain grace in our prayers, beseeching that God home. Twice before I have been my own cherished have been my own cherished been been my own cherished been my own cherish Ten per cent, on day of sale: balance of one-third april 1, 1990, when passession will be given and deed delivered; one third april 1, 1990, and ope-third april 1, 1800, with interest on deferred payments from April 1, 1800. GEODIST C. LUMITY. Administrator. WM. H. MILLER, Guardian &c.

EP.O. HOSTETLER ing, and arrangements were hastily made | new and responsible duties. All the Latest Styles of Fall and Winter Sultings each member of the congregation press-debtor. They have made the debt so nd Overcostings. Satisfaction Guaranteed, and CATARHR.—Prof. C. R. Cook, Prince cital ligh school, Gt. Bend. Pa., formally of soperact county, Pa., says of Nationa's Research for Catagons: "It is the best pallinter for Catagons: "It is the best pallinter for Catagons: "It is the simplest and ensies to use of anything I ever tried. If any friend of mine should read this, I wish him to understand that I say with all sincerity that I am acquainted with Mr. I. E. Grav, one of the proprietors of Mattre's Remedy for Cataria. He is an upright, homorible gentleman, and his melicine is the best cataria remedy that can be found. It has cured us, and, I believe it will cure any person suffering from cataria. the door. The evening at the Harrison residence look for direction and safety. My famwas without incident, though a number ily unite with me in grateful thanks for people and flags were displayed. of personal friends called to speak a this cordial good-by, and with me wish parting word.

THE PROGRAM FOR TO-DAY. The General will leave his home at 2:15 M. GRAY & CO., RUSH, SUSCERASONA Hovey, Major Denny and other distin- At its conclusion the General re-entered DR. SADLER FRAUDULENTLY IMPER- reaches the corner of Ohio and Pennsyi- The Presidential train is composed of of 400 or more veterans of George H. combination car (No. 67), smoker and SEVEN COMPLAINTS FROM SIX COUNTIES Thomas Post and escorted to the depot. baggage, the regular run of which is on 3:15, and the party will include General press. Kee and the two children, Russell Har-sleeping car "Iolanthe," occupied by the rison and wife, Mrs. Lord, of Washing- press representatives accompanying the ton, a sister of Mrs. Harrison; Mrs. party. It is kept in reserve for special Eaton, of Ohio, sister of General Harri-purposes, such as the present, and for the son; Mrs. W. H. H. Miller, Private use of private parties on long trips. It Secretary Halford, private stenogropher is finished in oak and trimmed with somation for the greatest skill in all that to the eye and ear, and can be proceed by present of frank Tibbets and wife, Miss Sanger, maroon plush. Its prominent feature is stenographer, and perhaps Mr. Huston. stenographer, and perhaps Mr. Huston, a saloon in the centre occupying its full portion of the city were gayly decorated elect. stream of callers who came to say good- trimmings make it appear a vertiable and said: by, many persons coming in from the Oriental palace on wheels. surrounding country. At 10 o'clock the THE BIOR INTO PERSSYLVANIA. General received T. S. Quincy, President of the Commercial and Traveling Men's Republican Cinb or Chicago, who called to present an elegant grip-sack donated.

POLIS.

Pittsnum, Pa., Feb. 26.—The President demonstration. The State of Pennsylvania has an especial interest to me general charge of the train and H. J. along the route from Indianapolis here, among the States. Not many miles from Myers was conductor. Whether because of helies and gentlemen anxious to par- an hour late. ticipate in the firewell demonstration to the President-elect.

At 2 o'clock sharp Governor Hovey and Mayor Denny drox up in front of the Harrison residence behind a pair of thirty minutes of the lest time was made. Governor Beaver returns the confusion. Shaffer, a personal friend of the General. Governor Hovey and the Mayor alighted The officers of the truin, on engine No. the very pleasant duty of escorting the vision another precaution was taken to and hyacinths. General to the station on his eventful train to the station on his eventful trip to Washington. A crowd of a hun-INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb. 24.—General and in the yard watching the departure come disabled.

