There was brought up the line was greeted with tremendous cheers, as the coaches which were attached to the newspaper special were brought out of the siding, and there was a simultaneous rish of 3,000 men toward them. They were filled to overflowing in less than a minute and a countless throug wastrugging for a place on the steps. It was in vain for the officials to say that the trains would run in sections filters initiates ahead of everybody and no filter minutes behind anybody. MENDER OKLADIOLATION, The first section made up consisted of fine coaches, the newspaper coach and one caboose. It pulled out at 8,45, rail- oul time, drawn by engine 20, in charge on the Santa Fa Line for eleven yoars and is one of the oldest and most trusted engineers in the company's em- ploy. Trainmaster Foulkes was in charge of the entire train. This was the first train that ever ran out of Kansas loaded for Okhhoma with settles, and even those who were disappointed in getting aboard of it joined in a wild, enthusias the step toward the realization of hopes and dreams of years and the reward for the step toward the realization of hopes and dreams of years and the reward to the start for the site which marks	people for drinks from thesengine tasks and many seve accommodated. There was great indignation over the fact that the people had gone on the ground before 12 o'clock, and it was the general sentiment that all such should be singled out and debarred.