THE GENERAL LEAVES HIS HOME. Shortly General and Mrs. Harrison Church, Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. McKee emerged from the house, preceded by his daughter, accompanied him, and the the Governor and Mayor. The General fact that this was his last Sunday in occupied the first carriage with Governor Indianapolis caused a larger congrega- Hovey and Mayor Denny, and Mrs. Hartion than usual. The church wascrowd- r son and Mr. and Mrs. McKee occupied Fine imported Woolen Dress Goods in ed when the party entered, and every the next carriage. A string of carriages eye was turned toward them as they and a thousand or more people followed Broad Cloths 50 inches wide at $1 00 slowly made their way to their family the carriages down Delaware street. The pew in front of the altar. The music greatest enthusiasm prevailed along the was selected with special reference to the route. Groups of people cheered enthusiast cally as the carriages drove by, the Plaid Stripes, Mixtures and funcies, all Pastor Haines delivered a short but General constantly tipping his hat and wool 50 inch Suiting cloth, 60 cents per elequent sermon, without any reference waving his hand farewell to some old

Trimmings, Braids and Buttons, Corsets, bear in mind that which is prominent in after cheer went up as the General passeres, Blankets, Flannels, Table Linens, the last service prior to the departure throng was innumerable. Here the vetfrom among us of one who for more than erans of George H. Thomas Post were in grief to the members of this church were the General had reached the city. From lustily. They then fell in line and escor- tudes, it was thoroughly enjoyed by those | departure. This is not the place or time for words ted the General to the station.

GENERAL HARDSON'S PARTING SPERCH with you, as you well know, the un- ing partially secured, General Harrison 6:55.

that is in your minds and every good for a reception at the door. The sisle Let me say farewell to all my Indiana was cleared and the party moved to the friends. For the public honors that door. As they stood near the entrance have come to me I am their grateful ed their hands and spoke a word of part- large than I can never discharge it. ing as he passed out. The President- There is a great sense of loneliness in elect and his wife were visibly moved by the discharge of high public duties. The the "God bless you" of their friends, moment of decision is one of isolation and their eyes were moistened with tears but there is One whose help comes even during the half hour that they stood at | into the quiet chamber of judgment, and to His wise and unfailing guidance will I that these years of separation may be full of pence and happiness for each of you."

THE PRESIDENTIAL TRAIN STARTS. P. st. to-morrow, escorted by Governor The speech was received with cheers. guished citizens. When their carriage his car and the train at once proceeded vania streets it will be met by an escort the engine and four cars. The first is a His train will start for Washington at the New York and St. Louis limited ex-

The second is the Pullman buffet and Chairman of the Republican State Com- width, and furnished with tables, desks, THE PRESIDENT-PLEET LEAVES INDIANA- in any well appointed library.

The third is the car "Maywood," one station when the Presidential train reach- from the lower end of the railroad yard simularity between a flash of lightning INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb. 25.—This city of the ordinary Pullman sleepers—a fit ed it. The committee appointed by the down the tracks. A squad of police kept wore a gala appearance to-day in honor companion, however, in point of con- Legislature to extend General Harrison them from wandering inside the yard of the departure of General Harrison for struction and adornment to the others in an invitation to visit the Capitol, board-Somerset, Pa. A. H. NORCROSS, D. D., Philisburgh, Pa. Washington to assume the duties of Pres- the train. In this car area portion of the ed the train, but the General was unable the President's train.

wave their greetings.

Harrisburg.

INCIDENTS OF THE PLYING TRIP.

with the compliments of Mr. Harrison.

THE P. R. P. BEATS THE WORLD.

who were kept outside the gates.

AT THE PENNSYLVANIA CAPITAL.

ident. Many buildings in the business friends accompanying the President to comply on account of the train being About half-past 2 o'clock word was scheduled and not permitting a stop. given by the railroad men that the Presiwith flags and bunting, while the stars | The last car is President Roberts' pri- Meanwhile the crowd outside were dent had alighted down at Maryland and stripes floated from staffs on the vate car, No. 120. It is finished outside clamoring for the next President to make avenue and the crowd slowly dispersed. tops of many others. Trunks and par- in dark red, and bears the words "The his appearance, and Mr. Harrison, ac- some laughing at the way in which they cels were leaving the Harrison residence Pennsylvania" on the cornice over the companied by the visitors, went to the had been eluded, while others took their all the morning, but about mon the windows. The platforms are so arranged packing had been finished and the fam- as to allow the members of the distinily began to don their traveling dresses.

General Harrison's time was pretty well out suffering discombet. Inside rich occupied with receiving the constant curtains and handsome brass and nickel his hand, General Harrison consented rived, and it was not until the train THE GENERAL'S INTEREST IN PENNSYLVANIA. that its occupants were the train officials My Friends.

by the club. Mr. Quincy's speech was but no incidents of special importance. here, in one of your beautiful valleys, of their propinquity to the permanent briefly responded to by General Harri- Great crowds of people were gathered at near the town of Mercersburg, was my locale of Presidents and consequent lack son, who thanked the club for its sup- all the stations until away into the night. mother's birthplace. I am glad this of curiosity concerning them in passe or port and for its handsome present. As 2 There was a jam and almost a panic at morning to receive at the hands of my in esse, or from other cause, the train o'clock approached the streets of the Columbus. The Presidential party retir fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania this cor- commanded less attention there than on city began to fill up, and Pennsylvania ed late, and all was quiet in the car when dial greeting. It is very pleasant to know any other part of the route. The occustreet was soon thronged with thousands | the train drew into this city, nearly half | that I shall carry with me to Washing | pants of the train turned their attention ton the good wishes of so many people. to the lunch and then to preperations for [Cheers.] I thank you again for your debarking. Engineer Lowe not only ALTOONA, Pa., Feb. 26.-From Pitts- friendliness, and will beg you to excess "pulled the throttle vulve wide open, GOVERNOR HOVEN AND MAYOR DENNY CALL. burgh to Altoona, the first division on the attempt to speak further in the midst as has been sometimes remarked on sim-

GOVERNOR BEAVER'S REGRETS. Governor Beaver returned from Phila- the train drew up on the track alongwhite horses drawing a handsome car-riage, the private turnout of Mr. J. C. vision of the road, was well represented. He telegraphed his regrets to Baltimore. Maryland avenue, at which point the A BEAUTIFUL FLORAL BASKET. executive committee of the inaugural

York, Pa., Feb. 26.-Just as the train committee was in waiting with carriages and walked arm-in-arm up the pathway 84, which hauled the cars up the western was pulling out of Harrisburg, a gentle- for the travelers. to the door, where General Harrison met stope of the Alleghenies, was Alex Pit- man handed up to Russell Harrison a With as little delay as might be Genthem and cordially shook hands. The cairn; the conductor was John Piteairn, beautiful floral basket made of Marechal eral Harrison and party were seated and ceremony was entirely informal. Gover- while the Superintendent's personal rep- Neil and La France roses, with sprays of then driven rapidly to the Arlington Honor Hovey said they had come to perform resentative was Ed. Pitcairn. On this di- fuschia and bunches of carnation pinks tel, where they at once sought the privaev of their apartments. Others on the dred or so people stood on the sidewalk order to be on hand should No. 84 be- As the train left behind it the venera- said, and the trip of the President-elect ble city where General Harrison's grand- to the capital was at an end. It had been father was nominated for the Presidency, accomplished in twenty-three hours and There was no demonstration of any the General, Mrs. Harrison, and the mem-eighteen minutes, without a single miskind at Pittsburgh, the only persons in bers of the family remained out upon hap and with great comfort. the train shed being railroad employes the platform some little time. The train and a few early passengers who chanced was moving slow when a bright-faced. The big van piled high with trunks beboy, wearing a knit cap with tassel, and longing to the Harrison party did not carrying a small photographer's outfit, arrive at the Arlington Hotel sooner At Jeannette, the young Windsor of rin beside the train and called out to the than the first visitors to see General Har-Western Pennsylvania, it had been ex- General that the train would stop shortly rison. Private Secretary Halford repected by the enterprising manager that and he wanted to take his picture.

an exhibition of the cas wells would be | The General nodded his approval and stances no one was permitted to see the made, but no stop could be permitted, watched the zealous lad with interest as President-elect. It was announced that Seven months ago there was no house on he kept pace with the moving train. General Harrison wound see no persons the site of what is now a bustling, thriv- Opening the door, the General called except a few intimate personal friends The faint gray streaks of dawn met the Mrs. Harrison and have their photograph half to callers.

which were greatly tripod and, waving his hand for them to rupher were kept busy devoting whata third of a century has been identified with this Christain church as a member with this Christain church as a member with this Christain church as a member well-known from the committee of the Pennsylvania cap. The train moved up a little and so a weather or property and the committee of the Pennsylvania cap. The train moved up a little and so a weather or property sent if prepare, he uncovered the lense for a ever time they could get to its examinaout from us for a season to places of in-fluence and responsibility that we should about many and as the General's car-dent-elect to visit the hall of the House cured a second picture. The General in-fluence and responsibility that we should about many and he said it was Hugh rison and Mrs. McKee, and Senators cheer went up from the thousands of in order that the members of the Gener- Beaver, whereupon Mr. Russell Harrison Hiscock and Collom and Representatives with people. At the intersection of Mar- sections of the train, in which, as stated, young artist to send her one of the pho- Rosseler, wife of the proprietor of the permit you, sir, who have been so long ket and Pennsylvania streets the memand so intimately associated with us here bers of the Legislature were drawn up in gain of thirty minutes of the time lost viding," said he, "I have secured a good in Christain life and work, to go out line, and as the carriages passed through west of Pittsburgh. It was a glorious run picture." These were the only photowithout one word or expression of our the open files the lawmakers cheered and in the bracing air of the high atti-

BOWN THE NORTHERN CENTRAL. This being and legal representatives of Mrs. Rebeing C. Mirrer, dec'd., will offer at public label on the presentation of the Chief street of the Union Strtion, where a crowd of middle division was made just before Aland the train pulled out of PennsylvaGeorge Williams and Ex-Assistant Atto-day by the necessity of separation and fully 10,000 awaited them. The General toons was reached, in order to save time min's capital city at 11, attached to engine torney General McCammon, who boardespecially by the sense of the serious, the and his party were escorted to their car. at the station. Superintendent McClel- No. 17, in control of George Rule. J. C. ed the train as it neared the capital, led solemn responsibility that is to be laid The great throng continued cheering, lan came on board with Conductor Long Hammell was conductor and Trainmaster the way, escorting the party to the carupon you-responsibilities which no and the President-elect presently appear. while engine No. 1,103, with Engineer O. Mill had general supervision of the riages.

ARRIVAL AT BALTIMORE AT 1:15. amid a storm of cheering.

the railroad shop hands were out in force journey, and was evidently very tired. At 9 o'clock the day had fairly begun THE JOURNEY ENDED. in car No. 120, and General Harrison and ton Hotel. fast as the train ran its way along the banks of the "Blue Juniata," the beautiful scenery adding much to the delights of the meal. The table was adorned by a handsome bouquet of roses, which came

Superintendent McClellan's promisthat the train should reach Harrisburg on time was redeemed, the cars rolling into the depot promptly at 10:30, in the presence of a great assemblage of people chairs and lonnges similar to those found HARRISBURG, Feb. 26.—There was a the crowd was augmented by quite a great crush at the Pennsylvania Railroad number of loungers, who strong along in an invitation to visit the Capitol, board- and maintained a clear pussageway for The Arab who invented alcohol died very often the love that influences the WHOLE NO. 1965.

the story of care or neglect.

It is said that attendants in bath housslowed into the station and it was seen ilar occasions, but he, "laid the lever adhere to this rule. away back on the tender," and at 2:30 reducing the temperature to cold, good bly, are hereto attached, with other results will surely follow. As a preventative against taking cold, report. All of which is respectfully subcold bathing is excellent.

never commenced-and the bath I have the citizens of the County, should be mentioned substituted. Good sense is always on the side of a the year no pestilence or contagions dissure foundation, and it is better to build ease was visited, or accident happened at apon what is truly your own, securing the County Home, to create further suf-ceived all callers, and except in a few ining will help much.

Mrs. Lord to come out with him and would give a reception of an hour and a severing practice of half that time will of the Governor and Chief Justice of the ATTORNOVAT-LAW. Somewast, Pa. ed. When Ohio street was reached the enjoyed, especially by these who for the the young amateur hastily adjusted his party, and Mr. Halford and his stenegery one.—Jenne Denne, Gathered Pearls.

> and an officer. Certainly it is not unfitting when long tried and honored members go when long tried and honored members go when long tried and honored members go in the darkness of the Pensylvania cap. The train moved up to the Pensylvania cap. The train moved up to the darkness of th people that was heard for many squares, al Assembly might pay their respects to opened the gate and assis'ed the little Belden, of New York, and Adams, of we rush on to met her. our God speed. I am sure it would be a great many squares, all Assembly might pay their respects to opened the gate and assis ed the little fellow up the steps and the General shook. Illinois, also sent floral tributes to her. If you would find a great many faults, installant. his hand and told him to give his regards A handsome basket of orchids, pinks and be on the lookout; if you would find inal law. I to fail to break through the silence of this
>
> This point to the station it was an impene
> All the way up and down the mount
> The General had reached the city. From this hand and tota min to give his regards this point to the station it was an impene
> All the way up and down the mount
> The General had reached the city. From this hand and tota min to give his regards the Governor. As the train lilies of the valley adorns Mrs. Harri
> The General had reached the city. From this hand and tota min to give his father, the Governor. As the train lilies of the valley adorns Mrs. Harri
> The General had reached the city. From this hand and tota min to give his father, the Governor. As the train lilies of the valley adorns Mrs. Harri
> The General had reached the city. From this hand and total number of the city is a station of the station of the city. From this hand and total number of the city is a station of the city. The city is a station of the city is a station of the city is a station of the city. From the city is a station of the city is a station of the city. From the city is a station of the city is a station of the city is a station of the city. From the city is a station of the city is a station of the city is a station of the city. From the city is a station of the c pulpit in its relation to the peculiar extrable throng. The buildings were black ain side there was a race between the two moved off Mrs. McKee requested the son's dressing table, the gift of Mrs. the look-in.

> > anapolis yesterday the train bearing the From Harrisburg to Baltimore the ride ington. The inaugural committee of ar- with a smile and present with a bow.

alone that those few left the station.

REISTEGED BY CALLERS.

No. I. A certain Bosong, footing on Hain as the representative of Supering train as th con Main own wisdom and strength. You go forth Governor Hovey, who introduced him to less and to meet these responsibilities, carrying the crowd and called for order, which be new special put on for inauguration bus- man Britton. In the next carriage were iness, and therefore had no trouble in Russell Harrison and wife, child and personal regard of your fellow Christians. "My Good Friends and Neighbors: I Hamisanis, Feb. 26.—The time gained keeping strictly up to the schedule time. General Williams, of the committee. In We have learned to believe in your per- cannot trust myself to put in words what in the run to the Altoona yards was par- At New Cumberland, Goldsboro, Mount the next rode Mr. and Mrs. McKee and sonal intergrity, in your tested, establish- I feel at this time. Every kind thought tially lost by the delay occasioned in Wolf, and York Haven the scenes com; Mrs. Lord and General McCammon. remedying a misfit of the couplers join- mon to all towns of like size along the Ex-Senator and Mrs. Saundries, of No. ness is most useful to inspire confidence being on the East land of Flical with Heatley on the North and trace by the East land of Flical with Heatley on the last land of the members of this wish that is in your hearts for me finds ing the first two cars of the train, and the rest of the party took in the view and north of the party took in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the remaining contribution of the party took in the timid and encourage the deserving the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the remaining contribution of the party took in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the remaining contribution of the party took in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the remaining contribution of the party took in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the remaining contribution of the party took in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the remaining contribution of the party took in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the remaining contribution of the party took in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the remaining contribution of the party took in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the first two cars of the train passed York on time at places in the first two cars of the first two cars of the first two blood disorder. Druggists.

Thief Arrested.

and a bit of scandal.

grace in our prayers, beseeching that God home. Twice before I have left it to disof Nations unto whom our fathers looked charge public duties, and returned to it make a nice run," remarked Conductor President-elect Harrison and party to the flaunting bunting and decorations in much the external circumstances in to guide you by his counsels, to shield with gladness, as I hope to do again. It Long. "We'll get there if the first sec- Washington arrived at Union Station his honor and the great tiers of seats on which we are placed, the temptations to you by his promises, to enrich you with is a city on whose streets the pompons tion will keep out of the way." But that premptly at 1:15 this afternoon. A treheavenly wisdom and make you perfect displays of wealth are not seen; it is full had been the trouble all the way from mendous crowd was assembled at the enormous throng of spectators already nature, may work upon us, all these inin every good work to do His will. of pleasant homes, and in these homes Indianapolis. The first section would depot and thousands were on the bridges gathering to witness the spectacle of in-A RECEPTION AT THE CHURCH DOOR. there is an unusual store of contentment, maintain its exasperating habit of block- overlooking the Pennsylvania Railroad auguration on Monday. There was a not pass, and that is the limit laid upon As the congression was dismissed a The memory of your favor and kindness ing the road, but a change was promised tracks. There was a stoppage of but a crowd of about five hundred persons them by the freedom of the will, which number of ladies and gentlemen gather- will abide with me, and my strong desire here, and the lively rate of speed at few minutes for the purpose of reversing gathered in front of the hotel, who sent is essential to human nature—to our pered around the Harrison party, but the to hold your respect and confidence will which the run over the division was beongregation made no move toward leav strengthen me in the discharge of my gun indicated that the promise would be started on the last stage of its journey up. About an hour after his arrival the No stop was made at Altoona, where THE GENERAL LOOKING VERY TIRED. When the train rolled into the depot, to welcome the new Chief Magistrate in of all men in the sight of God. Monarchcitizens were gathered at the station to and Mrs. McKee appeared on the platform of their car and the ten minutes | mer brother Senators. The committee and protected in their rights, the wicked | Steward of the Poor Bouse to visit the wait was consumed in shaking hands explained the arrangements which had pressure is being lifted from women, in children in private families, and those along the tracks, and several hundred the President elect and Mrs. Harrison At Bellwood, seven miles east of Altoo- with the hundreds of ladies and gentle- been made by the Senate for his inangu- telligence and freedom are being univerna, a company of men, with a large flag, men who clambered up the steps and ration, which were very satisfactory, sally diffused, and all men, white and stood alongside the track, and at the hung on to the railings to get a close view President and Mrs. Cleveland have not black, rich and poor, are being taught every instance this has been done, and junction, where a branch leads off to the of the Presidential party. Their receptions of the Classfeld and the Presidential party. Their receptions of the Classfeld and the Presidential party. Their receptions of the Classfeld and the Presidential party. coal mines of the Clearfield region, and tion was quite enthusiastic. Mr. Harri- tesies to be extended their successors in the pursuit of happiness. at Tyrone Forges there were crowds of son looked as if he had had a tedious Washisoron, Feb. 26.-The train with immediate family sat down to breakfast, whence they viewed the gatherings of not proceed to the station, but stopped at people at Mount Union, Lewistown Junc-Maryland Avenue and Ninth street at tion, Mifflin, Newport, Duncannon, and 2.35 p. m. The party took carriages and nature. Maysville, as they sped along toward were immediately driven to the Arling-The party in the press car took break-

Washington, February 26.-General Harrison and his party arrived here today at 2:35 o'clock P. M. The train did not proceed to the station, as was expected, but stopped at Maryland avenue and Ninth street, whence the party took carriages for the Arlington Hotel. In anticipation of General Harrison's sembled in the waiting rooms of the Pennsylvania Railroad station to catch a glimpse of the President-elect. The crowd in the station included a number of ladies. As the time at which General Harrison's train was due drew near Bathing and Brushing.

but all may not know that a rough skin es have skins as smooth as satin. Doubtless they learn and practice the art of "mistresses, and their trades, occupations keeping the skin clean and healthful. "and callings, and also an account of all The amount of time and labor for this "sales, donations, devises and bequests, imple hygienic performance is not great, "as have been made by or to them." but the thing that is difficult is to estab-

Jenny June says a warm sponge bath cember, 1888; at night, and a cold sponge bath in the morning has been her custom since eleven years of age, and to it she attributes L. C. Colsons, J. M. FIKE, much of the good health that has been hers to enjoy. The many little arts to keep up the beauty, or retaining it by natural meth- fering among the inmates. The Poor ceive attention if we would keep it soft merely an asylum or place of confineand glossy. Although there is great dif- ment for those who have been bereft of ference in hair in these respects, brush- their reason.

Russell and his wife and Mrs. McKee and until 7:30 o'clock, at which time he for brushing the hair, but I think a per-

Nothing sharpens the arrow of sarcasm President-elect and party reached Wash- it, no reproach is like that we clothe wood-house, which, owing to its being so The world assally pushes a man the way he has made up his mind to go. If tion however, making the speed greater with Samuel Trent, with the approval of on the decline. Hollow trees are always the stiffest, but

The more exalted a man is by station, Jury at their last visitation, will be conthe more powerful should he be by kindness. There is no policy like politeness, since a good manner often succeeds where the best tongue has failed. Polite-

In this order the carriages drove from We hear now much about circumstan-Maryland avenue, where the President. ces making us what we are und destroy-

Senate committee on arrangements, Sen- tury, running through all fiction, poetry, have good and comfortable homes, and to ators Hoar, Cullom and Cockreil, called philosophy and theology, is the equality behalf of the Senate. The President- issure being limited, the oppressed are ly in regard to their schooling.

officials and social regime of the Mansion.

It is understood that General Harrison Did Not Know Her Mother.

have some understanding in regard to the other day, and set a large, well-filled wholesome food. Fewer complaints, and General Harrison and party on board did the proclamation calling the Senate in basket dewn. It chanced to introde on more expressions of satisfaction are made special session and confer upon such mat- the toes of a superbiv dressed young by them than ever before. They seem ters of administration as are of a routine woman opposite. She immediately was to be contented and bappy. indignant. She abused market baskets roundly, and then abused the people | There were twelve deaths at the Home who carried them. Then she allowed the during the year, all of whom reached a The news was received with the nt- opinion to escape that people who carried good old age. Some were great sufferers most satisfaction by the community that | baskets had no business to ride on street | for years and when death came it was a he had terrorized; but the arrest of a discars. And then she decried against poor relief rather than a sorrow. One of the ease that is stealing away a loved and people being allowed to ride in every number, John Moore, was a noted charvalued life, is an achievement that should street car. Some cars should be reserved acter in the days of stage coaching, and inspire heart-felt gratitude. Chilliness, she said, for genteel folks. The veiled the many thrilling adventures and docold extremities, depressed spirits, and lady said not a word until both motion-ings of his, have become household stoextremely miserable sensations, with ef the driver, and the car stopped, ries, and will be handed down for many pale, wan featutes, are the results of dis- "Hold on: Take that pail," said the years to come. He was well known by ordered kidneys and liver. Arrest the elder lady. Her tormenter looked a many citizens of the county. At the time cause at once by taking Dr. Pierce's Gul- moment in astonishment. "Take that of his death he was 74 years old, and den Medical Discovery. It is a purely pail, Martha, and carry it home. This committed to the Poor House 8th Nov. vegetable detective, that will ferret out is all I can manage," repeated the elder. 1865. and capture the most subtle lung or "Why mother," asked the crestfallen

In the matter of speed there is a great giggled. many people do marry for love—though | held at the death of each fumate.

1 900 years ago, but his spirit still lives. I is the lave of money.

REPORT

OF THE Directors of the Poor

AND OF THE HOUSE OF EMPLOYMENT

TO THE Court and Grand Jury FOR THE YEAR 1888.

> To the Honorable, the Judgee of the Court of Quarter Sessions, and the Grand Jury of said County:

In compliance with the provisions of the Act of Assembly, approved the 15th day of April, 1845, providing for the erection of a House of Employment, and sup-As years go by the skin and hair tell port of the poor of said county, the said Directors herewith respectfully submit Every intelligent mind understands and lay before you their report for the that a bath at least once each week is es- year ending November 30, 1888, showing sential to health, therefore happiness, the "number, age and sex of the persons "maintained and employed in said is greatly improved by more frequent ab- "House of Employment or supported or assisted elsewhere, and of the children by them bound out to apprenticeship,

" with the names of their masters and

In addition to the information required lish the habit of daily bathing and fric- by the Act of Assembly, the Board of tion. This done the greatest obstacle is Directors herewith furnish, under suitable headings, the dates of admission and The custom of a cold sponge bath on discharge of the inmates, the names and rising followed by brisk friction besides residence of those assisted elsewhere, and increasing beauty, goes far to sustain also all the names of children maintainhealth and ward off disease. The vigor ed in pr vate families under the Act of and elasticity thus imparted are known Assembly approved the 13th day of June, only to those who practice it, and the 1883, and the amounts paid for their habit once well established will not eas- maintenance, and the masters and misily be relinquished. A word of cantion | tresses of children apprenticed; also, an may be necessary, as it is not wise for all account of the repairs made, and condipeople under all circumstances to strictly tion of the buildings and farm, and other items which may be of interest to the But for the well, the moderately well, Court, Grand Jury, and the public. and the semi-invalid beginning with Schedules with explanatory headings of warm water, if necessary, and gradually the lists as required by the Act of Assem-> mitted, and certified this first day of De-JOHN C. BARRON. G. F. SCHMUCKER, Clerk. Directors of the Poor.

items of interest, and made as part of this complexion, to give a soft youthful glow In presenting this annual report for the skin, were better laid aside-or the year 1888, the Directors, as well as congratulated and thankful, that during ods than use artifices often more or less House is fast becoming what it was originally intended to be, a home for the The hair as well as the skin should re- poor and unfortunate in life, instead of

Since the Act of Assembly was passed I have heard the role, an hour a Jay creating the Committee on Lunacy, with sage of the Act of Assembly of 1883, providing that no children between the ages of two and sixteen years shall be kept or maintained at the Home. The Directors, The present is a bright spot between realizing the wisdom of the laws, have the darkness of the future and the twi- acted in accordance therewith, thus relieving the Poor House of the insane. Happiness is often at our side, and we and all children, making it more compass her by ; misfortune is afar off, and fortable and pleasant for the aged poor, and quiet for the sick and afflicted, as

During the year the Directors have Strong in the goodness of his cause, erected porches on the East and West with his back to the throne of God and end of the main building, which have his foot on the rock of truth, a man can greatly added to the appearance of the buildings, and are a comfort to the inmates, and a convenience to all. The so keenly as the courtesy that publishes buildings are all in good repair except the

The farm has been limed and is new in a good state of cultivation, and is producing well. The exchange of land made the Court, has placed the farm in much better shape, and is quite an improve-

The improvements made by the Grand sidered and acted upon the ensuing year. The farm and buildings never have presented a better appearance, and were

The stock on the farm is in fine condition, and will compare favorably with any in the county. One of the beeves raise to take the place of the horses now on the farm, as they are getting old, and will have to be disposed of.

placing children in private families, and in binding some out, to see that they see that the parties are able to carry out dren out are well cared for.

will make a formal call upon the Presi- An old lady, but a portly one, heavily and comfortably clothed, have warm deni at noon to-morrow, when they will veiled, came into a St. Louis street car rooms to sit and sleep in, and good and

There were religious services held at girl, as she picked up the basket and least once every-month by Rev. Appleton went out, while the occopants of the car Bash, the regularly employed Chaplain, and services held once by Elder A. W. In spite of allsthat cynics say, a good Conner. Religious services were also

(Continued on Fourth Page.)